MINUTES,

ETC.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met, agreeably to appointment, in the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday, the 19th day of May, A.D. 1870, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Philemon H. Fowler, D.D., the Moderator of the General Assembly which met in May last at the Church of the Covenant in the city of New-York, on Ephesians 4 : 4, "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling."

The Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., the Moderator of the General Assembly which met in May last at the Brick Church in the city of New-York, and the Rev. Philemon H. Fowler, D.D., the Moderator of the General Assembly which met in May last at the Church of the Covenant in the city of New-York, presided jointly until another Moderator should be chosen, the first-mentioned Moderator, Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D.D., putting all votes and deciding questions of order.

After the sermon, the Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D.D., constituted the sessions with prayer.

The Committee on Commissions reported that several persons had appeared as Commissioners, whose commissions were either entirely wanting or defective.

Whereupon a Committee on Elections, consisting of the Rev. George C. Heckman, D.D., the Rev. Samuel M. Morton, and Mr. David Robinson, was appointed, to whom these cases were referred.

On the recommendation of the Committee of Arrangements, it was resolved, that the morning session open at 9 A.M., and close at 1 o'clock P.M.; that the afternoon session open at 3½ o'clock, and close at 5½ o'clock P.M.; and that the first hour of the morning session be occupied with devotional exercises.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 19th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.
The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

On recommendation of the Committee on Commissions, and the Committee on Elections, the following persons were recognized as duly appointed Commissioners of this General Assembly, and their names entered on

The formation of the Presbytery of COLORADO, in connection with the Synod of Southern Iowa, was reported; also, that Rev. Sheldon Jackson and Mr. J. G. Ridgelay were present as Commissioners.

The names of the Presbytery and its Commissioners were ordered to be enrolled.

The Rev. J. TRUMBULL BACKUS, D.D., of the Presbytery of Albany, was, on the nomination of Rev. William Adams, D.D., unanimously elected Moderator, and inducted into office.

The Rev. EDWIN F. HATFIELD, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York, Third, was, on the nomination of Rev. G. W. Musgrave, D.D., unanimously elected Stated Clerk.

The Rev. CYRUS DICKSON, D.D., of the Presbytery of Baltimore, was, on the nomination of Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D., unanimously elected Permanent Clerk.

The Rev. VILLEROY D. REED, D.D., of the Presbytery of Burlington, and the Hon. SAMUEL F. McCOY, of the Presbytery of Chillicothe, were unanimously elected Temporary Clerks.

The Assembly resolved to adopt the General Rules for Judicatories contained in the Appendix to the Constitution, as the Rules of this Assembly, except that the thirteenth, fourteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth Rules shall be as follows, viz.:

13. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate.

On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once.

On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the Judicatory.

14. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged, and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

17. The Previous Question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put?

It shall only be admitted, when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration, (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, upon the main question.

The eighteenth rule to be omitted, as superseded and unnecessary.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow morning to receive the Annual Reports of the Boards and Permanent Committees.

The second order, to receive the Records of Synods, Statistical Reports, Narratives of the State of Religion, Overtures, and other papers, from the Presbyteries.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction was made the order of the day for Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Chairmen of the Standing Committees on the Boards and Committees of the Church were appointed a Committee to determine the time for considering the several Reports.

A communication was received, by the Rev. William Adams, D.D., from the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in the city of New-York, proposing, on certain terms, to place their institution under the care of the General Assembly.

A communication was also received from the Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, asking that the change contemplated in the above communication may be made, and proposing other matters of interest to the Seminary.

These communications were referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 20th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported in part as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence respectfully recommend to the Assembly, that the Rev. William Arnot and the Rev. William G. Blaikie, D.D., from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland; the Rev. Robert Watts, D.D., and Mr. Thomas Sinclair, from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland; the Rev. John Edmond, D.D., and the Rev. John McLeod, D.D., from the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Rev. David Inglis and the Rev. Thomas Lowry, from the Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church, be admitted to seats in this Assembly, as Delegates from the several ecclesiastical bodies they represent, and that they be heard in the order above named, at a session of the Assembly to be held for that purpose on Wednesday next, at 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Committee further recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly cordially receives the Delegates from the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland, a body not hitherto in correspondence with either branch of our Re-united Church, and that the Committee on Correspondence be directed to nominate Delegates who shall present our greetings to that Synod at its meeting next year.

2. That this Assembly has learned with profound regret, that the Rev. Samuel M. Dill, D.D., one of the Delegation from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, has been prevented by death from fulfilling his appointment; and that we express our sincere condolence with them in the loss of so distinguished a member.

The report was adopted.

The Stated Clerk reported that the following additional Commissioners had presented their commissions, and been enrolled, viz.: Rev. George A. Irvin, of the Presbytery of Leavenworth; Mr. Lawrence G. Mills, of the Presbytery of Atlantic; Rev. S. M. Campbell, D.D., of the Presbytery of Rochester; Rev. William C. Scofield, of the Presbytery of St. Joseph; Rev. J. H. Marshall, of the Presbytery of Schuyler; Rev. L. T. McClure, of the Presbytery of Neosho; Rev. Theodore F. White, of the Presbytery of Ithaca; and Mr. Samuel Merrill, of the Presbytery of Indianapolis.

The following preamble and resolutions, presented by Rev. William Adams, D.D., were unanimously adopted, viz.:

Whereas, This General Assembly believes that the interests of the kingdom of our Lord, throughout our entire country, will be greatly promoted by healing all unnecessary divisions;—

Whereas, This General Assembly desires the speedy establishment of cordial fraternal relations with the body known as the "Southern Presbyterian Church," on terms of mutual confidence, respect, Christian honor and love;—

Whereas, We believe that the terms of re-union between the two branches of the Presbyterian Church at the North, now so happily consummated, present an auspicious opportunity for the adjustment of such relations;—therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of five Ministers and four Elders be appointed by this Assembly, to confer with a similar Committee, if it shall be appointed by the Assembly now in session in the city of Louisville, Ky., in respect to opening a friendly correspondence between the Northern and Southern Presbyterian Churches; and that the result of such conference be reported to the General Assembly of 1871.

Resolved, 2. That, with a view to the furtherance of the object contemplated in the appointment of said Committee, this Assembly hereby reaffirms the "Concurrent Declaration" of the two Assemblies which met in the city of New-York last year, viz.:

"That no rule or precedent which does not stand approved by both bodies shall be of any authority in the re-united body, except in so far as such rule or precedent may affect the rights of property founded thereon."

Resolved, 3. That two Ministers and one Elder of the Committee appointed by this Assembly be designated as Delegates, to convey to the Assembly now in session at Louisville, Ky., a copy of these resolutions with our Christian salutations.

The Annual Reports of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and of the Treasurer of the late (N. S.) General Assembly, were presented and referred to the Standing Committee on Finance.

The following Preamble and Resolutions, touching the Presbyterian Historical Society, were unanimously adopted, viz.:

Regarding it as a high duty to the Church and the world, to preserve and transmit to posterity the record of God's dealing with our great branch of the Christian family in this country, the memorials of its growth, trials, and triumphs, and also of its honored champions, and whatever may become the source of histories yet to be written,

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly regards with great gratification the historical collection in the hands of the Presbyterian Historical Society, consisting now of between 4000 and 5000 volumes, 20,000 pamphlets, 300 volumes of newspapers, and 500 portraits of Presbyterian ministers and distinguished laymen.

2. That, as it is of great importance, that this very valuable collection be placed at once within the reach of all who may desire to make use of its treasures, and beyond the reach of those casualties to which it is now exposed, this Assembly cordially recommends to the members of our Church to contribute liberally for the erection of an edifice which shall be fire-proof, and of dimensions suitable for its present and early prospective requirements; and that all contributions to this object be recognized as a part of the Five Million Memorial Fund.

3. That it be earnestly recommended, that every minister in our Church forward to the Society a copy of each pamphlet, sermon, address, essay, memoir of persons or congregations, and book, of which they are the authors, and manuals of churches of which they are pastors; and also that the various Presbyteries and Synods existing forward a copy of all the published records of their proceedings.

The Assembly received and accepted the resignation of the Rev. James M. Platt as Trustee of the Western Theological Seminary.

The following times for considering the Reports of the Boards and Committees were appointed, viz.:

Tuesday, 10 A.M.—The Special Report of the Committee of Conference with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

Tuesday, 10½ A.M.—The Report of the Board of Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, and of Church Extension.

Wednesday, 10 A.M.—The Reports on Foreign Missions.
Thursday, 10 A.M.—The Reports on Home Missions.
Thursday, 3½ P.M.—The Reports on Publication.
Friday, 10 A.M.—The Reports on Ministerial Relief.
Friday, 3½ P.M.—The Reports on Education.
Monday, 10 A.M.—The Reports on Freedmen.

A Committee was appointed, consisting of Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., Rev. J. B. Bittinger, D.D., Rev. E. R. Beadle, D.D., and Rev. W. S. Curtis, D.D., Edward North, L.H.D., and Mr. C. N. Olds, to consider the perils which beset the System of Popular Education in the United States, and to propose a minute expressive of the sentiments of the General Assembly on this momentous question.

The following request was received and granted—Saturday, the 28th inst., being fixed upon as the time of the service.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20, 1870.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church of America:

The Trustees of the College of New-Jersey are about to erect a suite of rooms to accommodate the rapidly increasing number of students, and intend to call the building "Re-union Hall," in honor of the re-union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church; and it will be deemed a very great favor by the Trustees and Faculty, if the General Assembly will make an arrangement to lay the corner-stone of the Hall at a time it may appoint. It may be interesting to the members of the Assembly to know, that we have at present a larger number of ministers' sons and of young men studying for the ministry than we have ever had in our old College, and it is believed that the interests of religion will be subserved by thus countenancing us on this occasion.

JAMES McCOSH,
President of the College.
HENRY W. GREEN,
JOHN C. BACKUS,
G. W. MUSGRAVE,
CYRUS DICKSON.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., Rev. Z. M. Humphrey, D.D., Rev. J. C. Watson, D.D., Hon. William Strong, LL.D., and Hon. J. Ross Snowden, were appointed a Committee on the Revision of the Rules for Judicatories.

Rev. William Adams, D.D., Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., Rev. P. H. Fowler, D.D., Rev. H. J. Van Dyke, D.D., Rev. J. C. Backus, D.D., Hon. Henry Green, LL.D., Hon. William E. Dodge, Mr. James Brown, and Hon. Daniel Haines, were appointed a Committee on Correspondence with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South, now in session at Louisville, Ky.

The following resolutions were adopted, viz.:

1. The entire ground floor of the church shall be reserved for the use of the Assembly. Besides Commissioners, Delegates, and the Officers of the Assembly, the following persons, and no others, shall be admitted to the floor, viz.: Ex-Moderators of the Assembly; Committes to report at this meeting; parties and counsel in judicial cases; members and officers of the Boards and Permanent Committees; Directors and Professors of Theological Seminaries; the Committee of Arrangements, and such Reporters of the proceedings of the Assembly as shall obtain permission from the Committee of Arrangements.

2. No person shall be allowed to remain standing in any part of the aisles.

3. The Committee of Arrangements are requested to take such measures as may be necessary to enforce these orders, commencing with the sessions on Monday morning.

Messrs. Edward A. Lambert, Thomas Bond, and Ezra M. Kingsley were appointed a Committee to audit the Report of the Treasurer of the Church Erection Fund.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported the following papers, viz.:

Overtures from the Presbyteries of Holston, Warren, and Schuyler on Representation in the General Assembly: From the Presbytery of Philadelphia and Des Moines on boundaries of Presbyteries: From the Presbytery of Des Moines on location of Board of Missions: From the Presbytery of Long Island on the formation of a Synod of Long Island: From the Presbytery of Potomac on union with the Presbytery of the District of Columbia: From the Presbytery of Dubuque on the early meeting of Presbyteries and Synods: From the Presbytery of Des Moines on a Hymn-Book: From the Presbytery of Elizabethtown on union with the Southern Church: From the Presbytery of Shantung, China, on Polygamy in Mission Churches.

They were put on the docket.

The Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., as Chairman, presented the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction. It was read and put on the docket. The consideration of it was made the order for Monday at 10 o'clock A.M.

The Annual Reports of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, and of their Treasurer, were read and referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., Hon. James Pollock, and Mr. Ezra M. Kingsley were appointed a Committee to report on a proper disposition of the Mileage or Commissioners' Fund for this Assembly.

An invitation to visit the Union League House of this city was received and accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until Monday at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following Commissioners, Rev. J. B. Shaw, D.D., of the Presbytery of Rochester, and Mr. J. D. Gillett, of the Presbytery of Steuben, appeared, and were enrolled.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows:

An Overture from the Presbytery of Peoria, on the authority of Ruling Elders to administer Sealing Ordinances: The Committee recommend that they be referred to the Standards, chap. vii., sect. 1, and chap. viii. throughout.

The report was adopted.

Also, an Overture respecting Sabbath Desecration by Railroad Companies: They recommend that, in view of previous deliverances on the subject, no further action is necessary.

The report was adopted.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Luzerne, respecting the Election of the Corresponding Secretaries of the Boards, by the General Assembly: It was put on the docket.

The privilege of the floor was granted to Foreign Missionaries.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction. The following rules were adopted to regulate its consideration, viz.:

1. That the Report be taken up and continued as unfinished business, in preference to any order of the day hereafter appointed, until it is finally disposed of.
2. That it be considered in its parts separately: first, the Arrangement of Synods; second, of Presbyteries; third, of Representation in the General Assembly; fourth, the Limitation of appeals; fifth, the Constitutional changes; sixth, Suggestions or Overtures.
3. In the Arrangement of Synods, each shall be taken up separately; and, when no amendment is proposed, that item shall be considered passed or adopted. When amendments are proposed, remarks shall be confined to five minutes; and, if no amendment is adopted, the item shall be passed or adopted. At the close of the part on Synods, a vote shall be taken on it as a whole for final adoption.

Pending the consideration, the Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the presence of several Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, viz.: From the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States of America,—Henry N. Pohlman, D.D.: General Conference of the Congregational Churches of Maine,—Rev. John J. Carruthers, D.D.: General Association of New-Hampshire,—Rev. Harvey M. Stone: General Association of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts,—Rev. Charles Smith: Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin,—Rev. Walter S. Alexander.

The names of the Delegates were enrolled.

After further consideration of the order of the day, the Assembly adjourned at 12 M. until 3½ o'clock P.M., to give the Commissioners opportunity to consult as to the Boundaries of the newly proposed Synods.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 23d, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

It was made the order, for the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday next, to receive and hear the Delegates from Foreign and Corresponding bodies.

The Rev. David Cole, D.D., appeared as a Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and was enrolled accordingly.

The unfinished business, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, was resumed; pending which,

The Committee of Arrangements, by their Chairman, Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., tendered to the Assembly invitations

To a social Re-union, at the Academy of Music, in this city, on Friday evening next:

To a performance of the Oratorio of the "Messiah," by the Handel and Haydn Society, at the Academy of Music, on Tuesday evening of next week:

To view the painting, "Sheridan's Ride," on exhibition in this city:

To the free use of the Library Rooms of the Philadelphia Athenæum:

To a Railway Excursion, next Saturday, to Cape May:

To a Railway Excursion to Atlantic City, at a time to be fixed by the Assembly.

Hon. James Pollock invited the Assembly to visit the United States Mint, at their pleasure.

The invitations were accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this General Assembly of the re-united Presbyterian Church expresses hereby its high sense of the long and valuable services and exemplary fidelity of the Rev. ALEXANDER T. MCGILL, D.D., for many years the Stated Clerk of one of its Branches; and also of the Rev. WILLIAM E. SCHENCK, D.D., and Rev. J. GLENTWORTH BUTLER, D.D., the faithful and courteous Permanent Clerks; and, in view of the close of their official service, do express the hope and prayer that this Church may long continue to enjoy the benefit of their experience and practical wisdom in the guidance of her affairs; and further,

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk of this Assembly be directed to send copies of the above Resolutions to the Rev. A. T. McGill, D.D., W. E. Schenck, D.D., and J. Glentworth Butler, D.D.

The order of the day was suspended to take up the unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee of Reconstruction.

That part of the Report respecting the Boundaries of Synods, having been amended, was adopted.

The rules, adopted to regulate the consideration of the part already considered, were applied to the remainder of the Report.

The Assembly proceeded to consider that part of the Report which relates to the Reconstruction of Presbyteries; pending which, the Committee on Devotional Exercises presented a communication from the American Baptist Missionary Union, now in session in this city, with their fraternal salutations, and proposing a union meeting with this Assembly, this afternoon.

Whereupon it was resolved, that we cordially reciprocate the Christian courtesy and kindly feeling expressed by the American Baptist Missionary Union, now in session in this city, and appoint a Committee of the following-named Commissioners to appear in that body, and present our fraternal salutations, viz., Revs. James McCosh, D.D., William Adams, D.D., R. W. Patterson, D.D., W. M. Paxton, D.D., Walter Clarke, D.D., Henry Darling, D.D., Howard Crosby, D.D., James B. Shaw, D.D., T. L. Cuyler, D.D., E. R. Beadle, D.D.; and the Elders, Hon. William Strong, Robert Carter, J. D. Vermilye, E. A. Lambert, E. M. Gregory, Edward Bristol, W. B. Canfield, Hon. J. Ross Snowden, Hon. James Pollock, Hon. S. J. Thompson, E. B. Babbitt, Hon. D. Haines, Hon. J. B. Skinner, and Hon. Israel S. Spencer.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 24th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Rev. Joseph A. Hanna, of the Presbytery of Oregon, and Mr. Joseph Pierce, of the Presbytery of Lake, appeared as Commissioners, and were enrolled.

The Committee, appointed to audit the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Church Erection Fund, reported that they had found them correct, and recommend their approval as satisfactory.

The report was adopted.

Resolved, That the following topics be entertained by the Assembly as the principal subjects for prayer and conference in the morning hour for Devotional Exercises, during the ensuing week; and that the Moderator be requested to announce, each evening, the subject for the following morning; also, to call the attention of the Assembly to it at the opening of the services, viz., on Wednesday morning, Foreign Missions; Thursday morning, Home Missions; Friday morning, Publication; Saturday morning, Church

Extension; Monday morning, Disabled Ministers; Tuesday morning, Freedmen.

The unfinished business was then resumed, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, as pertaining to the reconstruction of the Presbyteries. After discussion, the section was altered by the adoption of an Amendment, proposed by the Rev. S. T. Spear, D.D.

It was referred to a Committee, consisting of Rev. S. T. Spear, D.D., Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., Rev. William P. Breed, D.D., Hon. James Pollock, and Hon. I. S. Spencer, to adjust this action to the Report of the Reconstruction Committee.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and during the hour for devotional exercises a Delegation from the American Baptist Missionary Union was received, renewing the Christian salutations of that body, and taking part in the devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Correspondence recommended the appointment of the following Delegates to Corresponding Bodies:

To the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland—Ministers, Rev. G. W. Musgrave, D.D., and Rev. William Adams, D.D., Principals; Rev. E. R. Beadle, D.D., and T. L. Cuyler, D.D., Alternates: Elders, Hon. William E. Dodge and Mr. James Brown.

To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America—Rev. William C. Wisner, D.D., Principal; Rev. J. H. McIlvaine, D.D., Alternate.

To the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church—Rev. David Tully, Principal; Rev. John Thompson, D.D., Alternate.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America—Rev. James Crowell, D.D., Principal; Rev. S. M. Campbell, D.D., Alternate.

To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States of America—Rev. N. W. Goertner, D.D., Principal; Rev. Henry Darling, D.D., Alternate.

To the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists—Rev. B. W. Chidlaw, Principal; Rev. John Thomas, Alternate.

The Committee also recommended that the Transatlantic Delegates be heard on Wednesday evening, in the order in which they stand on the roll; and that the other Delegates, including those from Canada, be heard on Thursday evening.

The report was adopted.

The report of the Joint Committee on Freedmen was presented, read, and put on the docket.

The Committee on Elections reported the Rev. Charles R. Mills, from the Presbytery of Shantung, China, as present without a commission, and recommended that he be enrolled.

The report was adopted.

The Committee appointed to harmonize the amendment adopted by the Assembly, with the report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, presented their report, which was adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported Judicial Case No. 1: A Protest of W. C. Matthews, against the action of the Synod of Kentucky.

The Committee recommended that the matter be dismissed, because, as being a mere protest, the paper belongs to the lower court, and the protestant has his sufficient redress in the review of the Synodical records by the Assembly. See Book of Discipline, chap. viii., sec. 4.

Also, Judicial Case No. 2: Concerning C. Kern, of New-Orleans.

It is recommended that the case be referred back again to the Presbytery of New-Orleans, with the injunction that, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly of last year, it receive the early attention of that body.

Also, Judicial Case No. 3: Being a Complaint of the Third Presbytery of Philadelphia, against the Presbytery of Luzerne, for an alleged invasion of Presbyterial jurisdiction. The case is brought before the Assembly, because of these Presbyteries having had no common Synodical relations.

The Committee propose that the new Synod take up the case, and that the Presbytery of Luzerne cease all action until the Synod decides.

Also, Judicial Case No. 4: Sundry papers of Fisk Harmon, of Iowa.

These papers have come into the hands of the Judicial Committee through the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

They present no regular judicial case, and the Committee recommend that Mr. Harmon have leave to withdraw his papers.

Also, Judicial Case No. 5: An Appeal of the Presbytery of Omaha, against the decision of the Synod of Iowa, in the case of Dr. G. C. Morrill.

This case originated in the session of the Second Church of Omaha, in which common fame was the accuser against Dr. Gilbert C. Morrill. After trial and judgment before the session, it was carried, by appeal of the accused, to the Presbytery of Omaha, from whose judgment it was again carried, by appeal of the accused, to the Synod of Iowa.

The Synod remanded the case to the session for a new trial, of which decision the Presbytery of Omaha seeks a review by appeal to this Assembly.

In the judgment of the Judicial Committee, the Presbytery of Omaha is not one of the original parties to this case, and is, therefore, not competent to bring it before the Assembly by appeal, (Book of Discipline, chap. vii., sec. 3: sub. 1 and 17.) And they, therefore, recommend that the appellants have leave to withdraw their papers.

Also, Judicial Case No. 6: Being an Appeal and Complaint of the Church of Mifflinsburgh, against the Synod of Philadelphia, for its action in the appeal and complaint of Rev. Isaac Grier, D.D.

The Committee find the papers to be in order, and they recommend, as the parties are so agreed, that a Commission, consisting of Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. S. G. Spees, D.D., Mr. H. N. McAlister, Hon. I. S. Spencer, Hon. J. B. Skinner, Hon. Daniel Haines, and Messrs. H. G. Spafford, and Joseph D. Reinboth, be now appointed to sit on this case outside of the house, and to report to this Assembly.

The report, in all its parts, was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions reported the following

Memorial of the Presbytery of Schuyler (late N. S.) to the General Assembly:

It having come to the knowledge of this Presbytery, that polygamy exists in at least one church in connection with the Board of Foreign Missions, viz., the Omaha Mission Church, this Presbytery respectfully memorializes the General Assembly to take such measures in the reorganization of the foreign missionary work of the Church, as in its judgment will best secure the putting away of this sin, and its prevention in the future in any missionary church connected with the General Assembly.

The Committee recommend the following:

Answer. 1. That your Committee are unable to enter on the consideration of the case presented, since it is manifestly connected with a case of discipline, to adjudicate on which lies outside the province of the Board of Foreign Missions, or of this Committee.

2. That, in respect to the general attitude of the Board of Foreign Missions, in relation to the practice specified in this overture, there is no occasion for criticism on the part of this Committee.

3. That it be, therefore, recommended to the Assembly, that the Overture with the accompanying papers be sent to the Presbytery of Missouri River, for its consideration, and for action thereupon, if it be necessary.

The report was adopted.

The Special Committee of Conference of the Assembly (late N. S.) with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presented their report, which was read, and referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The order of the day was suspended, and the Report of the Joint Committee on Foreign Missions was presented, which was read, and put on the docket.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported a Memorial from the Presbytery of Saline on the change of Chapter 9, Section 2, of our Form of Government: with the answer, That it is inexpedient to consider cases in thesi.

It was adopted.

Also, Overtures 1, 2, 3, 4, relating to a Sustentation Fund and Directorship of Home Missions, which were referred to a Committee of five to report to the next General Assembly.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Long Island in regard to purging the Church rolls; with the answer, That action is inexpedient now.

Which was adopted.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Michigan, in relation to Posture in Prayer and Praise: with the answer, That action is inexpedient.

Which was adopted.

Also, an Overture from Rev. H. M. McCracken, of the Presbytery of Maumee, on the Commemoration of the 300th Anniversary of the formation of the first Presbytery in England; the death of John Knox; and the Martyrdoms of St. Bartholomew's Day: with the answer, That action is now inexpedient.

Which was adopted.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Newton on the Consolidation of the Boards.

Which was put on the docket.

Resolved, To suspend all orders of the day until the remainder of the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction be finished.

The Committee on Correspondence reported Rev. W. H. Wedekind present as a Delegate from the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States of America; and recommended that he be received and heard on Thursday evening.

Which was adopted.

The unfinished business was resumed, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

An invitation to visit the Academy of Natural Sciences was received, and accepted with thanks.

The unfinished business of the morning, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, as to the basis of Representation in the General Assembly, was then resumed.

Pending the discussion, the Committee on Correspondence reported, recommending that the Delegates from the Free Church of Scotland and from the Presbyterian Church in Ireland be received this evening; that the Delegates from the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland, and the Delegates from the Presbyterian Church in Canada, be received on Thursday evening, and that the Delegates from Corresponding Bodies in this country be received on Friday afternoon; and the report was adopted.

The Assembly adjourned until 7½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 25th, 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Delegates from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, Rev. William Arnot, and Professor William G. Blaikie, D.D., and the Delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, Robert Watts, D.D., and Mr. Thomas Sinclair, were introduced, and, having addressed the Assembly, were responded to by the Moderator.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 26th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

An invitation to visit the Mercantile Library was received, and accepted with thanks.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported a request from the Presbytery of Miami, to receive the Rev. J. L. Gourlay, a foreign minister, as a member of that body. The Committee find that the said Rev. J. L. Gourlay furnished testimonials as being in good standing in the Canada Presbyterian Church, was duly examined by the Presbytery of Miami, and has served as a probationer under the care of that body for one year, in accordance with the rules of the General Assembly of 1800. See Baird's Digest, pp. 259, 260.

On the recommendation of the Committee, the request was granted.

The same Committee also reported an application from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, to unite as a Presbytery with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and to become subject to the jurisdiction of this body, on the simple condition of being allowed to remain as they are still attached to the great principles of the Reformation, without being disturbed in their time-honored modes of worship and economical usages generally.

On the recommendation of the Committee, the request was granted.

The Committee also recommended that the Presbytery of Pittsburgh be attached to the Synod of Allegheny; and that Rev. John McMillan be enrolled as a member of this General Assembly as a Delegate from that Presbytery.

Which was adopted.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Finance was made the first order for to-morrow.

The Reports of the Committees on Synodical Records were made the order of the day for the afternoon of Wednesday next.

The order of the day was suspended, to take up the unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee on Reconstruction as pertaining to Representation.

Pending the discussion,

The following Committee was appointed on Sustentation: Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D.D., Rev. Walter Clark, D.D., Rev. James McCosh, D.D., Hon. William Strong, Hon. Nathaniel Ewing, and Mr. Hugh N. McAlister.

William E. Dodge, Hon. James Pollock, Mr. J. B. Kinkead, Mr. Ashbel Welch, Mr. James Brown, Hon. Nathaniel Ewing, Mr. Hugh N. McAlister, Hon. Samuel Osburn, Mr. H. K. Clarke, Hon. L. T. H. Irving, Hon. I. S. Spencer, Mr. C. N. Olds, Hon. J. Ross Snowden, and Mr. J. W. Frackelton.

The Judicial Commission, appointed to hear and try an Appeal and Complaint of the Church and Congregation of Mifflinburgh against the action of the Synod of Philadelphia, on the Appeal and Complaint of the Rev. Isaac Grier, D.D., beg leave to report:

That they have issued the case pro forma, according to the directions of the Book of Discipline in the Case of Appeals and Complaints, and after a full hearing, do unanimously adjudge:

1st. That the decision of the Synod of Philadelphia, affirming the right of Rev. Mr. Grier to preach in Mifflinburgh to the people of his charge, be approved and confirmed.

2d. That the restriction preventing him from administering the Lord's Supper in Mifflinburgh, except under extraordinary circumstances, be removed.

3d. That we most solemnly enjoin it on the members and pastors of both these Churches to cultivate a spirit of forbearance and brotherly love; and that the Presbytery of Northumberland be directed to adopt wise and prudent measures to carry into effect the spirit of this injunction.

The report was adopted, and the action of the commission confirmed.

FRIDAY, May 27th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Communications were received from Delegates from Foreign Bodies, viz.:

From the General Conference of the Congregational Churches of Maine, by Rev. J. J. Carruthers, D.D.:

From the General Association of New-Hampshire, by Rev. Harvey M. Stone:

From the General Association of the Congregational Churches of Massachusetts, by Rev. Charles Smith:

From the Presbyterian and Congregational Convention of Wisconsin, by Rev. W. S. Alexander.

A communication was also received from the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodists, which was referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

A communication was also received, by Rev. J. B. Dales, D.D., from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, conveying their fraternal salutations; which was referred to Rev. Robert D. Harper, D.D., to prepare a response, reciprocating the sentiments of this Assembly, to be forwarded to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, now in session at Pittsburgh, Pa.

Thereupon, the following resolution was adopted, viz.:

"Reciprocating the Christian salutations, so cordially expressed by the Delegate from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America; regretting, as we do, that the Committees, previously appointed to confer with a similar Committee from the United Presbyterian Church on the subject of organic union, were unable to attend at the time appointed; and desirous as we are, not merely to cultivate the most fraternal relations, but, if possible, to secure organic union with a Church so closely allied to us in faith and practice; therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to meet with a similar Committee from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, to confer with respect to organic union between these Churches, and to report the result of said conference to the next Assembly.

The Committee were appointed as follows, viz., Rev. Cyrus Dickson, DD., Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Rev. R. D. Harper, D.D., Mr. William Bakewell, and Mr. Richard Edwards.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The concurrent Overtures from the Presbyteries of Potomac and District of Columbia were referred to the Synod of Baltimore.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented their report, which was accepted and put on the docket.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was taken up, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions would respectfully present to the General Assembly the following Report and Resolutions:

The Committee have examined with care the Report of the Board, and have also listened to verbal statements in regard to the foreign evangelism carried on during the year by the late New School Branch of the Church.

Without attempting to set forth, even in condensed form, the materials of interest which are contained in the Report, or the facts which would adequately present a view of the Presbyterian element in the coöperative work, hitherto carried on by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, your Committee would simply state to the Assembly, that they find abundant and most cheering evidence of the blessing of God upon these varied labors—evidence, which calls for the deepest gratitude, and which affords large encouragement for continued and increased effort on the part of the Church in its reunited strength and zeal. From the many fields of effort already occupied by our missionary brethren, there come assurances of success in laying the foundation, or building up the institutions, of the kingdom of Christ, while, more and more widely, the doors of entrance to lands and races still unvisited have been opened by the providence of God.

Having in view the prospect of the coöperation of our whole Church in the work of Foreign Missions, under the arrangements already reported to the Assembly, and confidently expecting therefrom a large increase of personal and material means for carrying forward the work, your Committee feel fully authorized to call the attention of the Assembly, to the importance of a bold and forward movement, in the discharge of the duty which we, as a Church, owe to our Lord and to the millions who are perishing in ignorance of the Gospel. The heathen world is Christ's charge, not to the Board of Missions, but to the whole Church as an aggregate, and to each particular member of it. This is not now a question to be argued. It is a settled and proved fact; as is also the result of the faithful and energetic admission of the fact, that the benefits received from an active interest in the evangelization of the heathen are as great as those which are conferred. Herein your Committee feel, that there is much apparent unbelief on the part of the Church. This is evident from the fact, to which your Committee give publicity with great reluctance, that during the past year more than one thousand of our churches have made no collection for Foreign Missions, nor evinced any active interest whatever in the progress and success of the work. It is a sad illustration of this mournful fact, that for five successive years the Board of Missions has been compelled to report a debt to the Assembly; and that it is found to be practicably impossible for it, to send forth to the field the men and women who are ready to engage in the work.

It is with hope of better things in future, that the Committee lay before the Assembly the special claims of some of the many fields now occupied by the Board of Missions, and ask in their behalf a deeper interest among the members of our churches. The work in South-America demands immediate extension. With one exception, the Board is the only evangelical American agency which operates on that continent; and the success already realized justifies the belief; that with increased efforts vast and delightful results may be secured. There are few fields of greater promise now open to the Church, and there is special urgency in the appeal that would enter in and possess the land for Christ.

The Committee are deeply impressed with the obligations, resting on the united Church, to take efficient steps to enlarge our work among the Indians of this continent. The early and deep interest felt in this Cause by our Church, which, for reasons the Committee will not delay to mention, has for some years been somewhat diminished, has of late been extensively reawakened. We cannot fail to feel the responsibility, now resting on us, to care for these poor heathen at our very doors, who have been so much neglected, and now must be either saved by the influences of the Gospel, or speedily exterminated by our armies.

The Committee desire to call special attention to the following extract of a letter from the Secretary of the Interior recently published:

> "It was designed to proclaim to those who are interested in the welfare of the Indians, that we wished our agents to be co-workers with the missionaries, and to assist them in their work instead of thwarting it. The government has thus held out its hand to the moral and religious people of the country, and invited closer coöperation, and a more intimate mutual understanding, in the effort to save from destruction, both physical and moral, the remnants of the original inhabitants of the land. Pardon me for saying, that this response has neither been as prompt, or as hearty, as we thought we had a right to expect. We hoped for a combination of benevolent effort, and a revival of missionary enterprise in this direction, which would at least equal what we are willing to do for foreign heathen. I ask the organized help of the good people of the land; and I tell you that, unless we have it on a scale entirely beyond any thing hitherto attempted in this direction, the doom of the Indian is sealed."

The growing prominence of the Chinese question clothes, with peculiar interest, the work of the Church among the Chinese immigrants in California. The harsh treatment, that these heathen strangers have met with in this Christian land, seems to render it highly desirable, that we should do all in our power to show our interest in their welfare, in order to counteract, as much as possible, the bad impression produced upon these immigrants, which must otherwise react most injuriously upon our missionaries and their operations in the Chinese Empire. Notwithstanding the discouragements arising from causes already mentioned, from their unsettled habits, and from their transient sojourn in this country, it is cause for thankfulness, that much has been already accomplished, by the blessing of God on the labors of our missionary at San Francisco, and his Chinese assistants; and that some, who have been brought to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus in this country, have returned to China, and are now working as fellow-laborers with the brethren of our mission at Canton.

In Northern India, where the Board has long maintained an efficient corps of laborers, it is felt that there is room for the successful introduction of a comparatively new agency. Education, and the influence of Gospel truth, have prepared the way in some places, and are gradually opening up the way in others, for work in the Zenanas; and it is deemed fitting, that the Assembly should encourage the Board of Missions, to avail itself of this means of carrying the Gospel to the women of the East, by the agency of woman.

And many other fields there are, now waxing white for harvest-work, in Africa and China and Japan; and fields soon to be placed under the supervision of the Board, as the result of the Re-union, which will require our earnest effort to give them due attention. All these present themselves, and make their plea for men and money, in the name of Christ.

To meet these claims, to keep pace with the wondrous development of God's providence and grace; to set the re-united Church in a befitting attitude before the world and before God, the Judge of all; to bring forth its latent energies and consecrate them to the cause and kingdom of our risen Lord; to make an impress on the age, commensurate with our ability; to accomplish our just share in the rescue of the millions who are sitting in the region and shadow of death; to make our Church, from centre to circumference, a cross-bearing, consecrated, mission-loving Church; this, in the judgment of your Committee, ought to be the aim henceforth set before us, unto which we should urge ourselves, and all who bear the Presbyterian name, as the end of our high calling in Christ Jesus.

Deeply impressed with the importance of the present opportunity, the Committee would request the Assembly to take such ground upon this subject, as will place the cause of Foreign Missions higher in the esteem and affections of our Church, than it has ever been before—and strive from year to year henceforth to rally our members to the work, until the Gospel has been preached to every creature, and the kingdom shall be given unto Him whose right it is to reign.

The Committee would unanimously present to the Assembly the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions be approved, published, and recommended to the prayerful perusal of the ministers and members of our churches.

2. That the signal favor which God has bestowed upon the Re-united Presbyterian Church requires, as an acknowledgment of gratitude and praise, a greatly enlarged and more energetic prosecution of the work of Foreign Missions; and that it be earnestly recommended, to the several Presbyteries, to take measures to secure contributions for this object from all their churches.

3. That the Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to give special heed, so far as its resources in men and money will allow, to the evangelization of the Chinese immigrants on our Pacific Coast.

4. That the Assembly views with deep concern the unevangelized condition of the aboriginal population of our land, and deprecates the increasing tendency among many of our citizens to treat them as a race to be exterminated, rather than as the proper objects of Christian effort, to be thereby civilized and gathered into the fold of Christ; and the Assembly hereby authorizes the Board of Missions to put forth their utmost efforts to accomplish this humane and benignant purpose.

5. That the Assembly regards with satisfaction the purpose, lately avowed by the Board, of increasing the staff of female missionaries in countries already occupied by our missions, where women of the higher classes can be reached only by missionaries of their own sex; and the Board are requested, as a means of adding to the influence and usefulness of this class of agents, to consider the policy of seeking out and commissioning women, who, besides being well-fitted for the work in other respects, may have qualified themselves, within the limits of female propriety, to practise medicine.

It is also recommended to the Board, for the better support of this branch of the service, to encourage the formation of Female Missionary Associations, to work in connection with that body.

6. That, in assuming the charge of the whole missionary work of our now happily re-united Church, the General Assembly casts itself with confidence upon the sympathy and coöperation of all the ministers, elders, and members throughout its bounds, asking and earnestly desiring, not that there may be in any part of our body less of love and good-will than heretofore to other kindred organizations, and especially toward that venerable institution, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, with which many of us have cooperated hitherto, but that, as we take the field to go forth, hand in hand with our brethren of other Churches, to the prosecution of this common Christian work, it may be with such a united, liberal, and all-consuming zeal, on the part of our members, as shall justify, to the judgment of the Christian world, the act, otherwise so painful, of withdrawing from fellow-laborers with whom so many of our people have been associated in the past, and of giving ourselves altogether to our own Church-work at home and abroad.

On the recommendation of the same Committee, the Report of the Committee of Conference with the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions was entered on the records of the Assembly, as follows:

The General Assembly, convened in the Third Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., in the month of November, 1869, anticipating the formation of a Board of Foreign Missions for the united Church, appointed a Committee, consisting of the Ministers, J. F. Stearns, Robert W. Patterson, and R. R. Booth, and the Elders, Robert S. Williams and William E. Landen, "to take into consideration our relations to the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and report to the next Assembly such measures as to them may seem proper and expedient, for the adjustment of those relations to the new posture of our affairs."

This Committee, having attended to the duty assigned them, as far as their circumstances would permit, now beg leave to present their Report:

The relations between the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions have been from the beginning intimate and fraternal. The Board, immediately after its organization, submitted to the Assembly "the expediency of forming an institution similar to this, between which and us there may be such a coöperation as shall promote the great object of missions among unevangelized nations." As the Assembly declined the proposal, preferring, for reasons assigned, to have for the present no separate organization for that object, the original corporators of the Board, who were all of the Congregational denomination, elected into their body, at the first meeting after their incorporation, "eight of the more distinguished members of the Presbyterian Church," among whom we recognize with interest such names as Samuel Miller, Eliphalet Nott, Elias Boudinot, James Richards, and Ashbel Green.

"The amalgamation of the United Foreign Missionary Society with the Board, in 1825, gave occasion for a formal and emphatic recognition of the Board by the General Assembly." This Society had been formed, in the year 1817, by a Joint Committee of the General Assembly and the General Synods of the Reformed Dutch and Associate Reformed Churches. The Assembly, in 1826, formally ratified the engagements which had been made by the two missionary bodies, and, in accordance therewith, recommended the Board to "the favorable notice and Christian support of the Church and people under its care."

The relations thus established remained undisturbed till about the time of our disruption; after which the Old School Assembly had its own Board of Foreign Missions, while the New School Assembly continued as before to maintain its connection with the American Board.

During the whole period of more than thirty years that followed that event, the relations of the two last-named bodies have been eminently satisfactory. The Board has always received the communications of the Assembly with fraternal courtesy, and shown a ready disposition, as far as practicable, to comply with its wishes; and the Assembly, in a corresponding spirit, has received from time to time the delegations of the Board, and commended that institution to the confidence and coöperation of the churches.

In the year 1859, the Assembly, desirous of coming into closer connection with its missionaries on the foreign field, and of securing there a fuller proportional development of our ecclesiastical polity, so far as might be consistent with other interests, appointed a Committee of Conference to attend the next meeting of the Board, and lay before it the following proposition, viz., "The Assembly desires:

"1. That it should be distinctly understood here and abroad, that the Board, its Prudential Committee and officers, interpose no obstacles in the way of the formation of Foreign Presbyteries.

"2. That the appointments of missionaries should be so disposed, wherever it is wise and practicable, as to facilitate the formation of such Presbyteries.

"3. That there should be a free correspondence of our missionaries with the Permanent Committee of the General Assembly."

To all these propositions, after full examination by a Committee, and free discussion in the open meeting of the whole body, the Board gave an affirmative answer. During the ten years that have since elapsed, the Assembly has relied upon the engagements contained in them with unquestioned confidence; and, if less of fruits have resulted from them than was at first expected, it has been, we have reason to believe, because such results could not well be secured in existing circumstances.

We now come to the "new posture of our affairs" contemplated by the Assembly in the appointment of this Committee.

The Committee, having carefully considered the whole subject, are clearly of the opinion:

That the time has come when an effort should be made, as far as may be consistent with the fullest liberty of individual contributors and churches, to concentrate the counsels, the energies, and the contributions of the whole united Church in the work about to be carried on by our Foreign Missionary Board. Reluctant as we are to sever the bonds which have so long and happily subsisted, the Committee are confident that nothing would be gained, and much may be lost, to the common cause by unnecessary delay. In pursuance of this conviction, at a meeting held in the chapel of Mercer Street Church, New-York, March 19th, 1870—Present, Ministers, J. F. Stearns, R. W. Patterson, and

R. R. Booth; Absent, Elders R. S. Williams and R. E. Landen—after prayer and free discussion on the subject referred to them, the Committee resolved:

"1. That, in the judgment of this Committee, it is desirable and important, that a fair proportion of the Missions of the A. B. C. F. M. should be transferred to the Board of the united Presbyterian Church.

"2. That in order to a harmonious and satisfactory transfer of any portion of these missions to the Board of the Presbyterian Church, it will be necessary to leave the missionaries, now connected with such missions, at liberty to retain their present ecclesiastical relations, in case they should prefer to do so.

"This liberty should be accorded to the Congregational missionaries who may be and continue in such missions; and also, in case of the formation of Presbyteries on the foreign field, to such Presbyterian missionaries as may prefer to remain members of the Presbyteries in this country to which they now belong.

"3. That it should be fully understood by all parties, that the same liberty thus provided for, in the case of Congregational missionaries to be transferred to the Assembly's Board, should be granted, by the A. B. C. F. M., to such Presbyterian missionaries as may still continue with the missions of that Board."

The first of these resolutions was deemed essential, in justice to ourselves and the Board, as well as for the most successful prosecution of our future missionary work. With so many missionaries in the field, and so large a work begun in common, with the expectation of our continued coöperation, we could not, in all fairness, withdraw our contributions without taking with us a corresponding part of the responsibilities of the work. On the other hand, after having contributed largely in men and money to the building up of this great missionary enterprise, and, during a period of thirty years, assisted to carry it forward to its present advanced position, it would be manifestly unreasonable that we should go out empty-handed, leaving behind all the results of the past and the accumulated facilities for the future. Indeed, it would be quite impossible for us, to carry with us into the new organization our churches and individual contributors, if in making the change they must give up their whole present working force, and separate themselves from the beloved missionaries, the precious sons and daughters of the Church.

The other two resolutions were deemed important, as an assurance to the missionaries that, in changing their external relations from one Board to another, they will not be required suddenly to change their missionary policy, of which, from long experience in their particular fields, they must, in many cases, be the best judges; nor to sacrifice their ecclesiastical preferences, or break their present ecclesiastical connections. Were this required, some, it is to be feared, who would otherwise gladly cast in their lot with us, would think it wisest to remain as they are.

In respect to two at least of the points involved in the foregoing resolutions, we are happy to say, that we have the concurrence of the Joint Committee of the two Assemblies on Foreign Missions, as will appear from the following extract from their minutes furnished to us, and of which the former was read by us to the Prudential Committee previous to their action.

"Resolved, That the Joint Committee desire that our Church, through its reorganized Board of Foreign Missions, shall be understood as ready to assume a portion of the existing Foreign Missionary work now conducted by the A. B. C. F. M., proportionate to the contemplated transfer of resources under the new ecclesiastical arrangement, the most careful regard being had to the interests and efficiency of the existing missions, and to the feelings of the missionaries.

"Resolved, That this Committee recommend to the General Assembly the passage of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Assembly hears with satisfaction, that there is a good prospect of the transfer of a certain portion of the Foreign Missions, now under the care of the A. B. C. F. M., to the Board of the General Assembly; and that, in view of the transitional and exceptional nature of the contemplated arrangements, the Assembly would leave a liberal discretionary power to the Board, and to the missionaries who are to be received, in reference to their policy and ecclesiastical relations."

With these views, the Committee adjourned, to meet at Boston, May 10th; and, arrangements having been made for a Conference with the Prudential Committee of the A. B. C. F. M., met at the Missionary House—Present, Ministers, J. F. Stearns and R. R. Booth, and Elder, R. S. Williams—and were cordially received by that body. The object of the interview was to explain the views of the Committee of the Assembly, ascertain those of the Prudential Committee, and, more especially, to secure the coöperation of the latter in determining and carrying into effect the changes that are desirable. After a full and free discussion of the points involved, in which the Assembly's Committee disclaimed all desire to interfere in the slightest degree with the judgment and preferences of the missionaries, or to pursue any claims on the part of those whom they represented, to the detriment of any of the missions, or the hindrance in any respect of the common cause, the Prudential Committee adopted, as the expression of their views and intentions, the following paper which is herewith submitted to the Assembly:

"At a meeting of the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, held at the Missionary House, Boston, May 17th, 1870, the action set forth in the following minute was duly taken, to wit:

"'The Prudential Committee have heard with pleasure the statements and suggestions of Dr. Stearns, Dr. Booth, and R. S. Williams, Esq., a Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, (N. S.), appointed at Pittsburgh, November 11th, 1869, to take into consideration its relations to the A. B. C. F. M., and "report to the next Assembly such measures as to them may seem proper and expedient for the adjustment of those relations to the new posture of affairs," and, in response thereto, they adopt the following resolutions:

1. "'Resolved, That the thankful acknowledgments of the A.B.C.F.M. are due to the Presbyterian churches for their cordial and unwavering coöperation during a long series of years, whereby our resources at home and our efforts abroad have been greatly enlarged.

2. "'Resolved, That while we are unable to anticipate, without regret, the withdrawal of friends who have been so steadfast and helpful, we sincerely rejoice in the conviction that, by reason thereof, the work which the American churches are doing in heathen lands is to receive at once a new impulse, and to yield in coming years a more abundant harvest.

3. "'Resolved, That the Prudential Committee gratefully recognize the generous confidence which these friends have reposed in them, as the Directors ad interim of the affairs of the Board, thereby enabling them to consider the questions which have come before them, irrespective of their denominational bearings, and simply as missionary problems.

4. "'Resolved, That we cheerfully concede the right of the missionaries to take a release from their connection with us, upon their personal application, and to seek a connection with the Presbyterian Board; not that the organization which we represent is unwilling or unable to support them in case they choose to remain with us, but in order to leave them uninfluenced in their choice; with the understanding that their privileges as ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ are to be fully recognized as heretofore.

5. "'Resolved, That we will cheerfully coöperate with the Committee of the General Assembly, in arranging for the withdrawal of such a proportion of the missionaries connected with us, as will satisfactorily represent the interest of that part of the Presbyterian Church which has hitherto acted with the A. B. C. F. M. in the prosecution of our common enterprise, so far as it can be done without injuring the work in any field, or interfering with the preferences of any of the missionaries.

6. "'Resolved, That, in case all the missionaries in any field shall come under the care of the Presbyterian Board, the Prudential Committee will convey thereto the property heretofore in the occupancy of such missionaries, and will discontinue their endeavors in such field.

7. "'Resolved, That, in case a part of the missionaries in any field shall wish to transfer their relations to the Presbyterian Board, without desiring a change of location, while a part shall wish to remain in their present relation and their present work, it will be the aim of the Prudential Committee to adjust the various questions which may arise, with sole reference to the highest interests of the missionary enterprise.

8. "'Resolved, That the Prudential Committee avail themselves of this occasion to say, that they have never recognized any distinctions among their brethren in the foreign service, but have felt for all the same affection, and have reposed in all the same confidence; and that they shall part from those who may desire a release with profound regret, and with earnest supplications that the blessing of Him, who is "Head over all things to the Church," may be vouchsafed to them more and more.

9. "'Resolved, That a copy of this minute be sent to all the missions of the A. B. C. F. M.'"

Thus far the Committee have had no correspondence with any of the missionaries on the foreign field, and are not able to state their views. Considerations of propriety and delicacy seemed to require, that no such correspondence should be instituted till the views of the Prudential Committee should have been ascertained; and this object, owing to unavoidable circumstances, could not be effected till near the time of the meeting of the General Assembly. They can easily suppose that obstacles may arise in this or that mission, which otherwise might be expected to become connected with the Assembly's Board, making the transfer difficult, if not for the present impracticable. Nor are they able to judge, until after a closer examination, what portions of the missionary field can, or ought, in all fairness and Christian prudence, to be so transferred. The contributions of that part of the Church, hitherto connected with the American Board, have been for the last ten years about one hundred thousand dollars per year, and the number of Presbyterian missionaries employed about fifty, besides missionary assistants. It can hardly be supposed, that all these missionary brethren and sisters, or this full proportion of the missions established, can be withdrawn consistently with the principles by which, as we are all agreed, this transaction should be governed. The work of the Board has been sustained in common, by the two sister denominations composing its membership. The funds of both have gone into the same treasury, and been expended on the same fields. The missionaries have been assigned to their respective places, with reference chiefly to their fitness for the work required, or the needs of the missions; and, while retaining each his own ecclesiastical relations and preferences, have labored side by side in loving brotherhood. The Presbyterian missionaries, being a minority of the whole force, will perhaps be found in the minority on most of the fields, and it may not be easy to separate them.

Still it is confidently believed, that, with such disposition, as we may expect to find on the part of our missionary brethren, to make any sacrifices consistent with higher claims, for the sake of completing and giving strength and efficiency for the work of Christ to our happy reunion, and especially with the coöperation cheerfully promised to the Committee of the Assembly by the Prudential Committee in their fifth resolution, such a proportion, as will on the whole "satisfactorily represent the interest of that part of the Presbyterian Church which has hitherto coöperated with the A. B. C. F. M. in the prosecution of the common enterprise," may be, with the concurrence of all parties, withdrawn and transferred. Indeed, we are assured, by some well entitled to express an opinion, that several of the missions, among which are one or two of the choicest and most valuable fields in the whole missionary domain, are already predisposed to the transfer, and may, with prudence and the manifestation of a liberal spirit on our part, be soon gathered under the new banner of the re-united Presbyterian Church.

It cannot be denied that, to most of us, who have so long been accustomed to identify almost the American Board with the cause of missions itself, with whom the very name of that Board has been a name of honor and household affection from our infancy, the sundering of the sacred tie will be a painful process. Indeed we cannot, while we live, cease to honor and love and pray for the prosperity of that good old mother of American missions among the unevangelized nations. But why should churches, or missionaries, or individual members, at a crisis like the present, hesitate to dissolve one sacred tie for the sake of perfecting another, to which the providence of God so manifestly and wonderfully points us?

With these views, the Committee would respectfully recommend to the Assembly, either to continue them in service, or appoint some other, as they may see fit, with instructions to pursue the negotiations already begun, and, with the concurrence of the Prudential Committee, make arrangements for the transfer to the Assembly's Board of Foreign Missions, now about to be constituted, such portions of the missions of the American Board as, on the principles which are herein expressed, may and ought to be so transferred.

In conclusion, they would beg leave simply to remind the Assembly, and through them the churches hitherto coöperating with the American Board, that the financial year, for which the Assembly of the New School at Pittsburgh, last November, made provision for the continuance of contributions to that Board, does not end till some time in the month of August next.

In respect to this Report, the Standing Committee of Foreign Missions recommended the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly has heard, with great satisfaction, the Report of the Committee of Conference with the Prudential Committee of the American Board, and approves of the transfer of a portion of the Missions now under the care of the Board to the Board of Foreign Missions.

Resolved, 2. That the Committee of Conference be continued, with instructions to pursue the negotiations already begun, and, with the assistance of the Prudential Committee of the A. B. C. F. M., to make arrangements for the transfer, to the Board of Foreign Missions, of such portions of the Missions of the A. B. C. F. M. as, on the principles expressed in this Report, can and ought to be transferred.

The resolutions were adopted.

Mr. A. H. Graves, of the Presbytery of Troy, appeared as a Commissioner, and was duly enrolled.

The following resolution was referred to the Boards of Foreign and Home Missions to report to the next Assembly:

Resolved, That the time has arrived, in the judgment of this Assembly, when the work of evangelizing the Chinese and the Jews in this country, and the aborigines of the land, should be transferred from the care of the Board of Foreign Missions to that of the Board of Home Missions.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Foreign Missions was taken from the docket, and considered until the time of adjournment.

An invitation to visit the Rooms of the Central Democratic Association of Pennsylvania was received, and accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 30th, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The unfinished business, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Foreign Missions, was resumed. The report, having been amended, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Joint Committee on Foreign Missions, appointed by the General Assemblies of 1869, entered upon their work with a deep sense of the importance and delicacy of the questions involved in the subject referred to them.

They, however, found their responsibility diminished, by the fact that another Committee had been appointed by the General Assembly heretofore coöperating with the A. B. C. F. M., to hold all necessary consultation with that Board.

The General Assembly has already learned, from the Report of the Committee, that there is substantial agreement, among all parties concerned, in the principles which should govern the readjustment of our relations, and of the agencies by means of which we are hereafter to labor in the work of Foreign Missions.

It is on all hands clearly seen and thankfully felt, that the withdrawment of a part of our Church from the connection heretofore enjoyed with the A. B. C. F. M. does not arise from any dissatisfaction with that Board; and is neither an unfraternal rupture, nor an ungenerous abandonment; but is a simple readjustment of forces, still to operate in harmony, in order that they may operate more efficiently. Those of our congregations and ministers, whose relations will be changed in this respect, make no ordinary sacrifice in consenting even to this formal separation from the Board with which they have always coöperated; whose instructive publications they have diligently read; to whose treasury they have committed their contributions; to whose care they have intrusted their consecrated sons and daughters; and whose exceeding prosperity has been the fulfilment of their most fervent prayers. They can never cease to pray for its continued prosperity.

It will surely afford no small mitigation of the pain occasioned by this change of relations, to find that it is not to be altogether a separation from the missions and missionaries to whom they are attached. The same Divine Providence which orders it, as clearly calls a portion of their missionary brethren and sisters to accompany them in it; and all concerned recognize the propriety of such arrangements as will facilitate and secure this.

The tender and grateful attachment of these missionaries to the Board, which has heretofore sustained them, is the best human tribute to that Board; and it demands of us the most considerate care to provide for the continuance of their missionary work, in a manner satisfactory to themselves. Especially is it to be kept in mind, that these brethren and sisters are, first of all, missionaries of Christ; that their relations to Him are personal and direct; and that, unquestionably, the liberty and responsibility are their own, of deciding in what relations to Boards and Churches they will spend their consecrated lives.

Equally free and responsible directly to Christ are all Christian people, in deciding through what agencies they will do their share of his work of missions.

Your Committee are joyfully and thankfully confident, that all those brethren and sisters, whom this happy and glorious Re-union of our Church calls to this change of Foreign Missionary agencies, will speedily find that our own Church's Board is not less approved and blessed of God, and not less worthy of their own deep love and trust, than the A. B. C. F. M.; while its more perfect adaptation, to our Church's valued polity and providential position, gives promise of greatly increased interest and efficiency in our Foreign Missionary work.

The Joint Committee are happy to concur with their brethren of the Committee of Conference, and with the Prudential Committee of the A. B. C. F. M., in the views expressed in the other Committee's Report. Will not this Assembly, and the American Board, and all Christian people, unite in thanksgiving to God, for the favoring providence and the gracious influences, whereby he has enabled us all to see, eye to eye, in our apprehension of the principles by which we should be guided in this new adjustment of our evangelistic forces? Is it not a happy omen for that grand movement to which the providence and Spirit of God are now summoning his whole Church, in all her national and denominational divisions; for which he is so happily combining and harmonizing them; and for which his hand and his counsel, in all previous history, have made so marvellous, and now so manifest a preparation?

In our deliberation on the practical questions involved in the reconstruction of the Board of Foreign Missions, we are happy to report that we found ourselves entirely unanimous. The members of the Committee, representing that portion of the Church heretofore coöperating with the A. B. C. F. M., desire no changes in the Constitution of the Board, except such as the other members of the Committee believe to be commended by the experience of the Board itself, and approved by the majority of its patrons.

The Committee believe, that all the change which is needed will be effected by the adoption of the following minute:

The Board of Foreign Missions shall hereafter consist of fifteen members, besides the Corresponding Secretaries and the Treasurer, who shall be members ex officio.

The term of service of the present members of the Board, the Executive Committee, and the Permanent Committee, shall end with the first meeting of the Executive Committee after the dissolution of the General Assembly, when a new Board shall be constituted.

This Assembly will select fifteen members of the Board, in three classes of five each. The first shall serve three years; the second class, two years; and the third class, one year.

Each subsequent General Assembly shall elect five members of the Board, to hold office for three years; and shall fill any vacancies in either of the other classes for the unexpired term of service.

Any five members of the Board shall form a quorum.

One of the ex-officio members, to be designated by the Board, shall be entitled to a seat in the General Assembly, as a Corresponding Member, on all subjects relating to Foreign Missions.

Besides the duties already committed to their charge, the Board shall perform the duties heretofore assigned to the Executive Committee of the Board, and to the Permanent Committee on Foreign Missions, in so far as these have not been superseded or modified by this minute.

The Committee further recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz.:

Resolved, That the Assembly hears, with satisfaction, that there is a good prospect of the transfer of a certain portion of the Foreign Missions, now under the care of the A. B. C. F. M., to the Board of the General Assembly; and that, in view of the transitional and exceptional nature of the contemplated arrangement, the Assembly would leave liberal discretionary power to the Board, and to the missionaries who are to be received, in respect to their policy and ecclesiastical relations.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented their Report, which, having been read and considered, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions beg leave to present the following Report and Resolutions:

The Board of Domestic Missions belonging to the late O. S. Assembly, and the Committee of Home Missions, the organ of the late N. S. Assembly, have each presented their Report for our inspection.

Your Committee have examined both Reports with deep interest, and have been much gratified with this review of the progress of the work during the past year, and with the prospect of increased usefulness which opens before us in the future.

The results of the past year are as follows: The Board of Domestic Missions has been able to maintain in the field 613 missionaries, through whose labors 705 churches and missionary stations have been supplied, 62 new churches have been organized, 3107 members have been received upon profession of their faith, 2229 on certificate, and 510 Sabbath-schools have been sustained.

To support this work, the available resources of the Board (including the current receipts and the balance on hand at the close of the last year) amount to $188,444.47. Subtracting from this sum $123,406.88, (the amount of payments for the support of the work,) we have left in the Treasury a credit balance of $65,037.59.

In explanation of this large balance, it is stated in the Report that the receipts of the churches during the summer months are small, and that it is necessary to accumulate a good working balance to secure the prompt payment of the missionaries, and to prevent the necessity of paying interest on borrowed money for several months of the year.

This explanation is in a measure satisfactory; yet, as the balance seems unnecessarily large, and as it has accumulated two years in succession, the Committee are constrained to say that, in their judgment, it is not expedient for any of our Boards to close the year with a large balance in hand; and would recommend that, in view of the importance of liberality to the missionaries, the appropriation be so regulated as not to reserve in the Treasury more funds than are absolutely necessary to meet the current demands of those months in which the income of the Board is small.

The Report of the Committee on Home Missions also gives evidence of vigorous and successful work.

The receipts of the Treasury, adding a small balance in hand at the close of the last year, amount to $185,617.72. The year closes with a credit balance of $9194.19.

Combining these statistics, and assuming the figures of the present year as the data from which to calculate our future progress, we have reason to anticipate, from the union of these two Boards, the largest and most satisfactory results.

With an available income of upward of $300,000, with more than 1100 missionaries already in the field, and with the new spirit of zeal and liberality enkindled in the churches by the union, we may reasonably expect a rapid enlargement of the work in all the Presbyteries, and a gratifying extension of our Cause in the great field opening on the Western frontier.

Your Committee are pleased to find, that the Committee of Home Missions have been employing Theological Students during their summer vacations in carrying forward the work in waste places—a policy which was recommended by the last General Assembly to the Board of Domestic Missions.

We have also read with pleasure the policy of the Committee of Home Missions, in reference to the liberal sustentation of the missionaries.

The following extract from the Report we strongly commend, as expressive of the future policy of the Board:

"There was an obvious propriety that we should insure those whom we sent into the field against suffering. We first guaranteed them $600 and their necessary traveling expenses; and, as prices advanced, we were compelled to advance the rate per annum $200 more. We found in the field at first many who, for want of adequate support, could not give themselves wholly to their ministry. Some were teachers, many were farmers, and, in consequence, many of them were non-resident stated supplies. We have believed it a better policy and the only true economy to pay the laborer more, so that we could command his entire services."

In view of these facts and statements, we recommend to the Assembly the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we approve the work of both Boards during the past year; that we commend the efficiency and competency of their management, and direct that both Reports be published as usual, and circulated among the churches.

Resolved, 2. That, to encourage young men to enlist in the work of Home Missions, and to promote the efficiency of those already in the field, the Board be directed to pursue such a policy to the missionaries as will secure to them a competent support, and free them from worldly cares and avocations.

Resolved, 3. That the attention of the Board be directed to the vast field opening along our Western frontier, and especially to the new towns and cities springing up as if by magic along the line of the railroads of the West, in the mining regions, and in that large region where our churches have been weakened by the unhappy divisions of the past few years; and that we recommend that every proper effort be made to occupy these points of influence as speedily as possible.

Resolved, 4. That the appointment of District Missionaries shall be on the nomination, or with the approval of the Synods, in the bounds of which they are to labor.

Resolved, 5. That, while the happy consummation of the union gives increased strength in the prosecution of this great work, at the same time it furnishes new motives and encouragements to go forward with increasing zeal, and with a brighter hope of being able to occupy every point of influence in this vast country in the name of the Master.

Resolved, 6. That, in view of the fact, that an astonishingly large number of churches are still delinquent in their contributions to this Cause, the Presbyteries be enjoined, at each spring meeting, to make diligent inquiry into the causes of this delinquency, and to use every effort to stimulate the churches to a larger measure of liberality; and that the Synods be directed to inquire whether the Presbyteries have performed this duty.

The following resolution was referred to the Special Committee on a Sustentation Fund:

Resolved, That the Board of Home Missions be instructed to ascertain what are the stipends of the ministers of the Presbyterian Church, and lay the results before the next General Assembly; and that the Board be farther instructed to offer suggestions to the same Assembly as to the best means of raising the smaller stipends.

An invitation for an excursion to Atlantic City was received with thanks; but, owing to the state of business, the Assembly decided that they could not act upon it at present.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 31st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the opening hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported Overtures from

The Synod of Wisconsin, and from Joseph M. Wilson, on Manses; which were referred to the Committee on Church Erection.

Also, an Overture from the Rev. T. Edwards, D.D., on the Consolidation of the Boards of the Assembly; which was referred to a Special Committee.

Also, Overtures from the Presbytery of Neosho, on a College at Oswego, Ks., and from the Presbytery of Kansas, on a University at Highland, Ks.; which were referred to the Committee on Education.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Santa Fé, on the reception of John Annin, without a constitutional quorum; recommending that it be sanctioned, by reason of the singularity of the case; and the recommendation was adopted.

Also, an Overture from the Presbytery of Hudson, on the Statistical Columns in the Minutes of the General Assembly; which was referred to a Special Committee.

The Committee on the Perils which beset the System of Popular Education presented their report, which, having been read and considered, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, appointed to consider the Perils which beset the System of Popular Education in this Country, and to prepare a minute expressive of the sentiment of the General Assembly on this momentous question, beg leave to report:

The Public School in the United States is a most precious heir-loom of American liberty. Planted in the early colonial days, it has grown and expanded into one of the most beneficent and fruitful institutions of the country. Its history is interwoven with that of the nation. No other agency, if we except the Church of God, has had so large a share in laying the foundations of popular intelligence, virtue, and freedom in the United States. In hardly any other institution is the characteristic American idea so happily and fully realized. It cannot be endangered, therefore, without peril to the vital interests of American society.

In this view, the recent assaults upon it are fitted to arrest the attention of every Christian patriot and philanthropist. These assaults resemble skirmishes, which precede and are intended to draw on a great battle. But the motives and ultimate aim of those who have made them are very different; they have joined hands merely to gain a temporary advantage. One party hold, that the public school should be purged of every vestige of religion; that, inasmuch as all the people are taxed for its support, there should be recognized in it no form of Christian instruction or influence, to which any of the tax-payers profess conscientious objections. This is the position maintained by the advocates of a total divorce of popular education from the Christian life and morals of the nation. The other party regard such a theory of popular education as false and unchristian; they hold, that there should be careful instruction in religious truth and duty under the direction of the Church; and, inasmuch as this is not possible in the common school, they advocate for themselves the sectarian school, and demand their share of the public-school fund, to enable them to sustain it.

The importance of the question thus raised cannot be easily overestimated. The question of popular education, indeed, both at home and abroad, is one of the great problems of the age. Its decision among ourselves involves consequences of vast moment to the American people. Shall the old system be revolutionized, and every form of Christian instruction or influence in the public school prohibited? Or shall the institution itself be given up, and sectarian schools take its place?

We should regard the successful attempt to expel all religious instruction and influence from our public schools as an evil of the first magnitude. Nor do we see how, according to the principles upon which it is advocated, this can be done without inflicting a deadly wound upon the intellectual and moral life of the nation. It is contended that the rights of the individual conscience, as also the just limits of political power under our constitution of government, are violated by the existing system. But scarcely more, we reply, than they are violated by the very genius and organization of American society; no more than they are violated by all public acknowledgment of God and his providential government, by oaths of office, by the recognition of the Lord's day, by chaplaincies in the army and navy, or by laws against polygamy, blasphemy, perjury, and other forms of open immorality and crime; no more, in a word, than they are violated by the fundamental ideas and order of our Christian civilization. We look upon the State as an ordinance of God, and not a mere creature of the popular will; and, under its high responsibility to the Supreme Ruler of the world, we hold it to be both its right and bounden duty to educate its children in those elementary principles of knowledge and virtue, which are essential to its own security and well-being. The union of Church and State is indeed against our American theory and constitutions of government; but the most intimate union of the State with the saving and conservative forces of Christianity is one of the oldest customs of the country, and has always ranked as a vital article of our political faith. What impressive illustrations of this occur along the whole line of our history, and especially during our late national struggle! We cannot, therefore, help regarding the notion of an absolute secularization of the public school, so that no Christian element shall remain in it, as un-American, wrong, and impracticable. We do not see how it can be done, without a complete revision of the literature and very dictionary of the language; without reducing the education of the future citizens of the Republic to the most meagre and pitiable skeleton of knowledge; without training up the children of the people in ignorance of some of the most interesting and glorious incidents and characters of their own history. Nor do we see how it can be done without, sooner or later, stamping downright atheism, not only upon the public school, but upon every other institution of the State, and upon the whole action of Government itself. The American people we cannot doubt, are utterly opposed to so baleful a dogma. It is contrary to their history, to their practice from the beginning, and to their deepest convictions.

But while they can never consent, as we believe, to expel all recognition of God and his truth from the public school, neither can they consent, on the other hand, to let a portion of the public schools pass under the control of any particular denomination, and thus become the instruments of sectarian instruction and influence. It is a matter of the utmost importance that the children of the people should be educated together, under the same roof, in the same atmosphere of American thought and feeling, and in those common elements of knowledge, virtue, fraternal sympathy, humanity, and patriotism, which go to form a good and loyal citizen of our great Republic.

We sincerely trust, therefore, that our Roman Catholic fellow-citizens, who agree with us on the importance of the moral and religious element in popular education, will continue to coöperate with us in sustaining our American Common School system, and in infusing into it as far as possible those universal and benign principles—such as—love to God, and love to our neighbor—which lie at the foundation of human duty, and are essential to the right training of the youthful mind. On this patriotic and catholic platform we should hope, that a very large majority of those even, who dissent entirely from our theological views, and belong indeed to no branch of the Christian Church, would be willing to stand with us. We cannot think that there are many of our countrymen, who would seriously object to having their children trained up in the public school, under the influence of these ancestral and truly democratic principles. The number of such in the past has been exceedingly small, and we cherish the confident hope that it will be so in the future. We believe that the roots of our humane and Christian nationality lie deep in the heart of the American people.

In accordance with the foregoing views, your Committee submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly regard the Free Public School as an essential part of our Republican system; as conducive in the highest degree to the moral unity, common spirit, and kindly sympathies of American citizenship; and as closely connected with all the best interests of Christian society in the United States.

Resolved, 2. That, in the judgment of the General Assembly, the divorce of popular education from all religious elements, while involving a radical departure from the spirit and principles in which our public school had its origin, would be eminently unwise, unjust, and a moral calamity to the nation.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly are also entirely opposed to the appropriation of any portion of the public-school funds for the support of sectarian institutions; and would regard the establishment of such a policy as fraught with the greatest mischief, not only to the cause of popular education, but hardly less to the interests of American freedom, unity, and progress.

Resolved, 4. That, whereas the Bible is not only the Magna Charta of the spiritual rights and liberties of mankind, but is also preëminently our National Book, the best model of our mother tongue, and the fountain of our highest thought and of our ruling ideas, both in private and public life, the General Assembly would regard its expulsion from the schools of the people as a deplorable and suicidal act; nor can they perceive that any real advantage could thereby be gained to the cause of popular education.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly, conscious of being actuated in this matter by no other motive than the greatest good of the whole country, hereby profess their readiness to coöperate with all Christian people, of whatever name, and with all good citizens, in so modifying and perfecting our noble public-school system, as to obviate, as far as practicable, the conscientious scruples and difficulties of any of its friends, and thus to render it a fountain of still greater light and benediction to us and our children after us to the latest generation.

The Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Presbyterian Church in the kingdom of Bohemia, presented a report, recommending the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we cordially reciprocate the expressions of Christian sympathy in the letter received from the Protestant Church in Bohemia, and that the Committee on Correspondence are hereby instructed to nominate a Deputation, to carry to that ancient Church our fraternal greetings, with the assurance that we rejoice in their record of fidelity to Christ; that we will remember them, as we would be remembered by them, in daily supplications at the throne of grace; and that, through our Home Missionaries, we will endeavor to keep faithful watch over their scattered colonists in our Western States.

Resolved, That a generous hearing is due to the pressing needs of these Christian brethren, in a land recently laid waste by the battles of Königgratz and Sadowa, in a land where Huss and many martyrs gave up life that they might win a crown of rejoicing; and that we earnestly commend their appeal for aid, to the churches represented in this General Assembly, to the end that the Protestant Church in Bohemia may be encouraged to stand fast as a rampart for the truth against Romanism, and for the defence of the faith once delivered to the saints.

Also, the following fraternal letter:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to the Bohemian Church of the Helvetic Confession, greeting:

It fills our hearts with Christian gladness to receive your fraternal salutations, and to know that, after centuries of persecution and oppression, you have at last gained freedom to worship God according to the dictates of conscience, and to enter into correspondence and fellowship with evangelical bodies in other lands. The coming of the Rev. Hermann Von Tardy and the Rev. Ludwig B. Caspar, as a Deputation from your ancient Church one year ago, was welcomed by us as the beginning of a permanent union that promised, with God's blessing, to be fruitful in good to our souls, and in giving comfort and strength to the waste places of Zion.

In response to your request and our hearts' desire, we have voted to send a Deputation from our General Assembly to visit you in your homes, your Sunday-schools, your churches, and your ecclesiastical councils, with the hope that our bond of union may be strengthened, and that we may help one another in fighting the good fight of faith.

We assure you, that we shall count it a privilege to see to it that your appeal for aid is presented to our congregations.

We deeply share in your solicitude for the spiritual welfare of Protestant immigrants, who are scattered throughout our Western States, and are surrounded with peril to their souls. Through our Sunday-schools, Home Missions, and other agencies at the West, we pledge ourselves to do all that we can for these children of the covenant.

Finally, brethren, we ask you to unite with us in praying that, through infinite riches of grace in our common Master, we may be permitted to meet on high in the General Assembly and Church of the first-born which are written in Heaven.

The report was adopted.

It was resolved to occupy but half an hour each morning in devotional exercises hereafter.

The Committee on Mileage presented a report, in part, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage report, that they have received, on account of the Commissioners' Fund of the late O. S. Church, $1134.63, including a balance of $245.28 from last year, and also including the sum of $318 contributed by a few Eastern Presbyteries, who make no claim for mileage. But, inasmuch as a distribution of this whole amount as mileage, will pay to some Presbyteries a less sum than that of their own contributions, and to others a mere pittance in excess; and, inasmuch as there are Presbyteries who can ill afford to pay their own expenses, and much less to bear a part of the expenses of others, your Committee would submit the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on Mileage be and are hereby instructed to repay to the following Presbyteries, viz., Atlantic, Benicia, California, Chippewa, Colorado, Frankville, Milwaukee, Southern Minnesota, Stockton, St. Paul, Upper Missouri, and Winnebago, the amounts paid by them respectively to the Commissioners' Fund, and to distribute the balance of such fund, to these and such other Presbyteries as may be entitled to mileage, under the former rules of the O. S. Assembly.

The Report of a Committee, appointed by the Directors of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, to examine and propose certain alterations in the plan of the Seminary, was presented, and referred to the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A Committee, consisting of Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., Rev. V. D. Reed, D.D., Hon. William Strong, and Messrs. H. N. McAlister and George Junkin, were appointed to consider and report what changes, if any, are necessary to be made in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in order that there may be an equitable distribution of said

Trustees, in accordance with the present state of the Re-united Church, and to report to this Assembly.

The unfinished business was resumed, viz., the report of the Joint Committee on Home Missions; which, after protracted discussion, was adopted as follows:

The Joint Committee, appointed by the two Assemblies of 1869 to arrange for the consolidation of the "Board of Domestic Missions" and "The Committee of Home Missions," would respectfully report that, in full attendance, they have given the subject with which they were charged their most careful deliberation.

Some things pertaining to the proposed new organization were very readily adjusted, as appears in the following recommendations, adopted with entire unanimity, viz.:

1. The name to be "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

2. That this Board consist of fifteen members, five constituting a quorum.

3. That the Board be authorized to appoint one Secretary, with so much assistance as the Board may deem necessary.

After proceeding so far, your Committee were advised by eminent legal counsel that, inasmuch as the Board and Committee now existing hold their respective charters from different States, legislative action in the States of Pennsylvania and New-York would be necessary, before the contemplated consolidation could be effected, so that the property now held by the one could legally and safely be transferred to the other. As instructed by counsel, your Committee cannot see any mode in which this General Assembly itself, without further legislation, can create such a consolidated Board, or will be competent in law to execute the trusts, imposed on the existing corporate bodies in wills or other writings heretofore executed.

As necessary steps to the obtaining of such necessary legislation as is suited to the case, your Committee report the following recommendations, to wit:

1. That this Assembly should designate the locality in which the chief operations of the new Board shall be carried on, and in which the principal office for that purpose shall be located.

2. That a Committee be appointed by this Assembly, whose duty it shall be to endeavor to procure all the legislation required by the exigencies of the case, and direct the transfer of property now held by the two bodies above described, on receiving the opinion of competent counsel that the authority of the new body is perfect.

3. Meantime, till such a result has been reached, that both of the existing organizations should be kept up in the form required by their respective charters.

Though they were not formally enjoined to consider that subject, yet your Committee cannot close their Report as to their items of business, without expressing the conviction, as the result of their recent conferences, that the work of Home Missions must assume, in the judgment of the entire Church, new proportions and importance.

Never, since the heavens and earth were made, were such imperial opportunities presented for rapid and successful evangelism. Over a large portion of our territory society is in a formative state. We are summoned not so much to eradicate antiquated systems of falsehood and superstition, as to preoccupy vacant ground waiting for the institution of pure, simple, Protestant Christianity. Our wisdom is prompt action, before the solution crystallizes into permanent forms.

All jealousies and rivalries between separate branches brought to an end, but one question remains—In what manner can this Re-united Church most wisely and successfully conduct its great work, in the name of patriotism and religion, of giving the Gospel, with its ministry and houses of worship, to the heterogeneous population of this vast continent?

The following places were then named for the Location of the Board of Home Missions, viz., Philadelphia and New-York; whereupon the roll was called, and NEW-YORK was chosen, by a vote of 306 for New-York, and 153 for Philadelphia.

It was resolved to appoint a Committee of ten to secure the necessary legislation, one minister and four legal gentlemen from each of the States of New-York and Pennsylvania, as follows: Rev. Henry Darling, D.D., Hon. W. F. Allen, Hon. I. S. Spencer, Hon. T. W. Dwight, and Platt Potter, Esq., of the State of New-York; and Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D.D., Hon. J. Scott, Hon. Joseph Allison, P. F. Smith, Esq., and W. J. McElroy, Esq., of the State of Pennsylvania.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was recommitted, in order to the nomination of members of the Board.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 31st, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.
The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, it was Resolved, That the report of the Directors of the North-western Theological Seminary at Chicago be referred to a special Committee, consisting of Rev. V. D. Reed, D.D., Rev. W. E. McLaren, Rev. D. A. Cunningham, Rev. J. A. I. Lowes, and Messrs. D. S. Courtenay, G. R. Fox, and J. W. Hollenback, being members of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries representing the late Old School.

On the recommendation of the Committee on Church Erection, Mr. Joseph M. Wilson, Hon. John Scott, Mr. Peter Carter, Hon. Robert McKnight, and Mr. William G. Holmes, were appointed a Committee to collect information from all the churches under the care of this General Assembly concerning what they have done, or are now doing, in the matter of manses for their ministers; said information, so gathered, to be arranged, and classified, and reported to the next General Assembly. And it was

Resolved, That the churches be instructed to reply with due diligence to the communications of the Committee on Manses, and thereby aid in carrying out the behests of the Assembly.

The order of the day, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee on the Finances of the Church, was taken from the docket.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 1st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the first half-hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Rev. A. Gosman, D.D., the Delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, presented his report, which was accepted and put on file.

The Stated Clerk reported a communication from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South, which was read, and is as follows:

"LOUISVILLE, KY., May 28, 1870.

Rev. E. F. Hatfield, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

DEAR BROTHER: The "General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States," in session at Louisville, has directed me to forward to you the following official document. It is a true extract from the Minutes of Friday, May the 27th:

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence, to whom was referred the Overture for Re-union from the Old School General Assembly, North, of 1869, at its sessions in the city of New-York; and also the proposition from the United Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church, now sitting in Philadelphia, conveyed to us by a special Delegation, respectfully report —

That the former of these documents is virtually superseded by the latter; because the body, by whom it was adopted, has since been merged into the United Assembly, from which emanates a new and fresh proposal reflecting the views of the larger constituency. To this proposition, then, "that a Committee of five ministers and four elders be appointed by this Assembly to confer with a similar Committee of their Assembly in regard to the amicable settlement of all existing difficulties and the opening of a friendly correspondence between the Northern and Southern Presbyterian Churches"—your Committee recommend the following answer to be returned:

Whatever obstructions may exist, in the way of cordial intercourse between the two bodies above named, are entirely of a public nature, and involve grave and fundamental principles. The Southern Presbyterian Church can confidently appeal to all the acts and declarations of all their Assemblies, that no attitude of aggression or hostility has been, or is now, assumed by it toward the Northern Church. And this General Assembly distinctly avows, (as it has always believed and declared,) that no grievances experienced by us, however real, would justify us in acts of aggression or a spirit of malice or retaliation against any branch of Christ's visible kingdom. We are prepared, therefore, in advance of all discussion, to exercise toward the General Assembly, North, and the churches represented therein, such amity as fidelity to our principles could under any possible circumstances permit. Under this view, the appointment of a Committee of Conference might seem wholly unnecessary; but, in order to exhibit before the Christian world the spirit of conciliation and kindness to the last degree, this Assembly agrees to appoint a Committee of Conference, to meet a similar Committee already appointed by the Northern Assembly, with instructions to the same, that the difficulties which lie in the way of cordial correspondence between the two bodies must be distinctly met and removed, and which may be comprehensively stated in the following particulars :

1. Both the wings of the now United Assembly, during their separate existence before the fusion, did fatally complicate themselves with the State, in political utterances deliberately uttered year after year ; and which, in our judgment, were a sad betrayal of the cause and kingdom of our common Lord and Head. We believe it to be solely incumbent upon the Northern Presbyterian Church, not with reference to us, but before the Christian world, and before our Divine Master and King, to purge itself of this error, and, by public proclamation of the truth, to place the crown once more upon the head of Jesus Christ as the alone King of Zion. In default of which, the Southern Presbyterian Church, which has already suffered much in maintaining the independence and spirituality of the Redeemer's kingdom upon earth, feels constrained to bear public testimony against this defection of our late associates from the truth. Nor can we, by official correspondence even, consent to blunt the edge of this our testimony, concerning the very nature and mission of the Church as a purely spiritual body among men.

2. The union now consummated between the Old and New School Assemblies, North, was accomplished by methods which, in our judgment, involve a total surrender of all the great testimonies of the Church for the fundamental doctrines of grace, at a time when the victory of truth over error hung long in the balance. The United Assembly stands of necessity upon an allowed latitude of interpretation of the standards, and must come at length to embrace nearly all shades of doctrinal belief. Of those falling testimonies we are the sole surviving heirs, which we must lift from the dust, and bear to the generations after us. It would be a serious compromise of this sacred trust, to enter into public and official fellowship with those repudiating these testimonies ; and to do this expressly upon the ground, as stated in the preamble to the overture before us, " that the terms of reunion between the two branches of the Presbyterian Church at the North, now happily consummated, present an auspicious opportunity for the adjustment of such relations." To found a correspondence professedly upon this idea, would be to indorse that which we thoroughly disapprove.

3. Some of the members of our own body were, but a short time since, violently and unconstitutionally expelled from the communion of one branch of the now United Northern Assembly, under ecclesiastical charges which, if true, render them utterly infamous before the Church and the world. It is to the last degree unsatisfactory, to construe this offensive legislation obsolete, by the mere fusion of that body with another, or through the operation of a faint declaration which was not intended, originally, to cover this case. This is no mere " rule " or " precedent," but a solemn sentence of outlawry against what is now an important and constituent part of our own body. Every principle of honor and of good faith compels us to say, that an unequivocal repudiation of that interpretation of the law, under which these men were condemned, must be a condition precedent to any official correspondence on our part.

4. It is well known that similar injurious accusations were preferred against the whole Southern Presbyterian Church, with which the ear of the whole world has been filled. Extending, as these charges do, to heresy and blasphemy, they cannot be quietly ignored by an indirection of any sort. If true, we are not worthy of the "confidence, respect, Christian honor and love," which are tendered to us in this overture; if untrue, Christian manliness and truth require them to be openly and squarely withdrawn. So long as they remain upon record, they are an impassable barrier to official intercourse.

Yours fraternally,
JOSEPH R. WILSON,
S. C. of G. A. of P. C. in U. S.

Whereupon the following Response, reported by the Committee on Correspondence with the Church, South, was adopted:

Whereas, This General Assembly, at an early period of its sessions, declared its desire to establish cordial fraternal relations with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, commonly known as the Southern Assembly, on the basis of Christian honor, confidence, and love; and, with a view to the attainment of this end, appointed a Committee of five ministers and four elders, to confer with a similar Committee, if it should be appointed by the Assembly then in session at Louisville, Ky., "in regard to the amicable settlement of all existing difficulties, and the opening of a friendly correspondence between the Northern and Southern Churches;" and, for the furtherance of the objects contemplated in the appointment of said Committee, and with a view to remove the obstacles which might prevent the acceptance of our proposals by our Southern brethren, reaffirmed the Concurrent Declaration of the two Assemblies which met in New-York last year, to the effect that "no rule or precedent which does not stand approved by both the bodies shall be of any authority in the re-united body, except so far as such rule or precedent may affect the rights of property founded thereon;" and, as a further pledge of our sincerity in this movement, sent a copy of our resolutions, together with our Christian salutations, to the Assembly at Louisville, by the hands of Delegates chosen for that purpose:

And whereas, The Southern Assembly, while receiving our Delegates with marked courtesy, and formally complying with our proposition for the appointment of a Committee of Conference, has nevertheless accompanied that appointment with declarations and conditions which we cannot consistently accept, because they involve a virtual prejudgment of the very difficulties concerning which we invited the conference: Therefore,

Resolved, That the further consideration of the subject be postponed, and the Committee be discharged. At the same time, we cannot forbear to express our profound regret, that a measure designed and, as we believe, eminently fitted, to promote the establishment of peace and the advancement of our Redeemer's kingdom in every part of our country, has apparently failed to accomplish its object. We earnestly hope, that the negotiations thus suspended may soon be resumed under happier auspices; and hereby declare our readiness to renew our proposals for a friendly correspondence, whenever our Southern brethren shall signify their readiness to accept it in the form and spirit in which it has been offered.

The following resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the Delegation to Louisville, for their prompt, diligent, and faithful performance of the arduous and responsible duty intrusted to them; and it is ordered, that their necessary expenses be paid from the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly. Also, that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to Theodore Cuyler, Esq., and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for the facilities of travel afforded to the Delegates.

The Special Committee on Mileage presented a report, which was adopted, as follows:

The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii., Section 3, that, "in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full Delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent."

The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found, by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

It is, therefore, recommended,

1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of Communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches, as they deem best.

3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly,—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

4. That, as early as the fifth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.

5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them, pro rata, if approved, as far as the funds will permit.

6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country.

It was Resolved, That five thousand copies of the Minutes of this Assembly, with the usual Appendix, be published under the direction of the Stated Clerk, at the price of one dollar per copy, including postage; and that the minutes be distributed ordinarily by mail.

It was also Resolved, That the Board of Foreign Missions be instructed to inquire as to the wisdom and practicability of devising some plan, by which this great interest, as conducted by this Assembly, may be brought into closer contact with the people in every portion of the Church, than can be secured by the appointment of a mere local Committee; by the appointment of a larger Committee, to whom these interests shall be intrusted, and who shall report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries presented a report, which was adopted, as follows:

The number of Theological Seminaries connected with the General Assembly, directly or indirectly, is seven.

These were founded after different methods, and at different epochs, thus representing more or less important changes of sentiments and events in the history of the Church and the country.

The Seminary at Princeton was founded by the General Assembly itself in the year 1812. Coming into existence in the early part of this century, immediately after the organization of the American Board of Foreign Missions and the Seminary at Andover, when there was a very general unity and coöperation of good men throughout the land, it must be regarded and honored as the first of those great movements in the Presbyterian Church which looked to the spreading of the kingdom of Christ at home and abroad.

The Seminary at Auburn was founded in the year 1819, for the purpose of training up a ministry in what was then known as "the Western country."

The Seminary at Allegheny was established in 1825; and Lane Seminary, at Cincinnati, in 1829.

These three Seminaries are associated with two things. 1. The beginning of that tide of emigration from the East to the West which has been rolling and surging onward ever since; and 2. That spirit of active evangelism which most happily was simultaneous with westward emigration, a new power and life of religion distinguishing that memorable period.

Union Theological Seminary, in New-York, was founded in the year 1836, one year preceding the disruption of the Church. Coming into existence at that extraordinary time, the design of its Founders, who were then largely members of churches known after the division as Old School, was, in their own language, "to provide a Seminary which might commend itself to all men of moderate views and feelings desiring to live free from party strife, and to stand aloof from all extremes of doctrine and of practice."

The Seminary at Danville, Ky., was founded in the year 1853; and that now at Chicago, Ill., was established in that city in the year 1859, by removal from New-Albany,—dates sufficiently distinct to represent advanced stages in those conflicts of opinion which subsequently convulsed the country and the Church, and which have not as yet entirely passed away.

The Seminaries now enumerated were founded, not only at different times, but after different methods. Those at Princeton, Allegheny, Danville, and Chicago were established by the General Assembly, and are under its direct supervision and control.

The Seminary at Auburn is controlled by a Board of Commissioners, elected by certain Presbyteries in Central and Western New-York, and a Board of Trustees elected by the Commissioners. Its Faculty, appointed by the Commissioners, report to the General Assembly.

Lane Seminary, at Cincinnati, and Union Seminary, at New-York, were founded by individuals, members of the Presbyterian Church, and by their charters, most cautiously prepared, are made Presbyterian Institutions, recognizing our standards of doctrine and polity, though not under any ecclesiastical control.

The administration of these Seminaries is after different methods, though in some cases the difference is more in name and form, than in essential fact.

Princeton Seminary is administered by two Boards, known as the Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees. The former are elected by the General Assembly in annual classes. The latter, having control of the property, is a close corporation, filling its own vacancies. In like manner, the Seminaries at Allegheny, Danville, and Chicago have each two administrative Boards, a Board of Directors and a Board of Trustees.

Lane and Union Seminaries have each but one Board—a Board of Trustees at Lane, a Board of Directors at Union,—by which the property is held, and the general control of the Seminary is administered; certainly a simpler method, by which all differences of opinion are avoided, such as have arisen and are likely to arise in other Seminaries between two separate Boards, one of Trust and the other of Direction.

That the relations of these several Theological Seminaries, differing in origin and administration, to the re-united Church should be regarded as a matter of no little delicacy and difficulty was inevitable. On the one hand, it is obvious that a matter so important as the education of its ministry should in some way be under the supervision and control of the Church, so as to secure the entire and cordial confidence of the Church. On the other hand, there is a liberty and flexibility in the matter which must be respected and allowed. If individuals or associations are disposed to found and endow Seminaries of their own, there is no power in the Presbyterian Church to forbid it.

The difficult task of undertaking to reconcile these ideas and principles received the early and careful attention of the Joint Committee on Re-union, as appears from one of the Concurrent Declarations adopted by both Assemblies, providing for the transfer of those Seminaries now under the control of the Assembly to the care and control of one or more adjacent Synods, if they should so elect. The object was to allay the apprehensions of any who might imagine, that the sudden accession and intermingling of great numbers might overbear those who had hitherto administered those Seminaries which had been under the control of one Branch of the Church. It was intended as a measure for the maintenance of confidence and harmony, and not as indicating the best method for all future time.

As to any project, by which the entire control and administration of all our Theological Seminaries—for example, as to the election of Trustees—can be transferred to the General Assembly, on any principle of complete uniformity, your Committee regard it as wholly impracticable, and the attempt to accomplish it altogether undesirable. To bring it about, should it be undertaken, would require an amount of legislation, in six or seven different States, which would be portentous.

In some cases, alterations of existing charters are impossible; by reason, as in Ohio, of changes in the constitution enacted subsequently to the granting of that charter upon which Lane Seminary was incorporated. Surely it would be to the last degree unwise to attempt such alterations in so many charters, putting in jeopardy so large an amount of property, when the object contemplated may be secured in another and better way.

Besides, the intentions and wishes of benevolent men, who have founded and endowed some of these Seminaries, and aided others on their present footing, should be honorably and zealously protected.

Your Committee, therefore, would recommend no change, and no attempt at change, in this direction, save such as may safely and wisely be effected under existing charters.

For example, the Directors of the Seminary at Princeton have memorialized this Assembly, with the request that the Assembly would so far change its "plan" of control over that Institution, as to give the Board of Directors enlarged rights in several specified particulars, subject to the veto of the General Assembly.

Your Committee are unanimously of the opinion that the changes asked for are eminently wise and proper. If it were within the power of the General Assembly to remit the entire administration of this venerable Institution to its Board of Directors, without any of the restrictions they have mentioned as to the supply of their own vacancies, they would cordially recommend it. But, inasmuch as the endowments of this Seminary are held on the condition that it should be the property and under the control of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, that trust cannot be vacated nor transferred to any other body. The method desired and proposed by the Directors themselves is open to no such objection, and is believed to be quite within the provisions of the law as now defined, being only a convenient and wise mode of executing by the General Assembly itself the trust which it now holds.

A memorial has been presented to this Assembly from the Directors of Union Theological Seminary, in New-York, bearing upon the point of uniformity, as to a certain kind and amount of ecclesiastical supervision.

It had appeared to them,—many of them having taken an active part in founding that Seminary thirty-three years ago, in a time, as already noticed, of memorable excitement,—that there were great disadvantages and perils in electing Professors and Teachers by the Assembly itself, without sufficient time or opportunity for acquaintance with the qualifications of men to be appointed to offices of such responsibility.

It is self-evident, as your Committee are agreed, that a body so large as the General Assembly, and composed of men resident, most of them, at so great a distance from the several Seminaries, is not so competent to arrange for their interests and usefulness, as those having local and personal intimacy with them. Desirous of bringing about as much uniformity as was possible in the relation of the Seminaries to the General Assembly of the Church, the Directors of Union Seminary have memorialized this Assembly to the effect, that the Assembly would commit, so far as practicable, the general administration of all the Seminaries, now under the control of the Assembly, to their several Boards of Directors; proposing, if this be done, to give to the General Assembly, what it does not now possess, the right of veto in the election of Professors at Union. In this generous offer, looking solely to the peace and harmony of the Church, the memorialists did not include the same veto in regard to the election of their own Directors, inasmuch as these Directors hold the property of the Seminary in trust. The Trustees of Princeton Seminary, being one of two Boards, are a close corporation. The Directors of Union Seminary, in New-York, being but one Board, are the Trustees.

Leaving all the diversities of method and administration in the several Seminaries intact, save in the particulars hereinafter provided for, your Committee are happy to report that there is one mode of unifying all the Seminaries of the Presbyterian Church as to ecclesiastical supervision, so far as unification is in any way desirable. It is the mode suggested in the several memorials of the Directors of Union and Princeton, and approved, or likely to be approved, from information in our possession, by the Directors of Auburn and Lane. This is, to give to the General Assembly a veto power upon the appointment of Professors in all these several Institutions. This seems to your Committee to secure all the uniformity, as to the relation of these Seminaries to the Church, which can be necessary to insure general confidence and satisfaction. Less than this might excite jealousy; more than this is cumbersome and undesirable.

Your Committee, in accordance with these views, report the following plan and resolutions:

1. Accepting the offer so generously made by the Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, in New-York,—a Seminary independent hitherto of all direct ecclesiastical control,—to invest the General Assembly with the right of a veto in the election of Professors in that Institution, this Assembly would invite all those Theological Seminaries, not now under the control of the General Assembly, to adopt, at their earliest convenience, the same rule and method, to the end, that, throughout the whole Presbyterian Church, there may be uniform and complete confidence in those intrusted with the training of our candidates for the ministry.

2. That the several Boards of Directors of those Seminaries which are now under the control of the General Assembly shall be authorized to elect, suspend, and displace the Professors of the Seminaries under their care, subject in all cases to the veto of the General Assembly, to whom they shall annually make a full report of their proceedings, and to whom their minutes shall be submitted whenever the Assembly shall require them to be produced. These Boards shall further be authorized to fix the salaries of the Professors, and to fill their own vacancies, subject in all cases to the veto of the General Assembly.

3. Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the Assembly to propose such alterations in the "plans" of the Seminaries now under the control of the Assembly, as shall be deemed necessary to carry into effect the principles above stated, and that said Committee report to this or to the next succeeding Assembly.

4. In case the Board of Directors of any Theological Seminary now under the control of the General Assembly, should prefer to retain their present relation to this body, the plan of such Seminary shall remain unaltered.

Your Committee are happy to report a general state of prosperity in all our Theological Seminaries, some of them making good progress in increasing their endowments.

Auburn Seminary has just celebrated its first semi-centennial anniversary, by laying the corner-stone of a new Library building, to be erected at a cost of about $30,000, furnished most generously by Messrs. William E. Dodge, of New-York, and Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora.

Allegheny Seminary is moving prosperously in the same direction, having received pledges of generous aid, among which we cannot fail to make special mention of one given by a member of this body, Rev. Dr. Beatty, who, in addition to all which he has done to show his interest in the Re-union of the Church, has signalized the event by gifts to endow a Professorship, to be known as "the Re-union Professorship;" which, supplementing his former donations to the same Seminary, are truly munificent and princely.

Union Seminary, in New-York, has recently purchased a new and most eligible site, in the upper part of the city, and happy progress has been made for the increase of its permanent endowments.

Reference is made, in some of the reports, to an increase of the salary of the Professors. While the thoughts of many are directed to some new arrangement for the sustentation of the ministry at large, your Committee feel that this is a fitting occasion to direct attention to the importance of a liberal support of men who are called to occupy chairs of instruction in our several Theological Seminaries. This is an act of wisdom as well as justice. It is directly related to the fostering of high Christian scholarship in this country. When vacancies occur in some of the Professorships, it is hard to find suitable persons by whom they may be filled. Too little encouragement is given to young men to address themselves to such studies,—for example, in Biblical Literature,—as would qualify them to be the fitting successors of such men as Moses Stuart, Edward Robinson, and J. Addison Alexander. Such appointments should not be left to casual tastes. Every thing should be done by a wise and generous Church to foster liberal culture, to encourage more of our young men to prepare themselves for eminent usefulness in the several departments of Theological instruction, believing that their work will not be wasted or unrewarded.

Grateful to the Great Head of the Church for the immense service already rendered to our own and foreign lands by our Theological Seminaries, your Committee would close their report by commending these most needful and excellent Institutions to the warmer affection, entire confidence, larger liberality, and more fervent prayers of the whole Church.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries presented a report on the Memorial of the Directors of Princeton Seminary, with the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the Plan of the Theological Seminary at Princeton be changed as follows, viz.:

In ARTICLE I.—Of the General Assembly.

Section 1 shall hereafter read as follows: "As this Institution derives its origin from the General Assembly, that body is to be considered its patron and the fountain of its powers."

Section 2 shall hereafter read as follows: "The Board of Directors appointed by the Assembly shall have the immediate control of the Seminary."

Section 3 shall be omitted.

Section 4 shall remain as it is.

In ARTICLE II.—Of the Board of Directors.

Section 1 shall hereafter be as follows: "The Board of Directors shall consist of twenty-one ministers and nine ruling elders, and shall have power to fill any vacancies which may hereafter occur in its body, subject always, however, to the veto of the General Assembly."

Section 2 shall hereafter be as follows: "The Board of Directors shall have power to elect the Professors, and to remove them from office, such election and removal to be subject to the veto of the General Assembly. The said Board shall also have power to suspend temporarily a Professor, preliminary to and pending an investigation of charges against his life or doctrine."

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12 of this Article shall hereafter be respectively Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Section 10 of this Article, as it stands, shall hereafter be omitted.

ARTICLE III.—Of the Professors.

Section 1 shall hereafter be as follows: "The number of Professors in the Seminary shall be increased or diminished as the Board of Directors shall from time to time direct."

Section 2 shall remain as it is.

Section 3 shall remain as it is.

Section 4 shall hereafter be as follows: "The salaries of the Professors shall be fixed by the Board of Directors."

Sections 6, 8, 9, 10, and 12 of this Article shall hereafter be respectively Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9.

Resolved, 2. That the salary of each Professor be increased to Three Thousand Dollars per annum, from May 1st, 1869, the increase to be paid out of any unappropriated funds of the Seminary in the hands of its Trustees.

The following changes in ARTICLE VII., on the suggestion of the Committee appointed, by the Board of Directors of the Princeton Theological Seminary, to examine Article VII. of the Plan of the Seminary, and to propose to the Assembly such alterations, as may bring that Article into harmony with the other alterations proposed in the report of the Board of Directors to the Assembly, were adopted, viz.:

Omit Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4; and in lieu thereof insert the following, viz.:

Section 1. The Board of Directors are authorized to exercise all the control of the funds belonging to this Institution, hitherto exercised by the General Assembly, as far as this can be done consistently with the will of the testators and donors; such as, fixing the salary of the Professors, regulating the amount required for endowment of scholarships or professorships, and keeping sacred and distinct the different funds already created, or to be hereafter created, for the specific objects for which they are given.

Section 2. All matters relating to the finances, fixing the salaries of Professors, the extent of endowment and the aid of students, shall be, by the Board of Directors, submitted to the Trustees of the Seminary for their approval.

Section 3. Fair statements shall be annually presented to the Assembly, by the Board of Directors and by the Trustees, of the amount of funds belonging to the Seminary, of the items which constitute that amount, and of the expenditures in detail for the preceding year.

Sections 5 and 6 to remain as heretofore, and to be numbered respectively 4 and 5.

The following were nominated for Directors of Princeton Seminary:

Ministers.	Elders.
William D. Snodgrass, D.D.,	Robert Carter,
Joseph McElroy, D.D.,	John K. Findlay,
George W. Musgrave, D.D.,	George Sharswood, LL.D.,
Robert Hammill, D.D.,
Joseph T. Smith, D.D.,
Robert Davidson, D.D.,
Gardiner Spring, D.D.

Thomas C. M. Paton, to fill the place of Moses Allen, resigned.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries, in reference to the Report of the Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, reported, recommending the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted, viz.:

Whereas, David Elliott, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical and Pastoral Theology in the Western Theological Seminary, on account of advanced age, being now in his 84th year, asks to be relieved from the full discharge of the duties of his Chair; and whereas, the Board of Directors of that Seminary unite in this request; therefore,

Resolved, That the petition of the Rev. Dr. Elliott be hereby granted, and that he be retired from the active duties of his Chair, (except so far as they may be incidentally and optionally rendered,) but that he still retain his position in the Board of Instruction, as Professor Emeritus.

Resolved, That we take pleasure in placing on the record of this General Assembly our high appreciation of the Rev. Dr. Elliott's able, faithful, and devoted service, in the Chair which he has occupied so long and so much to the satisfaction of the Church; and that we recommend to the Board of Trustees to provide for his future support as liberally as their means may permit.

Resolved, That the following nominations are hereby made to fill vacancies in the Board of Directors, their term of office to continue four years, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Rev. William D. Howard, D.D.,	Mr. James Laughlin,
Rev. Elliott E. Swift,	Mr. B. Rush Bradford,
Rev. Robert Dickson,	Hon. Henry W. Williams, LL.D.
Rev. Robert B. Walker, D.D.,
Rev. James Allison, D.D.,
Rev. Richard Craighead,
Rev. Ebenezer Buckingham,

Also, Rev. David X. Junkin, D.D., to continue in office three years, in place of Rev. James M. Platt, resigned.

It was, thereupon,

Resolved, That this Assembly hereby expresses its assent to any alteration of the Incorporation of the Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny, whereby said Trustees may be elected by the Directors of said Seminary instead of by the General Assembly.

The Committee on Theological Seminaries, in reference to the Report of the Directors of Danville Theological Seminary, reported, recommending the accompanying resolutions, which were adopted, as follows:

That they have examined the Report of the Board of Directors, and ascertain that ten students were in attendance during the special session, ordered by the General Assembly, which began on the 1st of May, 1869, and closed on the 5th of November of the same year; that it has been found inexpedient fully to comply with the advisory request of the General Assembly, to hold a term during the summer months of 1870; but that a brief preliminary course of instruction will be furnished such students as may avail themselves of the opportunity; and that it is the intention of the Board, to resume the regular exercises of the Seminary in September next, in accordance with the direction of the Assembly, and conformably to usage in other Seminaries. The Board also inform the Assembly that the Rev. Drs. E. P. Humphrey and L. J. Halsey, elected to Chairs in the Institution, in November last, at Pittsburgh, have declined to accept the positions assigned them; and the request is preferred, that the Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D., shall be transferred from the Chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History to that of Didactic and Polemic Theology; and that the vacancies then existing shall be filled by election of this General Assembly.

The following resolutions are recommended, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly renews its declarations of interest in the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, and recognizes the extreme importance of maintaining it with such zeal and wisdom, and upon such a generous basis, as shall insure its prosperity.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly recommends to the Church at large the propriety of materially increasing the endowment of this Seminary, the present amount of which, over $200,000, having been given, with the exception of about $20,000, by the people of Kentucky.

Resolved, 3. That the Board of Trustees be requested to use all due diligence to secure means, by which further accommodations may be provided for the students, and places of residence for the Professors; and the hope is earnestly expressed, that the earliest benefactions which the Institution shall receive may take this direction.

Resolved, 4. That the Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D., be transferred from the Chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History to the Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology; and that this Assembly proceed to fill by election, the Chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, and the Chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

Your Committee also report that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the present General Assembly:

Ministers.	Elders.
Heman H. Allen,	T. T. Alexander,
Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D.,	John G. Barrett,
Robert W. Landis, D.D.,	A. M. January,
Joel K. Lyle,	Benjamin F. Avery,
Stephen Yerkes.	J. C. Randolph.

The vacancies occurring from various causes must be filled by this Assembly. The following nominations are proposed, viz.:

Rev. L. B. W. Shryock, (till 1871,) in place of the Rev. Nathaniel West, D.D., who accepts a professorship.

Rev. E. Perkins Pratt, D.D., in place of Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D.

Elders: James McCampbell, (till 1871,) in place of S. R. Williams, deceased.

J. W. Scott, to supply a vacancy overlooked last year.

W. H. Kinnaird and B. N. Penick, in place of William Ernst and J. L. Landis, of the Class of 1872.

The following nominations are proposed for the two professorships referred to, viz.:

Rev. Samuel H. McMullin, Biblical and Ecclesiastical History; Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., Pastoral Theology and Church Government.

The Committee also recommended, and the Assembly adopted, the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the salaries of the present Professors of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Ky., be continued from March 1st, 1870; and that the Agent of the Board of Trustees of the said Seminary be instructed to pay the same from that date."

The same Committee, also, presented a Report on a communication from the Faculty of the Auburn Theological Seminary, recommending its publication in the Appendix to the Minutes, with the Reports of the other Seminaries.

Also, a Report on the German Theological Schools, at Newark, N. J., and Dubuque, Iowa, with accompanying resolutions, which were adopted, as follows:

The Committee have had before them an Overture from the Commissioners of the Presbytery of Newark, in respect to a Theological School for the Germans, located at Newark, N. J.; and a Report from the Board of Education, who were appointed a year ago to consider the situation and circumstances of a Theological School for the Germans, located at Dubuque, Iowa. These Institutions both bear the same name—the one, that of "The German Theological School of the Presbytery of Newark;" the other, that of "The German Theological School of the North-west." The schools differ somewhat in their origin.

The school at Newark was organized by the ecclesiastical action of the Presbytery, and now follows the guidance of a Board of Direction. The school at Dubuque has been largely a personal and individual enterprise, with the sympathy and personal support of the members of the Presbyteries of Dubuque and Dane. The plans of both are somewhat unlike the fully organized Theological Seminaries of our Church, inasmuch as they include both an academical and a theological course, and have, as their design, the efficient and speedy preparation for the ministry of young Germans, whose habits may be suited to the social habits of the people among whom they are to labor, and who shall be fitted to work among the poorest and most needy of their countrymen. The managers of both these institutions consider that the instruction, the social and æsthetic culture, received by German students in passing eight or ten years in our American Colleges and Seminaries, unfit them for the plainer habits of great numbers of their people, whom it is our wish to reach. At the same time, the Board of Trustees of the Newark School have a clearly defined policy, in respect to an advance from German to American methods.

They state it as a fundamental principle, that instruction shall be given both in the German and in the English language; and thus, from the beginning to the end of the preparation, they aim to bring the German people into sympathy with our American Presbyterian Church in its doctrines and usages. English as well as German is also taught in the school at Dubuque, but no such well-defined principle is expressed.

There can be no question, that such Institutions as these, wisely managed, are greatly needed for the work of the Church. They may be the facile and mighty implement in laboring among the masses of our land. But the providential success in work among the Germans, in the communities within which these schools are located, and the growing demand for ministers which their success calls forth, are the best recommendation of their usefulness. Their providential situation, also, is most happy—the one in a large city, at the very gateway of our land, which city has a magnetic power sufficient to turn aside to itself a large portion of the tide of German immigration, and the other near the very centre of the same people in the cities and villages of our broad North-west.

It is desirable that these two Institutions should be placed, as nearly as possible, on the same footing; that they should enjoy equal advantages in connection with our Church, and that they should be made efficient in accomplishing their important designs. They will need a control rather more local than that of the other Seminaries, and a different care, inasmuch as their objects and wants are different.

The Committee would therefore recommend to the General Assembly the following action:

I. That the General Assembly recognize the very great importance of nurturing and maintaining these Institutions, as an instrumentality for converting and sanctifying the millions who come from the German-speaking regions of continental Europe, and heartily commend them to the confidence, prayers, and support of the Presbyterian Church.

II. That the Presbyteries of Dubuque and Dane, under whose nominal care "The German Theological School of the North-west" has been, are instructed to hold a joint meeting in the German church of Dubuque, on the last Wednesday of June next, or as soon after as may be convenient, and select from their general region a Board of eighteen Directors, nine of them ministers and nine laymen, who should be men well acquainted and heartily sympathizing with the cause of Education among the German population.

III. That this Board, as well as the Board of Trustees of the Presbytery of Newark, which shall bear the name of the Board of Directors, shall divide its members by lot into three equal classes, holding their office severally for one, two, and three years: on the expiration of each of which periods successively, a new class shall be elected by the Presbyteries, or by the Board itself. This election, as well as any election to all vacancies by death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be held valid, only on the approval of the General Assembly. The regularly appointed Professors of these Institutions shall be elected by the Board of Directors, subject to the approval of the General Assembly in the same manner, and to the same extent, which may be determined upon in respect to the other Theological Institutions of the Church.

IV. That we bespeak the coöperation of the Presbyteries and churches with the Presbyteries of Newark, Dubuque, and Dane, to secure suitable young men for instruction in these Institutions, and funds for their support; and we recommend that funds contributed for this object be considered a part of the Five Million Memorial Fund.

V. That the General Assembly approve of the following persons elected at the late meeting of the Presbytery of Newark, as their Board of Trustees, to be the Board of Directors of the German Theological School in Newark, in accordance with a division into three classes already made by themselves, viz.: Rev. Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D., Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., Rev. Charles A. Smith, D.D., Rev. George Seibert, Ph.D., Rev. Charles E. Knox, Mr. Thomas N. McCarter, Mr. F. Wolcott Jackson, Mr. William F. Van Wagenen, Mr. Philip Doremus.

The election of Directors and Professors for Theological Seminaries was made the order of the day for Friday, at 4 o'clock P.M.

The Standing Committee on Education presented their Report, which, having been read, was accepted, and put on the docket.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, June 1st, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented their Report, which, having been read, was accepted, and put on the docket.

The unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee on Finance, was resumed.

Pending its consideration, adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, June 2d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the first half-hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Invitations to visit the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb, and the Eastern Penitentiary of Pennsylvania, were received, and accepted with thanks.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported an Overture from the Presbytery of Baltimore, requesting permission to receive the Rev. Hugh H. Carson, a foreign minister, as a member of that Presbytery.

The Committee recommended, that, inasmuch as it appears that the requisite conditions have been complied with, and proper testimonials furnished, the request be granted, and Mr. Carson's name be added to their roll. Adopted.

Also, a petition from certain missionaries in Japan, viz., Rev. David Thompson, of the Presbytery of Ohio; Rev. Edward Cornes, of the Presbytery of Chicago, and Rev. Christopher Carrothers, of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, asking to be constituted into a Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Yedo.

The Committee recommended, that, inasmuch as it is expected that other missionaries will soon be sent to that field, the prayer of the memorialists be granted, and that they be, and hereby are, constituted a Presbytery, to be known as the Presbytery of Yedo, to be attached to the Synod of China, when organized.

Ordered, that the Presbytery of Yedo meet at such time and place as may be indicated by any two of the members of that Presbytery, and be opened with a sermon by the minister whom two of the members may designate. Adopted.

Also, an application for the formation of a new Presbytery in Florida.

The Committee recommended that the prayer of the petitioners be granted, and that the Assembly hereby constitute the Presbytery of East-Florida, to be composed of Rev. Charles O. Reynolds, of the Presbytery of New-York; Rev. William N. Page, of the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia; Rev. Jonathan C. Gibbs, of the Presbytery of Atlantic, and Rev. James W. C. Pennington, D.D., of the Third Presbytery of New-York; that said Presbytery of East-Florida be attached to the Synod of Atlantic; that the first meeting of the Presbytery be held at Jacksonville, Fla., the third Wednesday in June, 1870, at two o'clock P.M., and be opened with a sermon by Rev. C. O. Reynolds, or, in his absence, by Rev. William N. Page. Adopted.

The following Preamble and Resolution were adopted:

Whereas, The Western portion of the Church, in the providence of God, is especially intrusted with the duty of promoting the Education of the Indians, as an essential means of elevating and perpetuating a race now passing away; and

Whereas, A proposition is now favorably entertained by the United States Government, to maintain a sufficient number of Professorships to secure Academic and Normal scholarships in an Institution which, by charter, belongs to the Presbyterian Church, and which has grown out of her missionary work;

Resolved, That the Assembly approve the benevolent designs of the individuals who are coöperating with the Government to secure this end, and regard with especial favor the proposition to establish and maintain, in connection with the Indian Department at Washington, said Professorships in Highland University, with a view to educate Indian youths for teachers and missionaries, to be employed in the civilization of their tribes.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the papers in the case of the Seminary of the North-west, presented a Majority and a Minority Report. The Report of the Majority, after mature deliberation, was adopted, and is as follows:

From the Eleventh Annual Report of the Board of Directors, presented to this Assembly, it appears, that thirty-five young men have been in attendance during the past year; seven have completed the prescribed course of study, and have received the usual certificate of graduation.

The students of the Seminary have spent much of the time, unoccupied in study, in special evangelistic labor in the city of Chicago, and with marked success, being made the instruments of the hopeful conversion of many, and their ingathering to the neighboring churches.

The Rev. Willis Lord, D.D., presents to the Assembly his resignation of the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology. The Committee recommend that the resignation be accepted, and the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That in accepting the Rev. Dr. Lord's resignation of the Cyrus H. McCormick Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology in the Theological Seminary of the North-west, the General Assembly express their sense of the ability and fidelity, with which he has discharged the important duties committed to him, and their gratitude to the great Head of the Church for the success, by which he has marked his approbation of Dr. Lord's labors in training young men for the Gospel ministry; praying that all his future labors for the promotion of sound scriptural education may be abundantly blessed, and that at the last he may receive, from the Lord himself, the promised public approval, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

The Report of the Board of Trustees, which accompanies that of the Directors, exhibits the financial condition of the Seminary.

There have also been submitted a minority Report, signed by five of the Directors, and a Protest signed by two of the Directors, representing that the action of the majority has not been in accordance with previous directions of the General Assembly.

A number of gentlemen connected with, or interested in this Seminary, appeared before the Committee, and were heard at length. From all which, your Committee are obliged to state, as we do, with deep regret, that the difficulties heretofore existing, and which were supposed to have been amicably and finally adjusted by the action of the Assembly sitting in the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., in November last, still continue, or have broken out afresh; and that, by this renewal of strife, the interests of the Seminary are greatly imperiled, and our common Christianity subject to reproach.

In view of the facts that have come before us, the Committee recommend the following action, based on the decision of the Assembly in November last:

Resolved, 1. The Assembly solemnly enjoin upon the parties concerned, that no further controversy respecting past issues be indulged in; and all should cordially unite in efforts to promote the prosperity of the Institution, in the field of usefulness now open before it.

Resolved, 2. Inasmuch as the Chair of Theology has been vacated by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Lord, and Mr. McCormick has been released from the fourth installment of his bond according to the direction of the Assembly, no occasion exists for controversy, in reference to these matters.

Resolved, 3. Inasmuch as it appears that dissatisfaction has been created by the election of Trustees in April last, the Assembly enjoin upon the Directors, to make such changes as will conform their action to Article 3 of the Agreement, whereby persons, not unacceptable to either party, shall take the places of the three Trustees who resigned in accordance with the direction of the Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That, in compliance with Article 4 of the Agreement, "all the friends and patrons of the Seminary shall have a proper share in the management of the Institution; and those friends of the Seminary who have not yet contributed toward its endowment shall make earnest efforts to complete the endowment."

The term of office of the following members of the Board of Directors expires with the sessions of this Assembly, viz.: Ministers, S. T. Wilson, D.D., J. G. Monfort, D.D., J. P. Safford, D.D., F. T. Brown, D.D., F. N. Ewing; Elders, Henry Phelps, J. McKee Peoples, Samuel Howe, John Woodbridge, J. C. Walker.

The Committee recommend the filling of these vacancies by an election of Directors by this Assembly.

The Committee recommend that the vacancy in the Chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology be filled by this Assembly.

The Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., of the Presbytery of New-York, Fourth, the Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, Jr., D.D., of the Presbytery of Fort Wayne, and the Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., of the Presbytery of Chicago, (N. S.,) were put in nomination as candidates for the Cyrus H. McCormick Professorship of the North-west Theological Seminary.

The Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., then led the Assembly in prayer for divine guidance in the election, to be held on Friday afternoon.

Nominations were also made for Directors of the Seminary of the North-west, to be elected at the same time with the Directors of the other Institutions, on Friday, at 4 P.M.

The unfinished business, viz., that part of the Report of the Joint Committee on Finance, pertaining to the Five Million Fund, was resumed.

After full consideration, it was

Resolved, That so much of the Report of the Joint Committee on Finance, as relates to the permanent financial operations of the Church, be referred to a select Committee of twenty-one, who shall consider and recommend to the next Assembly, a mode of carrying out the suggestions of the Joint Committee on this first branch of their Report; and that, with a view to the uniform arrangement and administration of our entire "Benevolent work," this same Committee of twenty-one shall, if possible, recommend a plan for simplifying and consolidating our various operations, and for enlisting the vigorous and effective sympathy and coöperation of all our Presbyteries and all our congregations with the Boards of the Church, as they may be organized.

The remainder of the Report was adopted, after amendment, as follows:

The Joint Committee was called into existence by the following resolution of the Joint Committee on Reunion:

"Resolved, That a Committee of five from each branch of the Church be appointed to take into consideration the subject of raising funds for the use of the United Church, and the best methods of doing the same, and the objects to which the same should be directed, and to report to the next General Assembly."

The convention of the United Churches at Pittsburgh, Pa., further agreed, with enthusiasm, to the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is incumbent on the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, one in organization, one in faith, and one in effort, to make a special offering, to the treasury of the Lord, of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS; and we pledge ourselves, first of all, to seek in our daily petitions the blessing of God to make this resolution effectual; and second, that we will, with untiring perseverance and personal effort, endeavor to animate the whole Church with the purpose to secure the accomplishment of this great work before the third Thursday of May, 1871."

The action of the Committee upon these resolutions is herewith submitted.

On the subject of the Five Million Memorial Fund, the Joint Committee, (all the members being present but two, who were hindered by unavoidable engagements,) after most careful and anxious deliberation, agreed unanimously upon the following resolutions:

1. That, notwithstanding we find, on examination, that the terms of the resolution adopted on the subject by the General Assemblies recently met at Pittsburgh, Pa., do not distinctly enjoin the duty of raising the proposed "Memorial Fund" upon this Joint Committee; yet, being fully persuaded that the general voice and expectation of the Church have determined, that this service fairly belongs to the Committee; and, further, inasmuch as funds for this object have already been tendered to us, we assume this to be a duty embraced within the intention of the Assemblies in our appointment; and therefore we conclude to initiate this work at once, and to conduct it until the meeting of the General Assembly.

2. That, in the judgment of this Joint Committee, it is not within the intention of the Church, to include in this fund the ordinary contributions to the Church's stated work, (which in our new position should be greatly advanced,) but to create and strengthen permanent institutions at home and abroad, to meet such extraordinary claims as arise out of our new position, and to effect such objects as properly commemorate our Union. By these we mean:

I. Theological Seminaries, Colleges, and Seminaries for the education of our daughters, including buildings and endowments of the same; it being understood that such Institutions shall be chartered, and shall be in connection with the Presbyterian Church.

II. Literary Institutions for the raising of a native Gospel ministry in heathen lands.

III. Church buildings and Manses originating subsequently to the Union, and otherwise entitled to public aid; Hospitals and Orphan Asylums in connection with the Church.

IV. Institutions for the education and evangelization of the Freedmen.

V. Special contributions for the establishment of a permanent Sustentation Fund, which shall include funds to be appropriated for the support of Disabled Ministers and their Families.

At the same time the Committee announced, that the Hon. William E. Dodge, as Treasurer, in accordance with the recommendation of the Convention, would receive donations for these objects, and donations to be applied hereafter, at the discretion of the General Assembly.

These resolutions were extensively published, and, while much diversity of view appears to prevail regarding details, their leading principle appears to have secured general acceptance, and in various quarters efforts have been inaugurated in accordance with it.

The Committee having considered what practical measures should be suggested to the General Assembly, with a view to realizing the Five Million Memorial Fund before the third Thursday in May, 1871, according to a resolution of the Pittsburgh Convention,

It was unanimously agreed to recommend—

1st. The appointment of a Committee for the raising and disposition of this fund, subject to the principles now agreed upon.

2d. That this Committee shall examine the claims of particular Institutions seeking to enjoy the benefit of the fund, either by direct appropriation, or their own efforts, the results of which are reckoned as part of the fund.

3d. That, in addition to other efforts, a collection be made in all our congregations, as nearly simultaneously as practicable, during the month of January, 1871, when the ministers, having prepared the way, by keeping the subject constantly before the people in the interval, shall more specially urge the contribution upon them.

4th. That the Committee, constituted by the first resolution, be instructed to prepare and forward to each congregation through the pastor, stated supply, or session, to be laid before each member of the congregation, a clear, distinct, and minute plan for subscribing, reporting, collecting, and forwarding the amounts contributed to this fund, and also to prepare and send suitable blanks for these purposes.

5th. That our Presbyteries and Synods be instructed, at their fall meetings, to make careful inquiry of each pastor and elder, and know if these subscriptions have been presented to the individuals of all our congregations; and in cases of failure to take such measures as may best secure this result.

The Reports of the Committees on Synodical Records were made the first order for this evening.

The following were appointed a Committee, to consider and report on the changes desirable in the plans of the Theological Seminaries, in accordance with the resolution in the Report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries: Messrs. George Junkin, E. R. Fox, S. J. Thompson, and H. K. Clarke, and Rev. H. H. Allen.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported two Overtures in reference to a female Seminary in Kentucky, recommending that no action be taken.

The Report was adopted.

On the recommendation of the same Committee, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly, having heard with liveliest satisfaction of the approaching General Conference of the Evangelical Alliance in the city of New-York, in September of the present year, hereby express their cordial approval of the object of this highly important conference, and their earnest desire and prayer, that it may greatly promote the cause of Christian union, and the more rapid progress of the Redeemer's Kingdom in our land and over all the world.

Mr. Redick McKee, of the Standing Committee on Freedmen, presented a Minority Report, which was accepted and put on the docket.

The Election of members of the Boards was made the second order of the day for to-morrow afternoon.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P. M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, June 2d, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The nomination of the Rev. R. W. Patterson, D.D., to a professorship in the Theological Seminary of the North-west was, at his request, withdrawn.

The order of the day, viz., the Report of the Standing Committee on Education, was taken from the docket, and, having been fully considered, was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education beg leave respectfully to report to the General Assembly as follows:

That, from the last Annual Reports, viz., the Fifty-first Report of the Board of Education, and the Fourteenth Report of the Permanent Committee on Education, it appears that there have been under the care of the former, during the year, 391 young men studying with the ministry in view; and, under the care of the latter, 236; making a total of 627.

Of this number there were in the Academical course, 133; in Colleges, 282; and in Theological Seminaries, 212. Of the latter, 63 have completed their studies, and entered upon the work of the ministry the present year.

Both these Reports show a very encouraging increase in the number of students for the ministry of our Church over previous years.

The Board of Education acknowledge the receipt, during the year ending April 1st, 1870, of $52,276.66; and the Permanent Committee of $34,005.34; making a total from the entire Church, for the education of young men for the ministry, of $89,282. This is exclusive of permanent funds, scholarships, etc. On the whole, the Standing Committee are able to report a highly prosperous condition of this most important interest of the Church.

The Committee ask the attention of the Assembly to the following suggestions:

1. That, while there is an admitted and an urgent demand for more ministers to meet the wants of our rapidly growing Church, there is also need of selection, and of a higher standard of qualification for the work of the ministry. From our present new point of departure in the work of home and foreign evangelization, we should rise to a higher average of demand and attainment in the preaching of the Gospel. The character of our ministry is such, indeed, as to afford us just ground of satisfaction. It does not suffer, as compared with that of any denomination of Christians. Our Candidates are selected with care, and, with few and occasional exceptions, justify the wisdom of our educational agencies in their encouragement and support. But we should not lose sight of the fact, that the mere multiplication of Candidates and Ministers may be a source of embarrassment and weakness; one injudicious selection of a Candidate on the Church's funds, one serious failure to meet the expectations of the Church, lays a perceptible weight on the operations of the Board. We indorse, therefore, the suggestion of one of the Reports before us, that greater carefulness should be exercised by Presbyteries and Presbyterial Committees, as well, we add, as by individual pastors, in recommending candidates for assistance from the Church's funds. These funds are raised mainly by collections in our churches. They are contributed, to a considerable extent, by persons in moderate circumstances. The laboring man's dollar, the widow's mite, go to make them up. They are a sacred trust, which should be used with scrupulous integrity for the purpose of aiding young men of piety and talents, in the efforts to gain a preparation for the work of preaching the Gospel; and they should be applied in no other way. If, under the influence of personal regard, or indiscriminating sympathy, or vague ideas of the necessity of augmenting the ministry, they are spent on young men who lack the proper gifts, or any hopeful capacity for acquiring them, the perversion is as real, though not as criminal, as if they were given to a totally different object. So far as a wise Christian judgment can distinguish, no young man should be aided in any part of his course who has not a call to preach the Gospel; and a call to preach the Gospel consists, not merely in hopeful piety, and a willingness to preach, but in such graces of mind and character, either actual or clearly potential, as shall give reasonable assurance of an acceptable ministry.

The call to preach the Gospel is never complete, until the Church, by desiring, and continuing to desire, the services of a Candidate, indorses her supposed previous call; and it is highly discouraging to Christian liberality, if a young man, who has for three, or perhaps even seven years, or more, been salaried by the Church as an ecclesiastical cadet, turns out at last to be wholly disqualified for service in the field; if he either shows no heart for the work, or so little fitness, that the churches do not desire, but merely tolerate his labors. The whole history of the Church shows, that great results in the progress of Christianity have been secured, not by the mere multiplication of ministers, but by the influence of select minds, rousing and swaying whole communities through the power of the truth. The conversion of Central and Northern Europe was effected, not by the number of ecclesiastics employed, but by the resistless energy of the "Apostle of Germany" and the "Apostle of the North." The only surviving result of the reformation in Italy was the work of one man; and, in multitudes of instances since, throughout Protestant Christendom, it has been not numbers, but concentrated force, that has achieved great things for Christ. While earnestly desiring, therefore, an increase of Candidates for the ministry, it is only on the condition that they exhibit, to a discriminating judgment, such signs of earnestness, force, and Christian ambition, as shall give clear promise of efficient service. No others should be recommended by Presbyteries, or by individual pastors; and, if any are found under the patronage of the Church plainly wanting in these qualities, they should be dropped before more of the Church's money has been wasted upon them.

As a means of such discrimination, the Committee call attention to the following remarks of the Board of Education: "The Presbyterian Church, from her constitution and principles, owes to her Candidates for the sacred office the constant, intelligent, watchful, affectionate care of her Presbyteries. In the European Reformed and Presbyterian Churches, the care of the Presbytery is such. The American Presbyterian system of Education, having been modified largely in its early days by the Congregational element associated with it, and its work being rendered more difficult by the unsettled character of our population, the care of Presbyteries over Candidates has been lax and irregular. The young men have been too frequently orphans as to the culture, counsel, and direction of those to whom they should look for them. It is not too much to say, that a hearty paternal care of the Presbyteries, over their young men, might make the next generation of pastors fully one half more efficient, happy, and successful in the work of Christ, than that to which we belong. This is one of the subjects to which the Re-united Church should devote early and grave attention. A plan should be adopted for the maintenance of a permanent Committee on Education in each Presbytery, which should be responsible for keeping Candidates in view; for regularly bringing matters relating to their standing, wants, and employments, before their brethren; and for the correspondence required with the Board concerning those aided from the funds of the Church."

This last plan has been already in successful operation to some extent in all parts of our Church, and is urgently recommended to all our Presbyteries, as an essential part of our system of Education for the ministry.

2. The Board of Education of the Re-united Church will enter upon its work with about 600 young men under its care; more than 200 of whom will be pursuing their theological studies. It is earnestly recommended, that liberal and sure provision be made for their wants. Most of them are the sons of families in moderate or narrow circumstances. Many of them are young men of high promise, who, under a conscientious sense of duty, have renounced the pursuits of worldly ambition and success, to devote themselves to the preaching of the Gospel. They ought not to be regarded as beneficiaries, but as the salaried servants of the Church, preparing to do her work, and justly entitled to expect a competent maintenance at her hands. It is believed, they are generally content to exercise a careful economy in their expenses. They labor in various ways, especially during their vacations, to do good, and, at the same time, to secure some little surplus from their remuneration for the purchase of books. They ought not to be kept waiting, or left in any suspense, as to the payment of their quarterly stipends. Until fixed provision can be made, by an ample supply of scholarships, for the support of our Candidates for the ministry, regular and more liberal contributions should be made for this object. Let it be set down in every congregation of our Church, as one of the Causes that is never to be left without an annual collection; and let every pastor see to it, that the subject is properly presented and urged on the Christian liberality of his people. The Committee would urge, however, the importance of providing as speedily as possible for the support of suitable Candidates for the ministry, by permanent scholarships located in our various schools of learning.

In consequence of mistaken management in former periods, chiefly by irresponsible societies, and of occasional failures among Candidates, it is well known that, at one time, a deep prejudice was created against this department of the Church's work. None labored for a while under stronger objections, or was less welcome to our congregations; and, although, under a more judicious administration, this feeling has very largely given place to confidence and interest, still it has by no means wholly disappeared. In the progressive culture of the Church, it should be an object to make the scriptural duty of giving a pleasure also, and a blessing to the Church. We should desire all our people to share in the benediction that comes upon the cheerful giver; and, in order that our congregations may give cheerfully, it is desirable that the distinct objects presented to them should not be too greatly multiplied, and that those, whose character best adapts them to it, should be, in part at least, provided for by other means than annual collections. The sentiment of the Church plainly is, that the Cause of Education for the ministry is one of this class. Many scholarships have been already established by the liberality of Christian friends of this Cause. It needs only to carry out this system, in order to have a sufficient foundation on which to place every suitable Candidate for the ministry of our Church with the assurance, that so long as he continues to approve himself to the judgment of his patron, or his ecclesiastical guardians, he shall continue to receive the income. This method is surer, less liable to fluctuation, more acceptable to the feelings of the Candidates themselves; and, when fully organized, will make a fixed and perpetual provision for the education of the rising ministry. These scholarships should be of not less than two thousand and might with advantage be raised to three thousand dollars. The plan is earnestly recommended to liberal members of our Church, as one by which they may be providing, in all subsequent time, for the continual education of one or more young men for the Church service. In the mean time, however, the necessity is pressing, for liberal contributions by our churches, as well as earnest prayer for the successful prosecution of this Cause.

3. The processes and appliances for the education of the rising ministry of our Church admit of great improvements. They furnish at present, for the most part at least, only the minimum of what is actually necessary for an introduction to the work; some knowledge, viz., of the original languages of Scripture, Theology, the Theory and Practice of Preaching, the Pastoral Care, and the History and Polity of the Church. But, in order that the man of God may be "perfect, thoroughly furnished," more than this is required. Gymnasia for wholesome exercise, under some efficient system, should be provided for every literary institution. Adequate provision for training in elocution, including the culture of the voice and the use of the hand, is urgently demanded. The boldness and industry of irreligious science in our day requires careful instruction as to the relations between science and revelation. Courses of lectures may be judiciously provided on ethnology and languages; on ecclesiastical law; on missionary history and geography; on Christian casuistry; on church architecture; and on some other subjects. The course of theological education should be made in a high degree attractive, tempting young men, in some instances, to extend their period of study to four years, or perhaps even more; above all, we cannot insist too strongly on the importance of having our youthful Candidates trained to preach well, to preach to the people, and in popular and ready forms of address. The rush and tumult of our social life, and the manifold distractions of opinion, require a ministry for our Church, that can arrest attention, attract hearers to the house of God, overpower religious charlatanism, and keep abreast of the progress of thought and science. It will be only in this way that we can retain our hold on the public mind, and vindicate our right to shape and mould public sentiment.

The Calvinistic Methodists, a body of Cymro-American Christians, closely in sympathy with the Presbyterian Church, as respects both doctrine and polity, desire to coöperate with us in the work of Education for the ministry. They propose that their Candidates shall be taken under the care of the Board, on the same conditions as others; and in this case they engage to make regular contributions to the Treasury of the Board. The Committee believe, that it would be proper and expedient for the General Assembly to yield to the request of these brethren. The Board of Foreign Missions has established a precedent for such action, in its acceptance of the contributions of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and the support of her missionaries in India. The chief practical difficulty may be avoided, by authorizing the Board of Education to receive Candidates on the recommendation of the Synod of the Welsh brethren, which corresponds to the Presbytery of our Church; provided that the Synod conform, in all respects, to the rules adopted by the General Assembly for the government of the Board of Education in its work.

The Committee regard it as still too early, even if it came properly within their province, to make suggestions as to the distribution of any part of the "Memorial Fund" among our literary institutions. They would only suggest, that the friends of each academy, college, or seminary, connected with our Church, should improve the enthusiasm, awakened by our happy re-union, to secure as large an endowment as possible from the field to which it belongs; leaving it to the wisdom of the Church, when the Fund shall have been raised, to consider the claims of each particular institution. Such endowments will be properly reckoned as part of that thank-offering, which our Church desires to present for those benign influences, which have brought about a restoration of her unity: and the sanguine hope may be expressed that, in this way, many valuable institutions, both for male and female education, in the East and in the West, will be raised above future contingencies, and secured as nurseries of the Church. The large endowment, in some instances, by public lands as well as by private munificence, of Colleges, believed to be hostile in their influence to Evangelical truth, renders it specially important that institutions under Christian control should be fostered by all our people.

It being necessary to preserve the legal existence of the Permanent Committee on Education, it is recommended that the following named gentlemen, members of the class of 1870, whose term of office expires with this meeting of the General Assembly, be reëlected, viz.:

Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D.,
Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D.,
Rev. J. Glentworth Butler, D.D.
Henry Ide,
William H. H. Moore.

The following are also nominated for reëlection as members of the Board:

Ministers.	Laymen.
Morris C. Sutphen,	James Lenox,
George Hale, D.D.,	John F. Loy,
David A. Cunningham,	Martin Ryerson,
Loyal Young, D.D.,	Stephen Colwell,
William H. Green, D.D.,	William P. Van Rensselaer,
Daniel Stewart, D.D.,	Edwin B. Miller,
Jonathan Edwards, D.D.,	Wilfred Hall,
Archibald A. E. Taylor.	John K. Findlay.

The subject of the Concert of Prayer, in behalf of schools and colleges, having been referred to this Committee, they recommend that the last Thursday in January, instead of February, be observed for this purpose. The occurrence of the national holiday of the 22d of February coming so near, and sometimes coinciding with the day now observed, makes it objectionable. An earlier day brings the Concert earlier in the term, with less liability to have the interest it awakens prematurely interrupted by vacations; and with more hope of its happy influence joining on to that of the week of prayer at the opening of the year.

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly, deeply impressed with the crying need of a great increase of laborers, in the harvest, and not attempting to disguise the hardships of the ministry, would yet, in the name of their Lord, call upon the pious young men of our churches to come up, in large numbers, and share with them in the toil and self-denial of this work, that so, having fellowship with Christ in his labors and sufferings, they may also share with him in his recompense of reward.

Resolved, 2. That the Church has no right to ask or expect a portion of her members, to subject themselves to a self-denial which the Church at large is unwilling to share; she cannot reasonably look for a sufficient enlargement of the ministry, until she shall first enable those who minister at the altar to live by the altar.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Education was taken from the docket; and having been fully considered, was adopted, as follows:

The Joint Committee, appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, to adjust the affairs of the "Board of Education," and of the "Permanent Committee on Education," so as to adapt them to the new condition of things in the now united Church, met, according to the call of the Chairmen of the respective Committees, in the rooms of the Board of Education in Philadelphia, February 9th, and also again at an adjourned meeting, May 18th; and, after mature consideration, they have agreed upon and recommend the following Constitution for adoption by the General Assembly:

CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Article I.

Title. There shall be a Board of Education under the corporate title of "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

Article II.

Objects. The Board of Education shall be the organ of the General Assembly of the Church, for the general superintendence of the Church's work, in furnishing a pious, educated, and efficient ministry, in sufficient numbers to meet the calls of its congregations, to supply the wants of the destitute classes and regions in our own country, and to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. It shall provide for the collection and judicious distribution of the funds, which may be requisite in the proper Education of Candidates for the ministry under its care: and it shall, in coöperation with the ecclesiastical courts, do whatever may be proper and necessary to develop an active interest in Education throughout the Church.

Article III.

Members. The General Assembly shall elect the members of the Board. The Board shall consist of twelve members (besides those who shall be members ex officio), of whom six shall be ministers and six laymen of the Presbyterian Church. The members shall be divided into three equal classes, consisting of two ministers and two laymen each, to serve respectively for the terms of one, two, and three years. At any meeting of the Board, regularly convened, five members shall constitute a quorum to transact business. The Board shall also have power to fill any vacancy by resignation, death, or otherwise, until the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Article IV.

Officers. Sec. 1. The Board shall elect its officers annually by ballot. They shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Corresponding Secretary, and Treasurer. The Corresponding Secretary and the Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All other officers must be members of the Board at the time of their election. The Board shall have power, at any of its regular meetings, to fill vacancies which may have occurred in any of the above offices by death, resignation, or otherwise, when due notice of such election shall be given.

Sec. 2. The Corresponding Secretary shall be the executive officer of the Board. He shall take charge of the office, conduct the correspondence, and superintend the publications of the Board; prepare the regular business for its meetings; and always be considered as its official organ. He shall, as far as he can, visit the Synods and Presbyteries, for the purpose of awakening their interest, and concentrating their energies, in this work; visit the students aided by the Board, and exercise a general supervision over them; employ the means necessary to bring to the attention of young men the claims and ends of the ministry; and discharge such other duties as may be assigned to him, from time to time, by the Board, in furtherance of the general object of Education for the Ministry. He shall also have authority to employ such assistance as, in the judgment of the Board, may be deemed necessary.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall have charge of all the funds of the Board, and shall disburse the same under its direction. He shall keep a complete register of the students under the care of the Board, and an account with them individually. He shall give bonds for the proper discharge of his duties.

Article V.

Functions. Sec. 1. The Board shall act through the Presbyteries of the Church. Candidates for the ministry, when properly examined and received by the Presbyteries, and recommended for aid to the Board, shall receive the amount specified, within the limits prescribed by the Assembly, provided in all cases that a discretionary power, necessary to the general trust committed, shall be exercised by the Board; and the Board shall require, that each recommendation shall be accompanied with such information, as may be necessary to the intelligent and judicious performance of its duties.

Sec. 2. It shall exercise a general supervisory care over the students, through annual renewals of recommendations from Presbyteries, and quarterly reports from Instructors, through the correspondence of its Secretary, and his personal visits to literary and theological institutions and the judicatories of the Church, and by other appropriate instrumentalities.

Sec. 3. It shall take all suitable means to inform the Church, as to the duties and interests relating to the consecration of her young men to the office of the ministry, and their sound and thorough education, and to urge the effective care of her judicatories over them; and it shall make such statements and appeals as are calculated to secure contributions sufficient for the accomplishment of its ends. It shall make a full Annual Report of its work to the General Assembly.

Article VI.

Relation of the Presbyteries to the Board. It shall be the duty of each Presbytery, to see that collections are taken up annually for this Cause, in all the churches under its care; to make the increase of Candidates for the ministry a topic of serious consideration in its meetings, at least once a year; to appoint a Standing Committee to act for the Presbytery in all matters pertaining to this Cause, when it is not in session; to recommend to the Board proper cases for its aid, and to make an Annual Report of the transactions of the Presbytery on the whole subject to the Board, previous to the meeting of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE VII.

Duties of Synods. It shall be the duty of the Synods, to call up this subject annually; to inquire what the Presbyteries and churches under their care are doing in relation to it; and to adopt such measures as shall promote the interests of this department of Christian work.

ARTICLE VIII.

By-Laws. The Board shall have power to make for itself all necessary by-laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

The Joint Committee present, also, for the consideration of the General Assembly, the following resolutions:

1. That the Secretary shall have the privilege of a Corresponding Member of the General Assembly, in the discussion of all matters pertaining to the work of Education.
2. That the Board of Education shall be located in the city of Philadelphia, Pa.
3. It is recommended to the General Assembly, to instruct the Board of Education, to take such legal steps, as are necessary to secure to it the present property of the Board of Education, located at Philadelphia, and of the Permanent Committee located at New-York; so that this property, and any funds with which either is or may be intrusted, or which may hereafter be received by bequest or otherwise for purposes of ministerial education, shall be managed by one and the same Board and its successors, as trustees thereof; and that said Board have authority, to apply for and obtain a charter of incorporation, or such modification of the existing charter, as they may deem proper. It is further recommended, that the organizations of the "Permanent Committee on Education," and the "Board of Education," be continued, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of holding and transferring to the Board of Education, as arranged by the present General Assembly, such funds and trusts as may have been, or shall be, committed to them.
4. The following persons are nominated as members of the Board, in conformity with the plan proposed in the foregoing Constitution:

For the term of one year.

MINISTERS—Elias R. Beadle, D.D., Herrick Johnson, D.D.
LAYMEN—Morris Patterson, Samuel Field.

For the term of two years.

The Committee, in submitting the results of their labors to the General Assembly, would express the hope, that the cause of Education will receive the attention it deserves, and the Board be empowered to employ the means, necessary for engaging effectively in the great work which it should perform.

The cause of Education for the ministry is fundamental. It is not merely the great question of the increase and growth of the Church, but it is vital. The Church cannot exist without a ministry; and that denomination, that is indifferent or careless on this essential point, must soon cease to be aggressive, and will find itself in the rear of the contending hosts. The Great Head and Founder of the Church, as if with this before his view, enjoined it upon his disciples, as of first and highest importance: "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest." And this command is as binding and necessary as ever; and at no period more imperative, or more significant, than to us in this land, and in this exigency, where the inspired statement is most impressively true, "The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few."

If, fifty years ago, in an appeal to Christian conscience and sense of duty, through the periodicals of our own and other evangelical Churches, it was said with truth, and the fact stated, that a thousand more missionaries could be employed, and were greatly needed, how must it be now, in this time of universal aggressiveness? How many are needed now, with China and Japan open, Africa explored, South-America accessible, the bigotry and intolerance of Roman and Mohammedan countries softened, the West of our own country permanently defined, and the boundary lines between Home and Foreign Missions almost obliterated?

Resolved, That all the Secretaries of the Boards of the Church have the privilege of Corresponding Members of the General Assembly, in discussions bearing upon the interests of the Boards which they severally represent.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Freedmen was taken from the docket.

Pending its consideration, the Assembly adjourned until eight o'clock P.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, June 2d, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee, appointed to engross the Report of the Joint Committee of Reconstruction, presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee have held three several meetings in the city of Philadelphia; one in January, another in March, and the final one the present month, just before the meeting of the Assembly. The second, and most important of all our meetings, had the presence of every member. We have endeavored diligently and faithfully to attend to the business of Reconstruction, which had been intrusted to us.

Our duties, as described in the concurrent resolutions of the two Assemblies for our appointment, were—"to prepare and propose to the General Assembly of the United Church, a proper adjustment of the boundaries of the Presbyteries and Synods, and the ratio of representation; and any amendments of the Constitution, which they may think necessary to secure efficiency and harmony in the administration of the Church, so greatly increased and so rapidly extending." Under this minute, especially the latter part, many supposed our powers very extensive, and our range of subjects almost unrestricted. We have not so judged, but preferred to keep closely to what is more specially mentioned or clearly implied.

Numerous communications on these matters have reached us; a few from ecclesiastical bodies, or associations of ministers, but chiefly from individuals;—all which have been respectfully and patiently considered, though the suggestions contained in some of them we may have failed to adopt. Many of them either fell in with our own convictions, or tended somewhat to modify them; a few recommended changes so great and radical in the constitution of Presbyteries, Synods, and the Assembly, that we could not approve of them;—some, we thought, might better come before your body from another quarter;—while others, though important and salutary, would cause such agitation and opposition, if proposed, as might seriously disturb the peace and harmony of our so-happily united Church. We have thought proper to recommend only measures which were of immediate and pressing necessity, leaving other matters to future and fuller development.

THE SYNODS.

First, then, as to the consolidation, adjustment, and defining the boundaries of Synods; we recommend the following, viz., the Synods of

1. LONG ISLAND; to comprise the counties of Kings, Queens, Suffolk, and Richmond, N. Y.

2. NEW-YORK; to comprise the counties of New-York, Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Rockland, Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan, N. Y., with our ministers and churches in the New-England States.

3. ALBANY; to include north of the line of the Synod of New-York, and east of the west line of the counties of Greene, Schoharie, Montgomery, Fulton, Hamilton, and Franklin, N. Y.

4. UTICA; to extend west of the Synod of Albany, to the west line of Tioga, Cortland, Onondaga, and Oswego counties, N. Y., and to the State line on the north.

5. GENEVA; to comprise the counties west of Utica to the west line of Steuben, Ontario, and Wayne counties, N. Y.

6. GENESEE; to embrace all the counties of New-York, west of the Synod of Geneva.

7. NEW-JERSEY; to be conterminous with that State, and have also attached to it the Presbytery of Corisco.

8. PHILADELPHIA; to embrace the Eastern part of Pennsylvania to the west line of the counties of Bradford, Sullivan, Luzerne, Schuylkill, Lebanon, and York; and to have attached to it the Presbytery of Western Africa.

9. HARRISBURG; to comprise the Central counties of Pennsylvania west of the Synod of Philadelphia, and east of the west line of the counties of McKean, Cameron, Clearfield, Blair, and Bedford.

10. ERIE; to comprise the North-west counties of Pennsylvania, west of the Synod of Harrisburgh, and bounded south by the counties of Cambria and Westmoreland, and the Allegheny and Ohio rivers, to the State line, except that part of Indiana County lying east and south of the Blacklick Creek.

11. PITTSBURGH; to comprise the remainder of Pennsylvania west of the Synod of Harrisburgh, and south of the Synod of Erie; with all of West-Virginia west of the Allegheny ridge.

12. BALTIMORE; to contain Delaware, Maryland, the District of Columbia, and our ministers and churches in Virginia, and West-Virginia, east of the Allegheny ridge: to have attached to it, also, the Presbytery of Rio Janeiro.

13. ATLANTIC; to embrace the States of North and South-Carolina, Georgia, and Florida.

14. CLEVELAND; to extend from the Ohio State line on the east, to the west and south lines of the counties of Lorain, Medina, Summit, Stark, Tuscarawas, Guernsey, Noble, and Monroe, Ohio.

15. TOLEDO; to comprise the counties west of the Synod of Cleveland, and to be bounded by the east and south lines of the counties of Erie, Huron, Crawford, Wyandot, Hardin, Logan, Champaign, Shelby, and Mercer, Ohio.

16. CINCINNATI; to comprise the counties bounded by the north and east lines of Darke, Miami, Clark, Greene, Fayette, Ross, Vinton, and Gallia, Ohio.

17. COLUMBUS; to comprise the remaining, being the central, counties of the State of Ohio.

18. MICHIGAN; to embrace the whole of the lower peninsula of that State.

19. KENTUCKY; to be conterminous with that State.

20. TENNESSEE; to embrace the States of Tennessee, Louisiana, and Texas, with all our ministers and churches in the States intervening.

21. INDIANA, SOUTH; to extend to the northern line of the counties of Wayne, Henry, Hancock, Marion, Hendricks, Putnam, Clay, and Vigo, Ind.

22. INDIANA, NORTH; to embrace all of the State north of this line.

23. ILLINOIS, SOUTH; to comprise all of the State south of the north line of Edgar, Douglas, Moultrie, Shelby, Christian, Montgomery, Macoupin, Green, and Calhoun counties.

24. ILLINOIS, CENTRAL; to comprise the counties north of the above line to the south line of Kankakee, Grundy, La Salle, Putnam, Bureau, Henry, and Mercer counties, Ill.

25. ILLINOIS, NORTH; to comprise the remaining counties of the State, bounded on the south by the north line of the Synod of Illinois, Central.

26. WISCONSIN; to take in all that State, the upper peninsula of Michigan, and the county of St. Louis in the State of Minnesota.

27. MINNESOTA; to comprise the State of Minnesota, except as above, and the Territory of Dacotah.

28. IOWA NORTH; to comprise all the State of Iowa, north of the south line of Clinton, Jones, Linn, Benton, Tama, Marshall, Story, Boone, Greene, Carroll, Crawford, and Manona counties.

29. IOWA SOUTH; to comprise the remainder of the State of Iowa, with Nebraska, and the Territory of Wyoming.

30. MISSOURI; to be conterminous with the State of Missouri.

31. KANSAS; to extend over that State, Colorado, New-Mexico, and the Indian Territories.

32. PACIFIC; to embrace all the region west of the Rocky Mountains.

33. INDIA; to comprise all our missionaries and churches in that country.

34. CHINA; to comprise all our missionaries and churches in China, Siam, and Japan.

THE PRESBYTERIES.

In regard to fixing the boundaries of the various Presbyteries, which seemed as distinctly assigned to us, we have felt, not only that it would be a most onerous task, which we could hardly do, for all parts, with just discrimination, or to general satisfaction, but that it seemed to fall more properly under the province of the different Synods, or their representatives, who could do it, when assembled, more understandingly and to the fuller content of those interested, than if done by us or by this Assembly. Accordingly, it is proposed, that this specific work be remitted to the several Synods, as now defined by this Assembly. And, for the purpose of securing uniformity of action on the part of the Synods throughout the whole Church, it is recommended, that each Synod, being convened, as hereinafter provided, shall organize the Presbyteries within its bounds in accordance with the following general principles, viz.:

1. That each several Presbytery, with the ministers and churches within its limits, be defined as to boundaries by geographical lines, or with respect to the most convenient lines of travel.

2. That Presbyteries be enlarged, and the formation of small ones be discouraged; none formed hereafter to consist of less than five ministers, the quorum for business remaining as heretofore.

3. That in the formation or arrangement of Presbyteries by the respective Synods, it be recommended that no Presbytery consist of less than ten ministers—except in outlying, frontier, and missionary districts, and then to be constituted as large as possible.

4. That, when two or more congregations, on different sides of a Synodical or Presbyterial line, are under one pastoral charge, they shall all, for the time, belong to that Presbytery with which the minister is connected, but only so long as such pastoral relation continues.

5. That ministers without charge are required to unite with that Presbytery, within the geographical limits of which they ordinarily reside, or are nearest to, and to which they shall be amenable for the proper discharge of their ordination engagements.

6. That the Presbyteries and Synods heretofore existing, which shall lose their present organization by consolidation under these arrangements, shall be considered and designated, as continuing their succession in that Synod, now defined, or Presbytery to be constituted, which includes the largest portion, counting both ministers and churches of said body as existing May 19th, 1870, to preserve its records, and attend, as may be found necessary, to its business and interests.

That the Commissioners of the Presbyteries within the bounds of each Synod, as fixed by this Assembly, be respectively appointed a Committee to designate the day, not later than July 15th, 1870, when, and the place where, each Synod shall hold its first meeting, for the reorganization of the Presbyteries within its bounds, and for the transaction of any other business that may come before them; also, to nominate some one to preach the opening sermon, and preside until the Synod shall be organized by the choice of a Moderator; and report the same to this General Assembly for its action.

REPRESENTATION.

The next general subject is that of Representation in the General Assembly, and a proper ratio for the same.

Your Committee, after full and repeated consideration of this important and difficult subject, are of the opinion, that a change to Synodical representation is necessary, in order to bring the numbers in the Assembly within due limits, and secure equal rights to all parts of the Church. But, so far as we can discover, the Church generally is not yet prepared for such a change; and the Committee desire to avoid all occasion of discord in our united Church, or needless discussions on this subject in this General Assembly. Therefore, no change from Presbyterial representation is proposed; nor would we at present advise any change in the ratio of representation, but leave the matter as it is ordered by chapter xii. section 2, of the Form of Government.

LIMITATION OF APPEALS.

For the relief of the General Assembly in the dispatch of business, and to discourage pertinacious litigation in Church courts, the Committee recommend that all Appeals, References, and Complaints terminate at the Synod, except in relation to questions of constitutional law, or the trial of a minister for heresy in doctrine.

STANDING RULES.

For the purpose of securing the necessary constitutional changes for the foregoing objects, the Committee propose that this General Assembly send down to the Presbyteries the following Overtures, viz.:

1. In the Form of Government, chapter x., section 2, after the word Ministers, to insert—"in number not less than five."

2. In the Form of Government, chapter xii., section 4, to add to the first sentence, at its close, the following words, "and which relate exclusively to the construction of the Constitution, or the trial of a minister for heresy in doctrine."

3. In the Form of Government, chapter xi., at the end of section 4, to add the following sentence: "Every case of the trial of a minister for heresy in doctrine, and all questions relating exclusively to the construction of the Constitution, may be carried by appeal or complaint to the General Assembly; in all other cases or questions, the decision of the Synod shall be final."

4. In the Book of Discipline, chapter vii., section 2, to read as follows, viz.: "Every kind of decision which is formed in any Church judicatory, except the highest, may be reviewed by a superior judicatory, subject to the limitation of appeals from the Synod as provided in the Form of Government, and may be carried before it in one or the other of the four following ways."

Moreover, it is recommended that the Assembly instruct and order all the Presbyteries when reconstructed, at their first appointed meeting, to vote directly yea or nay on these several Overtures, and send forthwith an attested copy of their action to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall keep an accurate account of the same, and report it to the next Assembly.

Finally, your Committee will close their report with a suggestion for the action of the Assembly, which they think would secure greater efficiency and dispatch in their business.

OVERTURES TO THE ASSEMBLY.

As much time is consumed, and the attention of the Assembly distracted with Overtures, and Questions of minor importance, coming up from various quarters, impeding the transaction of business of more general interest,—it is recommended that the Assembly order that, hereafter, Bills and Overtures come up only from Synods, or Presbyteries; yet, that this may not prevent any Committee of Bills and Overtures from bringing before the house, of its own motion, upon a two-thirds vote of the Committee, any matter which they may deem of sufficient importance to engage the attention of the General Assembly.

The Committee appointed to report an Enabling Act, to empower the Synods, as defined, to organize in accordance with the Constitution, presented their report, which was read, put on the docket, and made the first order for to-morrow morning.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion, was made the second order for to-morrow morning.

The order of the day, viz., the reception of Reports on the Records of Synods, was taken up, and,

The Committees on the Records of the following Synods presented their reports, recommending the approval of the several Records, as far as written:

Albany, O. S. and N. S.; Allegheny; Alta California; Atlantic; Baltimore; Buffalo; Chicago; Cincinnati, O. S. and N. S.; Genesee; Geneva; Illinois, O. S. and N. S.; Indiana, O. S. and N. S.; Kansas, O. S. and N. S.; Michigan; Minnesota; Missouri, O. S. and N. S.; New-Jersey; New-York; New-York and New-Jersey; Northern India; Ohio, O. S. and N. S.; Onondaga; Pennsylvania; Peoria; Pittsburgh; St. Paul; Sandusky; Southern Iowa; Susquehanna; Tennessee; Wabash; West-Pennsylvania; Western Reserve; Wheeling; Wisconsin, N. S. and O. S.

The Reports were severally adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky reported, recommending their approval as far as written, with the exception of an irregularity in a judicial proceeding; and their report was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Philadelphia reported, recommending their approval as far as written, with the exception of a certain decision, which they judge should be reversed; and their report was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Utica reported that no record had been entered in the book since the regular meeting of the last Assembly; and the report was accepted.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Iowa, O. S. and N. S., Nashville, Northern Indiana, and Pacific, severally reported that the Records had not been presented, and were discharged.

On the recommendation of several of the Synodical Committees, it was

Resolved, That this Assembly earnestly recommend to the Presbyteries and Synods to record in their Minutes the Narrative of Religion, and all other important papers.

An invitation from the Mayor of the city to witness the Annual Review of the Police Force, was received with thanks.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, June 3d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and occupied the first half-hour with devotional exercises.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The order of the day, viz., THE ENABLING ACT, was then taken from the docket, amended, and passed as follows:

Resolved, That, in order to carry into full effect the plan of Re-union, the fifty-one Synods, into which the Presbyteries of this Church are now distributed, be and they are hereby so arranged as to make but thirty-four Synods, to be constituted as follows:

J. M. Phillips, or, in his absence, by the Rev. A. B. Goodale; and the Synod of Iowa, North, is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synods of Iowa, N. S., and Iowa, O. S.; and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties, of those Synods.

29. The Synod of IOWA, SOUTH, is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries included within the State of Iowa, south of the south line of the Synod of Iowa, North, Nebraska, and the Territory of Wyoming; to meet on the thirteenth day of July, 1870, at 8 P.M., in the Central Church of Des Moines, Iowa; and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. H. H. Kellogg, or, in his absence, by the Rev. T. O. Rice; and the Synod of Iowa, South, is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of Southern Iowa, and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties, of that Synod.

30. The Synod of MISSOURI is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries included within the State of Missouri; to meet on the sixth day of July, 1870, at 8 P.M., in the First Presbyterian Church of St. Louis, Mo.; and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. John Leighton, or, in his absence, by the Rev. Timothy Hill; and the Synod of Missouri is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of Missouri, N. S., and the Synod of Missouri, O. S., and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties, of those Synods.

31. The Synod of KANSAS is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries included within the State of Kansas, in Colorado, in New-Mexico, and in the Indian Territory; to meet on the twelfth day of July, 1870, at 7½ P.M., in the First Church of Topeka; and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. S. M. Irvin, or, in his absence, by the Rev. Samuel A. Stoddard; and the Synod of Kansas is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synod of Kansas, N. S., and Kansas, O. S.; and as such entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties, of those Synods.

32. The Synod of the PACIFIC is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries west of the Rocky Mountains; to meet on the twelfth day of July, 1870, at 7½ o'clock P.M., in the Howard Church of San Francisco, Cal.; and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. A. L. Lindsley, D.D., or, in his absence, by the Rev. E. B. Walsworth, D.D.; and the Synod of the Pacific is hereby declared to be the legal successor of the Synods of Pacific and Alta California, and as such is entitled to the possession and enjoyment of all the rights and franchises, and liable to the performance of all the duties, of those Synods.

33. The Synod of INDIA is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries, and all our missionaries and churches, in that country, to meet on their own adjournment.

34. The Synod of CHINA is hereby constituted; to consist of the Presbyteries and parts of Presbyteries, and all our missionaries and churches, in China, Siam, and Japan; to meet on the twentieth day of October, 1870, at 7 P.M., in the Presbyterian Mission Chapel, at Shanghai; and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. A. P. Happer, D.D., or, in his absence, by the Rev. J. L. Nevius, D.D.

Resolved, 2. That, when the Synods, as herein constituted, shall have reconstructed the Presbyteries within their bounds, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk of each of these Synods, to forward to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly a certified copy of the act of reconstruction; and the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly is hereby authorized and directed, to enter the names of these Presbyteries, as reported, on the roll of the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That the Synods be enjoined, in defining the bounds of Presbyteries, to be careful to designate, by name, the Presbytery by which the succession of any Presbytery, which may lose its present organization, shall be perpetuated.

The Committee appointed to consider and report on the changes in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, presented the following Report, which was adopted: Of the eighteen members of the Board of Trustees, one was appointed before 1837, and all the others since that time by the "Old School" Assemblies at different periods. It seemed to the Committee eminently proper, that at this Assembly a change should be made, so that what was formerly known as the "New School" Branch of the Church should be represented in the Board. Hereafter no such distinctions need be made.

Under the Charter, the Assembly has the power, at its discretion, as often as it shall hold its sessions in the State of Pennsylvania, to change one third of the Trustees, in such manner as it shall seem proper. In the exercise of this discretion, it is a difficult task for the Committee to recommend action in the premises. In view, moreover, of all the circumstances, it seemed best to suggest the removal of six of the Trustees who were only elected at the meeting of the Assembly at Pittsburgh in November last. The regret of the Committee is, that thereby we lose the services of six gentlemen of the highest character. But this course appeared least open to objection.

Your Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That, from and after this date, Rev. David A. Cunningham, Hon. John K. Findlay, Archibald McIntyre, James T. Young, Robert Cornelius, and H. Lenox Hodge, M.D., cease to be Trustees, and, in their place, Hon. William Strong, Hon. Joseph Allison, Alexander Whilldin, Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., William G. Crowell, and John C. Farr, are appointed Trustees of the Corporation, entitled "The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Committee on Mileage presented their report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage beg leave to report:

That, in pursuance of the instructions of the Assembly, they have kept separate accounts of the Commissioners' Funds of the late Old and New School Branches of the Church, and have disbursed such funds in accordance with the respective rules of these different Branches.

The items, in detail, of these several accounts, together with the vouchers relating thereto, are herewith submitted, a summary of each being as follows:

FIRST. New School Account.

Receipts, Presbyterial assessments, . . .		$11,702 15
Premium on Gold, ...		3 65
Total, ...		$11,705 80
Disbursements, Commissioners' expenses,	$10,634 63
Incidental Expenses, Stamps, etc., .	3 00	10,637 63
Balance, ...		$1,068 17

SECOND. Old School Account.

Receipts, Presbyterial Contributions, . .		$1184 63
Disbursements, repaid to Presbyteries as ordered by the Assembly, . .	$371 35
Mileage, 75,676 miles, at 1 cent per mile, .	756 76	1128 11
Balance, ...		$56 52

And, in connection with, and explanation of, these accounts, your Committee would present the following facts and figures:

First. In relation to the New School Branch:—Of one hundred and thirteen Presbyteries, one hundred and six have paid their assessments in full. Five have failed in part, their names, assessments, and deficiencies being as follows:

	Assessment.	Deficiency.
Champlain, ...	$160 09	$69 22
Chicago, ...	242 62	47 62
Lyons, ...	135 33	20 33
Meadville, ...	77 84	22 84
Onondaga, ...	171 15	82 42

And two Presbyteries have failed entirely, namely:

Chariton, assessed for $27.09, and Watertown, assessed for $126.42.

The former of these, Chariton, does not appear to be represented in the Assembly. The latter, Watertown, is represented; but the Commissioners therefrom inform your Committee, that they were directed, by resolution of Presbytery, to pay nothing to, and to receive nothing from, the Mileage Committee.

We have thus a deficiency of $395.96, comparatively small, it is true, and $1300 less than that of last year, and doubtless much less than that of any previous year, and yet just $395.96 greater than it ought to be. For, if all the appointed New School Commissioners had attended this Assembly; or, if any considerable contribution to the Contingent Fund had been required from your Committee, their receipts would have been insufficient, and they could not have reported, as they now can, and do, with much satisfaction, that every claim upon them has been paid in full, and a balance yet remains.

Second. In relation to the Old School Branch:—Nine Presbyteries have contributed to this Commissioners' Fund who make no claim upon it. They are as follows:

New-York, ...	$332 00
New-York, 2d, ...	31 00
Philadelphia, ...	40 00
Elizabethtown, ...	20 00
Hudson, ...	15 00
Passaic, ...	30 00
Nassau, ...	25 00
Donegal, ...	25 00
Connecticut, ...	50 00
Total, ...	$568 00

A number of Western Presbyteries made small contributions, but these were returned to them under the direction of the Assembly as already stated. The small balance of this fund was then distributed among such Commissioners as had brought themselves within the rule, they receiving one cent per mile. Subsequently to this distribution, Commissioners from other Presbyteries, both Western and Foreign, made application for mileage. But the balance remaining—$56.52—was so small, that your Committee, unwilling of course to appropriate it to any one or two claimants, to the exclusion of others; and deeming it unwise to portion it out in infinitesimal doses, determined merely to report it to the Assembly, in connection with a statement of the fact, that there are Commissioners here, who have come from far distant Presbyteries, and from poor Presbyteries, hoping and expecting that a part at least of their expenses would be borne or provided for by the Assembly, but unto whom your Committee can render no assistance whatever, having no adequate means. Nor can your Committee suggest any present remedy or relief; they can only express an assurance that the like will never happen again.

And finally, with regard to the future, your Committee would submit the following resolutions, and recommend their adoption:

Resolved, That the presbyterial assessments for the Commissioners' and Contingent Funds, for the General Assembly of the year 1871, be fixed at six cents per capita.

Resolved, That the Presbyteries are hereby instructed to apportion their assessments among their various churches, to notify each church of the amount required therefrom, and to enjoin upon and require of each session the prompt collection thereof.

Resolved, That hereafter the Assembly will expect and require from each Presbytery represented therein, excepting foreign Presbyteries, the payment in full of its entire assessment, according to its last preceding report of membership, irrespective of any delinquencies on the part of particular churches.

It was also resolved,

That the bills for the necessary traveling expenses of the members of the several Joint Committees of the N. S. General Assembly of 1869, respectively, be audited and paid from the balance in hand of the N. S. Commissioners' Fund. Also, that the bills for printing and stationery of the several Joint Committees of the two Assemblies be audited and paid from the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly.

It was thereupon

Resolved, That this Assembly give thanks to Messrs. Louis Chapin and S. T. Freeman, of the Mileage Committee, for the eminently faithful and satisfactory manner in which they have discharged their exceedingly arduous duties, made increasingly so by the fact that their associate was providentially hindered from serving with them.

The unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, was resumed.

Pending the consideration of which,

The action of the Assembly, adopting the Report of the Joint Committee on Home Missions, was reconsidered, and the number of members of the Board changed from twenty (20) to fifteen (15), and the number of Corresponding Secretaries from one (1) to two (2).

Whereupon

The Rev. Henry Kendall, D.D., and the Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D.D., were by acclamation elected Corresponding Secretaries, and Mr. Samuel D. Powel, Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions; it being expressly understood, that this was not to be considered as a precedent by any future Assembly.

Whereupon, also, it was unanimously

Resolved, That, in view of the retirement of the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., the venerable Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, the Assembly recognize his able and zealous services, and assure him of our sincere and cordial sympathy, our earnest wish that his life may be spared for continued usefulness in the Church, and our sincere prayer, that the comforts of Christian peace and hope may cheer his declining years.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Home Missions, as amended, was then adopted.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was resumed, and, after full discussion, and amendment, was adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions beg leave to present the following Report and Resolutions:

The Board of Domestic Missions belonging to the late Old School Assembly, and the Committee of Home Missions, the organ of the late New School Assembly, have each presented its report for our inspection.

Your Committee have examined both Reports with deep interest, and have been much gratified with this review of the progress of the work during the past year, and with the prospect of increased usefulness which opens before us in the future.

The results of the past year are as follows: The Board of Domestic Missions has been able to maintain in the field 613 missionaries, through whose labors 705 churches and missionary stations have been supplied; 62 new churches have been organized; 3107 members have been received on profession of their faith, 2229 on certificate, and 510 Sabbath-schools have been sustained.

To support this work, the available resources of the Board (including the current receipts and the balance on hand at the close of the last year), amount to $188,444.47. Subtracting from this sum $123,406.88 (the amount of payments for the support of the work), we have left in the treasury a credit balance of $65,037.59.

In explanation of this large balance, it is stated in the report that the receipts of the churches during the summer months are small, and that it is necessary to accumulate a good working balance to secure the prompt payment of the missionaries, and to prevent the necessity of paying interest on borrowed money for several months of the year.

This explanation is in a measure satisfactory; yet, as the balance seems unnecessarily large, and as it has accumulated two years in succession, the Committee is constrained to say that, in their judgment, it is not expedient for any of our Boards to close the year with a large balance in hand; and would recommend that, in view of the importance of liberality to the missionaries, the appropriations be so regulated as not to reserve in the treasury more funds than are absolutely necessary to meet the current demands of those months in which the income of the Board is small.

The Report of the Committee of Home Missions also gives evidence of vigorous and successful work.

The receipts of the treasury, adding a small balance in hand at the close of the last year, amount to $185,617.72. The year closes with a credit balance of $9194.19.

Combining these statistics, and assuming the figures of the present year as the data from which to calculate our future progress, we have reason to anticipate from the union of these two Boards the largest and most satisfactory results.

With an available income of upward of $300,000, and with more than 1100 missionaries already in the field, and with the new spirit of zeal and liberality enkindled in the churches by the union, we may reasonably expect a rapid enlargement of the work in all the Presbyteries, and a gratifying extension of our Cause in the great field opening upon the Western frontier.

Your Committee are pleased to find, that the Committee of Home Missions have been employing theological students, during their summer vacations, in carrying forward the work in waste places—a policy which was recommended by the last General Assembly to the Board of Domestic Missions.

We have also read with pleasure the policy of the Committee of Home Missions, in reference to the liberal sustentation of the missionaries.

The following extract from the Report we strongly commend, as expressive of the future policy of the Board:

"There was an obvious propriety that we should insure those whom we sent into the field against suffering. We first guaranteed them $600 and their necessary traveling expenses; and, as prices advanced, we were compelled to advance the rate per annum $200 more. We found in the field at first many who, for want of adequate support, could not give themselves wholly to their ministry. Some were teachers, many were farmers, and in consequence many of them were non-resident stated supplies. We have believed it a better policy, and the only true economy, to pay the laborer more, so that we could command his entire services."

In view of these facts and statements, we recommend to the Assembly the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That we approve the work of both Boards during the past year; that we commend the efficiency and competency of their management; and direct that both Reports be published as usual, and circulated among the churches.

Resolved, 2. That to encourage young men to enlist in the work of Home Missions, and to promote the efficiency of those already in the field, the Board be directed to pursue such a policy to the missionaries as will secure to them a competent support, and free them from worldly cares and avocations.

Resolved, 3. That the attention of the Board be directed to the vast field opening along our Western frontier, and especially to the new towns and cities springing up as if by magic along the line of the railroads of the West, and in the mining regions, and that large region where our churches have been weakened by the unhappy divisions of the past few years; and that we recommend, that every proper effort be made to occupy these points of influence as speedily as possible.

Resolved, 4. That the appointment of district missionaries shall be on the nomination, or with the approval, of the Synods, in the bounds of which they are to labor.

Resolved, 5. That, while the happy consummation of the union gives increased strength in the prosecution of this great work, it at the same time furnishes new motives and encouragements to go forward with increasing zeal, and with a brighter hope of being able to occupy every point of influence in this vast country in the name of the Master.

Resolved, 6. That in view of the fact, that an astonishingly large number of churches are still delinquent in their contributions to this Cause, the Presbyteries be enjoined, at each spring meeting, to make diligent inquiry into the causes of this delinquency, and to use every effort to stimulate the churches to a larger method of liberality, and the Synods be directed to inquire whether the Presbyteries have performed this duty.

Resolved, 7. That the retiring class of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions be nominated for reëlection.

Resolved, 8. That the retiring class of the Board of Domestic Missions be, also, nominated for reëlection.

Resolved, 9. That the terms of service of all the members of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions shall end, with the first regular monthly meeting of the Committee after the dissolution of this Assembly, and that the following persons be nominated to fill the places thus vacated:

Ministers.	Elders.
George L. Prentiss, D.D.,	Edward A. Lambert,
John Hall, D.D.,	Jacob D. Vermilye,
Thomas S. Hastings, D.D.,	George W. Lane,
Jonathan F. Stearns, D.D.,	Thomas C. M. Paton,
William C. Roberts,	Joseph F. Joy,
Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D.,	Aaron B. Belknap,
William H. Hornblower, D.D.	John Taylor Johnston,
	George R. Lockwood.

The election was appointed for this afternoon.

The Committee on the Narrative of Religion, presented their Report, which, having been read and amended, was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Standing Committee on Freedmen, was taken from the docket. After full discussion, the Majority Report, having been amended, was adopted, as follows:

The Committee, to whom were referred the Reports of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, and of the Permanent Committee of Home Missions relating to the Freedmen's Department, would respectfully submit the following Report, viz.:

Your Committee have examined the various papers submitted by the Assembly, and have become profoundly interested in the great work which was referred to them. The spirit and intention of the Church in this great mission are indicated, in the various actions taken by both the Assemblies, reaching through many years, as well as by the energy and success with which the work has been conducted during the last twelve months. Your Committee are also deeply impressed with the growing importance of this work, as to its results upon our national safety, the Freedmen themselves, and the ultimate evangelization of that race in their native country. This importance is magnified, both by the success secured by the Church in this work, and by the position in which the Freedmen are found by the progress of events.

We find, from the papers placed in our hands, that the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen report the receipt of $49,029.10 during the year; and the expenditure of $42,668.79, leaving a balance, in the treasury, of $6360.31; and that, of the amount received, $7597.19 were contributed by the Freedmen themselves. The Committee have had under their care during the year 157 missionaries, of whom 105 were of the African race. They report 69 churches under their care, with 5264 communicants; also, 76 schools, with 5220 pupils; the whole number of churches erected, 57; and other buildings for schools, academies, and manses, 28. The present estimated value of the whole is $66,680.

The work of this Committee, in the last four years, has increased in the following ratio: The number of missionaries has been more than doubled; the number of schools, Sabbath-schools, and pupils, under the care of these churches, has increased threefold, and the number of communicants tenfold.

The Department of Freedmen, connected with the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, reports, that their work was conducted during the last year by 13 missionaries and 185 teachers. The pupils, in the 93 schools taught by these teachers, number nearly 4000. The receipts from all sources were $37,172.72. The disbursements have been $45,770.53, leaving a balance against the Committee of Home Missions of $8597.81. The balance in the hands of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen is $6360.31. Combining these two Reports, there is still a balance against the work of $2237.50. The Report relates, that some of the members of the Committee at New-York have become personally responsible for a large part of their deficiency.

Uniting the other items of the two Agencies, we find the whole amount raised for the Freedmen the last year to be, $86,201.82; the whole amount disbursed, $88,439.32; the whole number of missionaries and teachers, 355, and the whole number of pupils, 9220.

While these facts indicate the great success attending this work among the poor, the constant desire, by the people, for the privileges of the church and school, the fact that they are elevated to the full rights of citizenship, and the rapid removal of the prejudices which arose from their former condition and their relations to the white race, would seem to urge upon the Church a larger and more efficient effort for their elevation and Christianization.

At every step of their investigation, your Committee have found their convictions deepening, that our Church is called to a bold and vigorous agency in behalf of this people. Their faith in God, their patient waiting for deliverance, their gratitude for favors, their forgiveness of injuries, their fidelity to the government, all make reprisals upon our sympathy and efforts.

God has brought them out of Egypt; and, though they are yet in the wilderness, they have their faces toward the promised land. Poor they are, indeed, but already feeling the spring of individual enterprise; many of them ignorant, yet eager for knowledge; rude, yet ready to adopt every improvement in their social condition; superstitious and low in their religious life, yet with hearts to vibrate to the truth, and hands stretched out to God. Too exclusively accustomed only to the religion of the passions, they now demand a faith that shall enforce morality, and a gospel not divorced from the law of God. Their very freedom necessitates their elevation. Without this, they fall a prey to intemperance, religious deception, and political chicanery; and, if our Church shall fail to come up to the help of the Lord in elevating this people, we shall have reason to fear his frown.

The present posture of this work in the hands of these different agencies is such, that it must be pressed forward. To hesitate, or to abate our zeal and energy, would involve the loss of much that has been done. None of the churches, and few of the schools, are at present self-sustaining. The peculiar character of the work, as developed in its prosecution thus far, and the direct and efficient supervision which is necessary in all its departments, would seem to decide that a separate agency should be continued for its vigorous prosecution. This opinion is confirmed by the fact, that the Joint Committee appointed by the last Assembly on Consolidation, have reported in favor of a separate Board.

In view, therefore, of all the papers submitted, and of the whole subject, as we have been able to examine it, your Committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, to wit:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, and the Freedmen's Department of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, and their Secretaries, are hereby commended for their fidelity and energy in the prosecution of the work committed to their charge; that their Reports be printed for circulation in the churches; and that they be directed to continue the work until the reorganization is completed.

Resolved, 2. That the work of the Presbyterian Church for the colored race in this country, including both their religious and educational interests, shall be conducted by a Committee, to be located in the city of Pittsburgh, Pa., to be known by the name, style, and title of "The Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen;" and that this Committee shall consist of twelve members, of whom five shall be a quorum, to meet on their own adjournment.

Resolved, 3. That this Committee be directed to organize on Thursday, June 16th, at 3 o'clock P.M., in the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian Church of Pittsburgh, Pa., and that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be directed to give official notice to the members of their election.

Vacancies occurring in this Committee, by resignation or otherwise, may be filled by the Committee, (until the meeting of the next Assembly), at any regular meeting, of which election due notice has been given.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, and the Freedmen's Department of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, are hereby directed, on the organization of this Committee, or at as early a time as can be done safely, to transfer to the Committee of Missions for Freedmen all papers, documents, moneys, and properties then in their hands, or under their control, pertaining to the work; and further, these organizations are continued as at present constituted, for the purpose of receiving and paying over to the Committee of Missions for Freedmen all moneys which may come into their hands for this work, by legacy or otherwise.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly recommend to the Boards of the Church, to coöperate with the Committee of Missions for Freedmen in conducting its work.

Resolved, 6. That, in view of the fact that only one third of our churches contributed to this Cause during the past year, each Presbytery be required to appoint a committee of one, whose duty it shall be, by correspondence or otherwise, to see that this Cause is brought before each church for its generous contribution.

To conclude: In the judgment of your Committee, the great need of the Freedmen to-day is a supply of competent preachers and teachers, raised up from among themselves. For help in this matter, we look with hope to Lincoln University, at Oxford, Pa.; to Biddle Memorial Institute, at Charlotte, N. C.; to the Normal School of Winchester, Va.; and to other similar institutions established by our Church. We urge especially the necessity of providing schools, where females may enjoy advantages that may enable them to keep pace with the other sex, in intellectual and moral elevation.

The Committee beg leave to nominate the following persons, to constitute the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen:

Ministers.	Laymen.
James Allison, D.D.,	Joseph Albree,
Samuel J. Wilson, D.D.,	John C. McComb,
John Gillespie,	Robert C. Totten,
Peter S. Davies,	Oliver McClintock,
Frederick A. Noble,	James B. Lyon,
Elliot E. Swift.	George B. Logan.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Publication was taken from the docket, and considered in part.

Pending the consideration,

Invitations to visit the Strawberry Festival of the Pennsylvania Industrial Home for Blind Women, and the Studio of Rothermel, the Artist, were received, and accepted with thanks.

Adjourned until 3½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, June 3d, 3½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee reported an Appeal and Complaint of Rev. Dr. John W. Martin, against the action of the Presbytery of Allegheny City, for alleged irregularity in dissolving a Pastoral relation: Also, an Appeal and Complaint of Dr. Martin against the Synod of Allegheny, in reference to its approval of the minutes of the Presbytery alleged to be defective: Also, an Appeal from the Synod of Southern Iowa, in the case of Robert Fulton: with the statement, in each of these cases, that the papers were not placed in the hands of the Assembly within the constitutional time; and, therefore, they recommended, that the appellants have leave to withdraw the papers.

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures offered the following Resolutions, which were adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That the General Assembly acknowledges the invitation of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Bible Society, to visit their rooms; that we are happy to learn that the Society, the first instituted in the United States for the distribution of the Scriptures, owes its origin largely to the fathers of our Church; and that we renew the frequent recommendations of former General Assemblies to our congregations to coöperate zealously with Bible Societies in their benevolent and Christian work.

Resolved, That the Delegation to Foreign Corresponding Bodies be instructed to open a correspondence with the Established Church of Scotland, and with the Presbyterian Bodies on the Continent.

The nomination of the Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, Jr., D.D., as Professor in the Theological Seminary of the North-West, was, by consent of the Assembly, withdrawn.

The following Resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated and Permanent Clerks be appointed a Committee to consider and propose a plan, with reference to a daily report of the proceedings of the General Assembly, and report to the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the several Boards of Committees, appointed by the Assembly, report annually to the Assembly, the number of meetings held during the year, and the number of meetings which each member of said Board or Committee has attended.

The Reports of the Rev. Robert Davidson, D.D., one of the Delegates to the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, and the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland; of the Rev. E. P. Pratt, D.D., the Delegate to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America; and of the Rev. Z. M. The unfinished business, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Joint Committee on Publication, was resumed.

Pending which, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M. Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, June 3d, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

The following Preamble and Resolution were adopted:

Whereas, There is a provision in the Charter of the Highland University, located at Highland, Kansas, giving to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church control of that Institution, whenever the Assembly see fit to comply with the provisions of the 5th section of the Charter, which reads thus:

"If at any time the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States should see fit to take the charge and oversight of the affairs of this Corporation, they shall and hereby have full power so to do, by appointing in part, or in full, a Board of Trustees, who shall have full right and power to go forward with the business of the Corporation according to the provisions of this Charter":

And, Whereas, The University is at present under the control of the Synod of Kansas, O. S.:

And, Whereas, It is desirable, in the reconstruction of the Synods in Kansas, to know whether or not the General Assembly intends to assume control of the University:

Therefore, Resolved, That this Assembly does not intend to assume its charter-right and take control of the Highland University, but prefers to leave that Institution under the care of the Synod of Kansas, with the indorsement of the Board of Education, which can more properly foster it, and bring it before the united Church for sympathy and aid.

Certain documents pertaining to the Scottish Sustentation Fund were presented by the Delegates from the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, which were accepted with thanks, and referred to the Committees on Finance and Sustentation.

The attention of the Board of Publication, also, was called to these documents, with a view to their publication, if found to be of general interest.

The unfinished business, viz., the Report of the Joint Committee on Publication, was resumed, and, after amendment, was adopted, as follows, viz.:

The Special Committee of Five from each of the recent Branches of the Church, appointed "to take into consideration the affairs" of the Publication Board and Committee of said Branches, and "to recommend to the Assembly of the united Church, what changes are required" in said Board and Committee, respectfully report:

That they have endeavored to give the matter referred to them that earnest and prayerful consideration which its importance demands.

They regard the work of the Church to be prosecuted through this agency as scarcely second to that of any of our Boards. It is not only closely related to our missionary enterprises, but is itself, in many of its aspects, a missionary work. Its aim is the dissemination of vital truth, both among congregations already established, and among the people who are never reached by the heralds of salvation. It is at once auxiliary to the ministry, and of itself a ministry. Every tract is, or should be, a message from God. Every Sunday-school book should be a preacher of righteousness.

To effect this work involves a liberal use of money, of mind, and of every resource committed by God to human hands.

The first necessity is a central House of Publication; which should be endowed with every appliance needed for the preparation and the diffusion of religious literature. Economy, of course, should be studied. It is not, in our view, essential that large sums be invested in the machinery of publication, such as presses and binderies. The use of this machinery can be commanded without purchase. But it is essential, that a proper house be provided for the transaction of the business of this agency, and for the issue and circulation of its literature. The buildings erected for this purpose, and now under the control of the Assembly, are wholly inadequate. Both are small and ill-arranged. Neither has been found sufficient for the wants of the Church as divided; the work before the Church as united will be vastly greater than has ever yet been attempted. It is believed, also, that, so far as possible, all the operations of the united Church, conducted from Philadelphia, should be concentrated under one roof. The House of Publication should be virtually a Presbyterian House, a centre and a home for the denomination; a rallying-point for all the interests of the Church, which the Assembly in its wisdom may localize in this city. The advantages of such a concentration in facilitating the transaction of the business of the Church, in promoting the general convenience, and in fostering a proper denominational life and spirit, are too obvious to require remark. But to effect this, a new and extensive building must be erected; and it is believed, that the recognition of this necessity, by the Assembly, will so enlist the sympathy of the Church, as to secure the ready accomplishment of the plan submitted in the subjoined resolutions.

The second necessity is an efficient Board and proper Officers. The Board should be constituted, we believe, of a comparatively small number of thoroughly practical, wise, and energetic men, all of whom can be relied upon to attend the meetings of the Board, and to devote their personal attention to its operations. This number should be larger than may be required by the other Boards of the Church, inasmuch as its work will necessitate several sub-committees. It should be also somewhat larger than may be required by the constitution of these sub-committees, in order that vacancies in the committees themselves may be readily filled by men of experience; and in order that perplexing questions may be submitted to the wisdom of a full council; yet the number should not be so large as to weaken a sense of individual responsibility.

Experience has proved that a few men, each of whom can be easily reached, all of whom have a vital interest in the trusts confided to them, will perform any given labor more efficiently than a large Board, whose members are so diffused as to be seldom collected, or as to forget the claims of a duty whose immediate field is far away.

The Officers of this Board should be men adapted to their sphere, carefully selected, in number sufficient to conduct the business placed in their hands, and so remunerated that they can devote their entire time and energies to the work. The Board should also be empowered to employ such other assistants as in their judgment may be required.

The third necessity is the maintenance of a force of Colporteurs sufficiently large to reach the outlying population of the land by the Gospel, and to prepare the way for the establishment of churches wherever they may be made permanent and effectual. Provision should also be made for the supply of Sunday-school libraries and of the general literature of the Board, on the liberal terms of an enlarged Christian benevolence.

The fulfillment of these conditions will be found to require some changes, notwithstanding the admirable manner in which this work has been conducted hitherto. Our beloved Church has already accomplished so much in the direction indicated, that we can refer to its past operations with just thanksgiving; but, while we think no great and radical changes in this department of our Christian work are desirable, the day has now come for an enlargement of all our plans—a fresh and more vigorous movement in the development of a spirit of enterprise for Christ.

God's promises were always full. His providence now calls us to new faith in the promises, and to a new consecration to that work with which the fulfillment of the sure and glorious prophecy is associated.

We, therefore, respectfully recommend the adoption, by this General Assembly, of the following resolutions as comprehending the changes, in our judgment, required, in order to the union and reorganization of the Presbyterian Board of Publication and the Presbyterian Publication Committee, viz.:

Resolved, 1. The said Board and Committee are hereby united under the name and title of the "Presbyterian Board of Publication."

2. The said Board shall henceforth be composed of forty-eight members, one half of whom shall be ministers and one half laymen. These members shall be divided into three classes; one class containing eight ministers and eight laymen, after the present year to be elected annually by the General Assembly for a term of three years.

3. In order to an immediate and thorough reorganization of the Board, all persons now members of the Board and the Committee are discontinued, and their membership ceases, and the following persons, taken in equal numbers from each of the late Branches, are recommended to fill the three classes:

Ministers.	Laymen.
For the class whose term shall expire in May, 1871:
Alexander Reed, D.D.,	Henry E. Thomas,
J. Grier Ralston, D.D.,	John Sibley,
Robert M. Patterson,	James T. Young,
Thomas Murphy,	H. Lenox Hodge, M.D.,
Peter Stryker, D.D.,	Edward R. Hutchins, M.D.,
Stephen W. Dana,	William L. Hildeburn,
Richard H. Allen, D.D.,	William E. Camp,
William T. Eva.	Horatio B. Lincoln.
For the class whose term shall expire in May, 1872:
George F. Wiswell, D.D.,	George W. Simons,
John W. Dulles,	Joseph Allison, LL.D.,
Daniel March, D.D.,	Henry M. Paul,
H. Augustus Smith,	Edward Miller,
Willard M. Rice, D.D.,	James Ross Snowden,
F. Reck Harbaugh,	John D. McCord,
Matthew B. Grier, D.D.,	Gilbert Combs,
Matthew Newkirk.	Gustavus S. Benson.
For the class whose term shall expire in May, 1873:
William P. Breed, D.D.,	Morris Patterson,
William E. Schenck, D.D.,	Winthrop Sargent,
David A. Cunningham,	Archibald McIntyre,
Benjamin L. Agnew,	George Junkin,
Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D.,	Samuel C. Perkins,
William E. Moore,	William E. Tenbrook,
Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.,	Robert N. Wilson,
Herrick Johnson, D.D.	Alexander Whilldin.

4. The said Board shall hold at least four regular meetings in the course of each year, in the months of June, October, January, and April. Its first meeting shall be held at 821 Chestnut street, at four o'clock P.M., on the second Tuesday of June of the present year.

5. The Executive Officers of the Board shall be a Secretary or Secretaries, whose titles and duties shall be defined by the Board; and a Treasurer.

6. All other internal arrangements, necessary for carrying out the purposes of its organization, shall be made by the Board of Publication after its reorganization.

7. Each Presbytery is directed to appoint one or more of its members a Presbyterial Publication Committee; which Committee shall, in that Presbytery, supervise the work of securing an annual collection for this Board from each of its churches; shall search out and recommend to the Board suitable persons to act as colporteurs; shall correspond with the Board in reference to its work in that Presbytery, and shall do whatever else may tend to promote the work and interests of the Board, and to secure a thorough distribution of the Board's publications within and throughout the bounds of the Presbytery.

8. All the property, of every kind, now owned by the "Presbyterian Board of Publication," and by the "Presbyterian Publication Committee," or held by any Board of Trustees for the use and benefit of either of them, is hereby directed to be united, and placed in possession of "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication," incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, and whose charter was approved by the Governor of that State on the 13th day of February, A.D. 1847. And, in order that the late two Branches of the Presbyterian Church, now happily re-united, may have, as nearly as possible, an equal representation in said Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication (there now being enough vacancies by death and resignation to effect the changes proposed), the Board of Publication is directed, at its next meeting in the month of June, to elect the following persons to be members of this Board of Trustees:

For one Year—Alexander Whilldin, Samuel C. Perkins, Archibald McIntire.

For two Years—Morris Patterson, William E. Tenbrook.

For three Years—George Junkin, James Ross Snowden, and Robert N. Wilson.

9. The "Trustees of the Presbyterian House" are hereby directed to convey, by a good and sufficient legal title, to "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication," the house and lot, Nos. 1334 and 1336 Chestnut street, now occupied by the Presbyterian Publication Committee in part as a book-store, and any other property now in their possession, or which may hereafter come into their possession, for the use of the Presbyterian Publication Committee. And should any legal difficulties be found in the way of making such a conveyance or transfer, then "The Trustees of the Presbyterian House" and "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Board of Publication" are hereby directed to procure, as speedily as possible, such special enactments from the Legislature of this State, or decrees of any courts of competent jurisdiction, as shall remove those difficulties.

10. The General Assembly recommends the Board of Publication, as soon as practicable after its reorganization, to sell its house and lot, No. 821 Chestnut street, and to provide a larger house, adequate to its now extended operations, and to the prospective growth of its business, on the premises Nos. 1334 and 1336 Chestnut street, or in that vicinity.

11. In order that the above recommendation may be carried out, so as to provide ample accommodations for the Board's future business, and for all other Presbyterian interests in this city, it is recommended, that the sum of one hundred thousand dollars be raised among our churches and people for the erection and equipment of said Presbyterian House, and all contributions made thereto shall be recognized as a part of the offering of five millions of dollars, which it was at Pittsburgh resolved to raise.

12. All the Committees and officers of the Board of Publication, and of the Publication Committee, are requested to continue to perform their respective duties as at present, until otherwise directed by the newly organized Board of Publication.

13. The Board of Publication, and the Publication Committee, are directed to submit, to the next General Assembly, and each year thereafter, a full statement of the property of said Boards, consisting of real estate, copy-rights, books, paper, plates, and any other assets, with an estimate of the value thereof.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Church Erection was taken from the docket, considered, and adopted, as follows:

At a meeting of the Committee, held in the Central Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, February 23d, 1870, eight of the ten members chosen by the Assemblies were present; viz., Rev. Henry R. Wilson, D.D., George W. Lane, Rev. O. A. Hill, Rev. C. H. Taylor, D.D., J. C. Havens, J. L. Williams, Samuel T. Bodine, Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D.

In entering on their work, the Committee found, that the trusteeship of the Church Erection Fund was a chartered institution, formed under the laws of the State of New-York, and possessed of a permanent fund of $126,000, more or less, of which about $90,000 were invested in interest-bearing securities in the State of New-York, and the remainder in various liabilities given by feeble churches which had been aided. They also learned that, in accordance with certain amendments of the Plan passed by the General Assembly which met at St. Louis, in 1866, the system of loans had been abandoned, and a so-called Supplementary Fund created, to consist of the yearly interest of the Permanent Fund, together with such sums as should be raised by the annual contributions of the churches—all of which, in absolute donations, to be devoted to the current demands of the work. This Board of Trustees, having charge of both the Permanent and the Supplementary Fund, by the terms of the Charter, consists of nine members residing in New-York, or its vicinity, and are elected in classes from year to year, by the General Assembly, according to the chartered rules prescribed.

On the other hand, the Committee learned, that the Board of Church Extension, having its centre of operations in St. Louis, Mo., was without a charter, and without permanent funds, holding only current receipts appropriated and unappropriated, together with certain temporary investments in real estate; that the said Board of Church Extension was, therefore, free from any legal obstacles, which might prevent a change, either of location or of name, or stand in the way of its being united under the Charter of the organized and localized Board of Church Erection.

In view of these considerations the Joint Committee do respectfully and unanimously recommend:

(1.) That the operations of the United Church be carried on under the Charter of "The Trustees of the Church Erection Fund of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America;" and that its location be continued in the city of New-York.

(2.) That the members of the Board be chosen impartially from both branches of the Church; that their number be twenty-one, consisting of ten ministers and eleven laymen, acting in connection with the Presbyterian Church; and that the entire Board so formed be expected to meet at least once each year.

(3.) That fifteen members, seven ministers and eight laymen, shall reside in the city of New-York, or its vicinity; that, at an early day, an amendment of the Charter be obtained, authorizing these fifteen local members to act as Trustees of the Fund; but, until such change shall be secured, nine of the fifteen members shall continue to hold the said Trusteeship under the provisions now existing.

(4.) That six members of the Board, three ministers and three laymen, shall be chosen from the West. This recommendation is made, in view of the fact, that certain properties, held by the Board of Church Extension, are temporarily located in Missouri, and require a local supervision. It also seems desirable, that the Board shall have representatives on the ground, who may secure those grants of land, which are so freely offered, for church purposes, by railroad and town companies throughout the West; also, to have special oversight in the matter of insurance on church properties—a matter of great importance, in which it is feared there is at present great neglect.

(5.) That a Secretary be appointed, who shall reside in New-York, and whose functions shall be similar to those of the present Secretaries of Church Erection and Church Extension. Also, that the Board shall have authority to appoint an additional Secretary, and define his duties.

(6.) While the Committee appreciate, and would earnestly encourage, all local efforts to build churches and chapels, in the cities, and in Presbyteries, by special contributions, they unanimously recommend, that the Assembly take the most efficient measures, to secure an annual contribution from all the churches, for the general work of the Board. The suburbs of our large cities must be cared for; but, at the same time, the demands of the great wastes of the continent are most imperative upon the whole Church.

In conclusion, the Committee would express the hope, that this department of the Church work, so fundamental to all permanent success, may be brought into greater prominence, and receive a larger degree of favor and support. It should be not merely a passive resource, to which the needy may resort for a stinted dole, but a powerful aggressive agency, arousing and stimulating the Church to substantial conquest everywhere, in the cities, on the prairies, along the railroads, and on the far-off shores of the Pacific. In view of the fact, that legal questions might arise in connection with some of the points in this report, Messrs. S. T. Bodine and J. C. Havens were appointed to consult legal authorities thereupon, and report to the Committee at a subsequent meeting.

The Committee then adjourned to meet in the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, during the sessions of the General Assembly.

At a conference of certain members of the Joint Committee, held in Philadelphia, since the sessions of the General Assembly began, a quorum not being present, Mr. Samuel T. Bodine reported that he had consulted proper authorities in regard to legal points in the above report, and had obtained the following opinions:

(1.) That the Church Erection Fund, located, by Charter, in the State of New-York, would be embarrassed, if not imperiled, by any change in the place of business.

(2.) That, at an early day, steps should be taken to secure a change in the Charter, raising the number of trustees from nine to twenty-one, of whom five shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(3.) That fifteen of the twenty-one members of the Board, namely, seven ministers and eight elders, should reside in the city of New-York or its vicinity.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection was taken from the docket, considered, and adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection respectfully report to the General Assembly: That, in examining the operations of the Board of Church Extension, and of the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund, for the past year, they have been impressed with the importance of bringing the whole work and administration of these agencies into the closest possible connection with the Board of Home Missions. The building of church edifices, and the sending forth of the missionary, are, in our newly-settled and sparsely-settled regions, coördinate parts of one great work. The planting of churches is well-nigh impossible without both; and we believe, that the apostolic example teaches us, that only by the planting of churches is the kingdom of Christ appropriately extended. The same men should direct the activity of these two Departments of the Home work; the same men should carry out the plans of the direction in the field as local agents; and the same men should receive and distribute the gifts of the Church for these twin Causes.

In making these suggestions to the General Assembly, your Committee would not lead the Assembly to infer, that any want of harmony has existed between these two intimately-related branches of Church effort in the past. They have been administered in perfect accord by faithful brethren. But we need more than harmony; we need identity in the management of these interlacing interests, facilitating both and conducing to economy of resources.

First. Your Committee recognize the fact, that the pastors of the churches are the collecting agents of the Church Erection treasury; and propose that the General Assembly reiterate its will, that every Presbytery should have its Standing Committee on Church Erection, whose duty it should be to notify each session of their responsibility, and to see that a collection for the Cause is annually taken up in each church. It will be noted from this recommendation, that while your Committee urge the unification of the Boards, they would have the Causes presented separately to the churches, as consistent with the largest pecuniary support.

Second. They recommend the insertion of a clause in each deed of property to the trustees of a church, or a legal condition effected in each gift of money, by which clause or condition the insurance of the building shall be guaranteed, and the policy held by the Board for the recovery of the amount of their gift in case of fire.

Third. They call the attention of the Assembly to the fact, that the churches have given to Church Extension in their own localities, without reporting their gifts to the General Assembly. Believing that no just idea is thus given to the Assembly of the actual donations of the Church in this direction, we recommend, that the churches be requested to report distinctively to the Church Erection Board all such gifts, that the evangelizing activity of the whole Church may be more correctly estimated.

In making these recommendations to the General Assembly, your Committee need not emphasize the importance of a work, which is so well understood and appreciated by every minister of the Gospel. Other things being equal, the spread of truth, in pure Presbyterian form, will be proportionate to the number of edifices that we may erect for the worship of God and the preaching of his word. The church edifice is the material nucleus, around which the spiritual elements gather and take on their permanent shape. If any comparison may be made, it is more important to secure the church edifice (in the present condition of our frontier, with its rapidly-increasing population and its rapidly-increasing land prices) than it is to secure the missionary himself. We may provide the missionary next year, but with the land for a Church it is " now or never." We know that we shall find an echo in the mind of every member of this Assembly, when we assert that the $100,000 received last year for this interest is a meagre pittance for a Cause so vast and pressing, from a Church that numbers nearly half a million of communicants. It is hoped that the convictions of the heart will make every minister eloquent before his people, in behalf of this so important and yet slighted interest of the Church. And may the great Head of the Church guide us in our duty.

Whereupon, it was

Resolved, That the Board of Church Extension be continued, in order to close up its unfinished business, and that J. H. Brown, D.D., J. R. Warner, J. A. Paige, and J. M. Smith, ministers, with Messrs. James Lenox, Alexander Stuart, Lincoln Clark, and James M. Ray, laymen, be reëlected, to serve until the work intrusted to this Board be transferred to the new Board, as constituted by this General Assembly.

The Resolutions reported by the Committee on the Heidelberg Catechism, were adopted, as follows, viz.:

1. Resolved, That this General Assembly recognizes, in the Heidelberg Catechism, a valuable scriptural compendium of Christian doctrine and duty.

2. Resolved, That if any churches desire to employ the Heidelberg Catechism in the instruction of their children, they may do so with the approbation of this Assembly.

3. Resolved, That this Assembly cordially rejoices at the continued and increasing evidences of agreement and union, among those whose symbols maintain in common the faith once delivered to the saints.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, June 4th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Overtures, Nos. 22 and 23, relating to a Female Seminary in Kentucky, were taken from the docket, and referred to a Committee, consisting of the Rev. W. P. Breed, D.D., Hon. James Pollock, and Hon. Robert McKnight, to consider, and report to the next General Assembly.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Publication was resumed, and, after mature consideration, adopted, as follows:

Your Committee are satisfied, that during the past year the "Board of Publication," and the "Presbyterian Publication Committee," have done the work committed to them faithfully and efficiently.

Your Committee appointed sub-committees to examine the Minutes of the Board of Publication for the past year, the Minutes of the Executive Committee of that Board, and the Report of the Presbyterian Publication Committee; and they report that they have found all these in a satisfactory state; and we recommend that the Minutes of the Board of Publication, and of its Executive Committee, be signed, as approved, by the Moderator of the General Assembly.

From the Report of the Board of Publication, we learn, that they have issued fifty new Books, besides many Tracts in the English, German, Portuguese, and Spanish languages—in all, 128,500 copies of new publications; that of former publications they have issued 589,400 copies; and that since its organization the Board has published 15,182,788 copies of Books and Tracts. We are happy to find that the Sabbath-School Visitor has increased in circulation, and that now 156,000 copies are issued monthly. We have to express our regret, that the circulation of the Record has decreased, during the past year, from 16,000 to 12,000 copies. The net value of the whole issues of the Board has been $114,763, and the balance in the treasury at the end of the year, $14,627.

The Presbyterian Publication Committee have issued sixty-nine new publications, of which fifty-four are bound volumes. Since the year 1865, the work of publishing and circulating has been progressing steadily, and the results have been cheering and encouraging.

Special attention has been paid, both by the Board and Committee, to the preparing and issuing of a wholesome and lively Sabbath-school literature, fitted to interest the young, and yet free from the sensational features distinguishing so many of the works written for the use of the young in our day.

While your Committee believe, that the Board of Publication, and the Publication Committee, have done all in their power to fulfil the trust committed to them, they are convinced, at the same time, that they have not been able to accomplish all that is required of them by the pressing wants of the country. We do trust that the newly organized Board of the re-united Church will be so sustained by ministers, Sabbath-school teachers, and congregations, that it will be able to do vastly more than the separated agencies could accomplish.

We find, that the last General Assembly authorized the Presbyterian Publication Committee, "at its discretion, to employ a General Agent to visit the churches and Sabbath-schools, and to bring them into connection with the Committee's work, and devote himself to the cause of Sabbath-school extension, and to the promotion of higher efficiency in our Sabbath-schools generally." In consequence of the prospective re-union of the two great branches of the Presbyterian Church, the Committee did not take positive action on this proposal; but it is clear, that they are deeply impressed with its great importance.

In view of the considerations thus brought before them, your Committee invite the attention of the newly organized Board to the following points:

1. We recommend the Board to give special and prominent attention to Sabbath-school literature and its introduction into Sabbath-schools.

2. We recommend, that the Board, at as early a date as possible, consider the propriety of establishing a Department of Sabbath-Schools, whose office it shall be to promote the number and efficiency of Sabbath-schools, throughout the congregations of the Presbyterian Church.

3. We recommend that the excellent Sabbath-School Visitor be circulated much more widely than it has hitherto been, and that the pastors and churches exert themselves to secure this end.

4. We recommend, that the two publications, the Record and the Presbyterian Monthly, be merged in one, and that measures be devised and adopted, to have that one periodical competently edited, and full of information likely to interest the families of our people.

5. Your Committee are deeply impressed with the importance of the colportage work conducted by the Board, and would strongly urge its extension, as being the means best fitted to make known the truths of salvation to multitudes in our country—as to Roman Catholics, and persons separated from the ordinary means of grace.

6. We recommend, that the Board consider what may be the best means of effecting some understanding as to the issue of Books of Psalmody, and report on the subject to the next General Assembly.

7. Your Committee are happy to find that Books and Tracts have been furnished so generously to ministers, to domestic and foreign missionaries, and to Sabbath-schools; and they recommend that these gifts be continued and increased.

Your Committee have also had under consideration the Sixteenth Annual Report of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and the Report of their Treasurer duly audited.

They find that the term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present session of the Assembly, namely, Samuel H. Perkins, Alexander Whilldin, William E. Tenbrook, Rev. Albert Barnes, and Rev. Ezra E. Adams, D.D.; and they recommend that the foregoing named gentlemen be reëlected Trustees for the term of two years, with the exception of the Rev. Dr. Adams, removed from Philadelphia, in the room of whom they nominate the Rev. David A. Cunningham.

It was unanimously

Resolved, That the Assembly hereby most earnestly remind parents and others of the duty of catechising children and youth, and enjoin this duty upon them, as one whose performance no instruction that children receive in the Sabbath-school or elsewhere, outside the family, can supersede or supply.

It was also

Resolved, That the expenses of the Reconstruction Committees, appointed by the (O. S.) Assembly of 1869, be audited and paid out of the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly.

It was also

Resolved, That the Moderator be added to the Committee of twenty-one, and that he is hereby appointed the Convener and Chairman thereof.

The Moderator then announced the following Committees:

The Committee on the Finances of the Church:
Ministers.—J. T. Backus, D.D., C. C. Beatty, D.D., J. C. Backus, D.D., R. R. Booth, D.D., R. W. Patterson, D.D., H. A. Nelson, D.D., J. O. Murray, D.D., Alexander Reed, D.D., G. C. Heckman, D.D., Howard Crosby, D.D., S. J. Niccolls, D.D.
Elders.—Hon. John Scott, Hon. William Strong, Hon. William E. Dodge, Hon. H. W. Williams, of Pittsburgh, Hon. E. A. Lambert, Robert Carter, Robert M. Oliphant, John Wanamaker, James M. Brawner, George De F. Lord, and John Newland.
The Committee were authorized to fill their own vacancies.

The Committee on the Memorial Fund:
Messrs. Winthrop S. Gilman, J. Crosby Brown, John E. Parsons, Alexander Whilldin, Benjamin F. Butler, Isaac Scarritt, William T. Booth, Archibald McClure, Jr., and George Junkin.

The Committee of Arrangements for the next Assembly:
Rev. Arthur Mitchell, Rev. David C. Marquis, and Messrs. H. E. Seelye, Warren Norton, and J. S. Gould.

The Overture from the Presbytery of Luzerne, respecting the election of Secretaries of the Boards by the Assembly, was taken from the docket, and indefinitely postponed.

The Overture from the Presbytery of Newton, on Consolidation of the Boards, was taken from the docket, and referred to the Committee on the Finances of the Church.

The Report of the Joint Committee on Ministerial Relief was taken from the docket, amended, and adopted as follows:

The Joint Committee appointed to take into consideration the affairs of the Fund for Disabled Ministers and their Families, and of the Ministerial Relief Fund, respectfully report to the Assembly, that they have attended to the duty assigned them, and that they unanimously recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Fund be designated "The Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers."

2. That the "Trustees of the General Assembly" shall, annually, at as early a day as practicable after the rising of the Assembly, elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, and four of their number who, for the present year, shall be a Committee to take charge of the management of this Fund.

3. That the Trustees of the General Assembly be recommended to continue in office the present Secretaries of the two Funds, the one to be the Secretary of the Relief Fund, and the other to be the Treasurer.

4. That the "Trustees of the Presbyterian House," and the "Trustees of the General Assembly," be directed to pay the income accruing from investments held by them respectively for the purposes of this Fund, to the Treasurer of the Relief Fund.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief was also taken from the docket, considered, and adopted as follows:

The Committee appointed to consider the subject of the Ministerial Relief Fund respectfully report; that, from the carefully prepared Annual Reports of those appointed to administer said Fund, in what has been known as the Old and New School branches of the Presbyterian Church, they derive the following facts:

In the New School branch, they have sent relief to all applicants, whose cases had come regularly before them.

During the last year, their receipts from all sources have been $38,879; which is eighty per cent above the amount received the previous year. This increase has resulted mainly from the gift of $25,000 by the late benevolent John C. Baldwin, Esq., of Orange, New-Jersey, given to their Permanent Fund, previous to his decease. Nor is this the only instance of his liberality to this charity. His annual donation amounted to $500, given for current expenses; but, feeling the importance of creating a Permanent Fund, he generously gave this munificent donation toward it.

During the past year, they have aided 34 ministers, 39 widows of deceased clergymen, and 5 families of orphans.

The receipts of the Old School branch of the Church, from April 1st, 1869, to April 1st, 1870 (exclusive of donations and legacies to their Permanent Fund), have been $36,773. Their expenditures for the same period, $38,999; an excess of the expenditures of the preceding year of $10,495; and, on the first of June, 1870, they report a balance in their treasury of $9,112.

There have been 40 new cases placed in the catalogue of recipients of this Fund during the past year; and the whole number assisted during that period, who have been recommended by Presbyteries, or the Standing Committees of Presbyteries, has been 64 ministers and 91 widows, with the orphans of 13 families.

They have received contributions from twenty-six of the Synods of the Old School; and among the donations they acknowledge a remittance from the four churches of Western Africa, one from the church of Choo Foo, in the Presbytery of Shangtung, China, and several from the churches of the Freedmen in the Southern States. Churches feeble in numbers and weak in resources have thus, by their practical benevolence, rebuked the indifference of many, who have contributed nothing toward this Fund, though abundantly able. They have been unable to extend the measure of assistance which the objects of their care had a right to expect, and which we believe the Church is under obligation to extend.

From the Treasurer's Reports of both branches of the Church, it is seen that, in the management of the fiscal concerns of their previously separate Boards, they have practised a rigid economy—a very small percentage of the amounts collected having been expended in conducting their operations. The administration has manifestly been conducted with great carefulness, the patient scrutiny of each particular case being such as to forbid almost the possibility of abuse; thus affording the churches the gratifying assurance, that their benefactions are scrupulously applied to the objects for which they were designed, and commending, to the favorable notice of the Assembly, the efficient Secretaries who have been intrusted with the management of this charity. From the Reports of both branches of the Church, the Committee derive the impression, that this excellent Cause is growing in favor with God's people,—one which has been too long slighted; which has not received the measure of attention it deserves, since it has been brought formally to the notice of the Church; and a proper appreciation of which could not, we think, fail to bring with it a rich blessing to our Zion. It is no less the duty than it is the privilege of the Church, to prosecute a generous policy to her disabled ministers, and the bereaved households of her departed servants. And we can but express the hope, now that God in his good providence has reunited the twin branches of the Presbyterian Church, and the many members have become one body, that a strong, persevering, and united effort will be made, by the divinely united Church, to care promptly and liberally for every enfeebled minister, needy widow, and penniless orphan, who has a just claim, we will not say on their charity, but Christ-like provision.

There is reason to believe, that many more are entitled to this help from this Fund, than have applied for assistance; and the probability is, their number will continue to increase.

Modesty, delicacy, and the consciousness of the limited ability of those intrusted with the management and disbursement of this Fund, have kept many from making their wants known. They have suffered in silence. This should be prevented. The Church, by her manifested and publicly proclaimed sympathy in all such cases, should invite and encourage a recital of their wants and sorrows; and, by her liberality, make them feel, that, in receiving help from this Fund, they are not regarded as objects of charity, but as the members of the sacramental host.

Let the gift of money to this Fund be placed among our thank-offerings to God for what he has wrought for us; and the noble example of one of the most beloved and honored Commissioners in this Assembly be copied, who gave to this Fund the first $1000 known to have been given as a thank-offering for the union of the several branches of the Presbyterian Church. In the language, embodied in one of the Reports before us, alluding to the same fact, he says, "May it prove to be only the first-fruits of a liberal endowment of this Fund, by the hearty coöperation of the whole Church."

The Committee would respectfully suggest, to the General Assembly, the propriety of recommending, to those who may be appointed to take the oversight of this Fund for the future, to increase materially the sum hitherto appropriated to individual applicants. What the majority now upon the list of its beneficiaries receive is not, cannot be, even with the most rigid economy, an adequate support. It can do but little more than supplement the help derived from other sources, or leave them, as many of these have been left, to suffer.

Who more deserving of the Church's tenderest care and constant sympathy, than men worn out with toil in the ministry, and the widows and orphans of such as have lived and labored to impart the true riches to others, while they themselves have died destitute of worldly good? Let an appeal go forth on this subject to all our churches. Make them acquainted with facts, which have saddened every heart familiar with them; the bare recital of which could not fail to give expansion to the benevolence of those already interested in this noble Cause; and which must awaken the tender solicitude, and secure a helping hand from those now indifferent to it, because the matter has never as yet, in many cases, been properly set before the people by the pastors of the churches.

We esteem him a generous, merciful man, who makes provision for his domestic animals which have served him with fidelity for a score of years. The favorite steed is turned, in his days of decrepitude and uselessness, into a rich pasturage; and the period of his inactivity is made the most comfortable in his whole life. Are not our enfeebled brethren, our aged, sick, and suffering ministers of the Gospel, their desolate widows and orphan children, better than they? Shall we allow ourselves to be rebuked and reproved, by the praiseworthy treatment, which men of the world extend to irrational animals, in consequence of our willful neglect of those who are the especial objects of our divine Master's regards?

Very much might be said on this subject; but the Committee would not trespass on the time of the Assembly. They would simply remark, in conclusion, that on the attention, or the neglect, which this important matter receives, may depend, in no small measure, the future prosperity or injury of the Church. If the giving of a cup of cold water in the name of a disciple shall not lose its reward, can it fail to bring a succession of rich benedictions upon our now re-united and beloved Zion, if from this time we resolve, that, with the help of the Lord, no deserving brother, his widow, or his orphan children—such as those for whose benefit this Fund has been established—shall continue destitute of the ordinary comforts of life?

Have we not the testimony of the Master himself—"Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again"?

It was unanimously

Resolved, That at the close of the business, at eleven o'clock, the doors of the house be thrown open, that our friends may mingle with us in the closing exercises.

The Board of Education, as reorganized, was instructed to meet at the rooms of the Board in Philadelphia, on the second Thursday of June, at three o'clock P.M.

The Report of the Special Committee on the overture from the Walnut Street Church of Louisville, Ky., was taken from the docket, and, after some discussion, the recommendation of the Committee was adopted, as follows:

Your Committee, therefore, ask the General Assembly to allow us to use the unexpended balance of the $5000 appropriation—that balance being $3000—for the purpose of amicably adjusting the Walnut Street Case; Provided,

1. That the sum of $2000 shall be contributed by our brethren for this purpose; and,

2. That all the cases pending in any of the courts, involving the title to houses of worship, or parsonages, in Kentucky, shall be, also, amicably adjusted and settled. Such an adjustment would, we trust, exert a most salutary influence upon the cause of Christ and the welfare of the Presbyterian Church.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented a report recommending that the salary of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be fixed at the rate of four hundred dollars, and that of the Permanent Clerk at the rate of three hundred dollars, per annum. Also, that

The Stated and Permanent Clerks of the Assemblies that met at Pittsburgh, in November last, be paid the sum of fifty dollars each for extra services rendered at those sessions.

The report was adopted.

It was also Resolved, That the Board of Home Missions be authorized and empowered, to supplement the salaries of all ministers, wholly employed in preaching to our congregations at salaries of less than $800, by such an amount as shall raise their salaries respectively to not less than that sum, on proper recommendation by the proper Presbyteries.

On the recommendation of the Committee on the Polity of the Church, it was

Resolved, That the churches connected with any of the Presbyteries of this Church, that are located beyond the bounds of the United States, be, and they hereby are, attached to the Presbytery and Synod, as newly arranged, to which they are next adjacent.

The Janitor's bill, the bill for stationery and printing, the traveling expenses of the Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, and the salaries and traveling expenses of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, were ordered to be paid.

The calling of the Roll was dispensed with.

It was then unanimously

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this General Assembly be hereby tendered to the citizens of Philadelphia, whose characteristic and unbounded hospitality has made our sojourn in this old haunt of Presbyterianism so pleasant and so memorable. They have given us the freedom of their homes. They have honored us with a truly magnificent public "Reception," beautified with flowers, the singing of birds, and a table loaded with the evidences of their love. They have enabled some of us to look for the first time upon the great and wide sea. They have refreshed our ears with sacred music such as is seldom heard, and our hearts with joy and gladness.

We thank them again for all their kindness, and invoke upon them and their households the grace and benedictions of Heaven.

Also, that the warmest thanks of the General Assembly be tendered to the Chairman and every member of the Committee of Arrangements, whose unexampled labors in preparing for our coming, and in providing for our convenience, comfort, and enjoyment while here, have been so protracted and incessant;—To the ladies of the Floral Committee, who have daily delighted our eyes and encircled our Moderator with fresh flowers;—To the Trustees and choir of this ancient church;—And to all others who have coöperated with the Floral Committee and the Committee of Arrangements in these kindly and Christian attentions. Nor would we fail to record our gratitude to the members of the Handel and Haydn Society for the delightful entertainment, afforded the Assembly, by their performance of the oratorio of the Messiah. We desire also to tender our acknowledgments to the several Railroad Companies who have passed the Commissioners over their respective roads at reduced rates; and to the Chairman of the Railroad Committee;—also to General Bingham, the Postmaster of the city, who has furnished such convenient arrangements by a branch office in the vestibule of the church; nor would we forget the patient services of his obliging clerk, Mr. Smith, who never tired in his efforts to serve the members of the Assembly, and who would look again and again to find letters for many an anxious inquirer;—to one and all we again tender the assurance, that we can never forget the kindness that we have received in this city of Brotherly Love.

Resolved, That the Committee of Arrangements for this Assembly be requested to have printed the foregoing Resolutions (each member of such Committee to keep a copy for himself as from this Assembly), and to send a copy to each family or person, who has entertained commissioners, or otherwise contributed to our pleasure or support.

The thanks of the Assembly were given in like manner to the conductors of the Daily Press, and especially to the Editor of the "Reunion Assembly Reporter," for their full and faithful record of our daily proceedings.

Also to the Moderator of the Assembly for the courtesy, impartiality, and eminent ability with which he has presided over the deliberations and promoted the dispatch of the business of the prolonged sessions of this Assembly.

Also to Rev. Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., Hon. Samuel F. McCoy, and Mr. Ezra M. Kingsley, the Temporary Clerks of this Assembly, for the efficient and satisfactory manner in which they have discharged their important and laborious duties.

The Minutes were read and approved.

After the offering of solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Chicago, Illinois, on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1871.

CYRUS DICKSON, Permanent Clerk.

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

MAY, 1870.

The Presbyterian Church of the United States has just closed the eighty-first year of its existence, under its present constitutional organization. Eighty-one years ago, the venerable Rodgers filled the Moderator's chair in Philadelphia, while George Washington was occupying the Executive Chair of the nation, in the same hospitable city. And, during this term of nearly one century, our beloved Church has never seen a more eventful twelve-month than the past. It has been the year of Re-union; to be followed by the year of Reconstruction. The lamentable wound of 1837 has been healed; and let us praise and glorify our God, that he has not healed the hurt of the daughter of his people slightly. The deliberations of the past two weeks of this Assembly have proved how thoroughly we are one—one in personal sympathies, one in loyalty to the same standard of faith, and one in love for the same divine and adorable Head.

The great historical fact of the past year may be condensed into a single sentence. In the month of May, the two General Assemblies, convened in New-York, voted with almost entire unanimity to submit the proposal of organic union to the Presbyteries; they decided for a cordial acceptance of the terms; and at Pittsburgh, in November, the consolidation was completed without one audible murmur of dissent. The dissevered segments were so fitly joined together, that no moral microscope can discover the seam. To the men who wrought this beneficent work belongs the satisfaction, but to God alone belongs the glory. "This also cometh forth from the Lord of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working."

Let us be profoundly grateful that, while the process of Re-union has been going forward, the accustomed operations of the Church have not suffered the slightest injury or felt a single jar. On the contrary, the past year has been one of increased activity, and of more than ordinary spiritual success. It is quite impossible, to present a complete statement of the widely ramified operations of our whole Church in one brief Narrative. We have neither the space nor the sufficient data. Out of two hundred and fifty-six Presbyteries, one hundred and eighty-nine have forwarded to us their annual Narratives; from the remaining sixty-seven we have not received a single syllable. Many of the Narratives furnished us are exceedingly meagre and imperfect. From such data as we possess, we condense the following statement of the past year's history. The brighter side reveals the grace of our God, while the darker side reveals the imperfections of the creature.

REVIVALS.

The first cheering fact which demands our devout gratitude is this: Revivals of religion have been wide-spread in extent and rich in results. Eighty of our

Presbyteries report signal visitations of God's Spirit within their borders; while in many of the others the number of conversions has been larger than the average. In the churches west of the Alleghanies the showers of grace have been the most frequent, and the harvest of souls has been the most abundant. The Presbyteries of Cincinnati chronicle a very remarkable outpouring of the Divine Spirit upon their churches. Not far from one thousand souls are believed to have turned from death unto life. In the city of Dayton, one of our churches received one hundred and thirty-nine persons to the table of the Lord on a single Sabbath. In the Presbytery of Indianapolis, five hundred were enrolled, as the result of faith and prayer. A church within the bounds of the Presbytery of Madison is recorded, as having received a quickening which recalls the days of Whitefield and Edwards. The membership of the church was doubled. Men of reckless and intemperate lives were converted to Christ. The convictions of sin were in some cases so deep and pungent that physical manifestations were witnessed, like those in Scotland under the preaching of Livingston and Burns. Powerful revivals have occurred in the Presbytery of Buffalo; and those in the Presbytery of North River have been attended with unusual activity in the temperance reform. Especial gratitude is demanded for an outpouring of the Spirit upon the time-honored College of New-Jersey; which has already resulted in the hopeful conversion of fifty students. When God rains down his grace upon a college, he fills a cistern for the whole land. These few cases of revival have been selected, from a large number, as illustrations of the method in which God has wrought. But, in all the cases recorded, two things have been visible; the lay members have been laborers, and the prayer-meetings have been full. In the Presbytery of Humboldt (Kansas), the increase to our churches has been more than one hundred and fifty per cent, and a large number are reported as standing ready to unite at the earliest opportunity. This encouraging success has been won in the face of the most trying obstacles, and with an utter lack of suitable houses of worship. Sabbath congregations have been gathered in rooms without either door or window; sometimes in the apartments above rum-shops and billiard-saloons. It has been occasionally a part of the minister's duty—at more than one preaching-station—to provide rough boards for the accommodation of his auditors, whom he addressed from a dry-goods box for a pulpit. If some of our people in the great cities, who worship in freestone and marble, and on damask cushions, could exchange places for a time with their frontier brethren and sisters, the experiment might quicken their zeal and liberality in the direction of

CHURCH ERECTION.

This vitally important department of our Church's work has received a new impetus during the past year. Many of the Presbyteries report the commencement or the completion of houses of worship. In others the sanctuaries of God have been repaired, or beautified. But, while graceful and elegant structures have been reared in large towns, and scores of substantial buildings have been finished in the newer settlements by the timely aid of our "Church Erection Boards," there is still a lamentable lack of suitable places for divine worship in too many localities. Our Western Presbyterial Narratives reiterate the constant cry, "Send us means to build churches, and send us live men for their pulpits!" It may be mentioned as a curious fact, that in one of our Presbyteries (Dakota) there are seven organized churches, and yet not a single church-edifice! Five of the congregations meet in private houses, and a sixth is now rearing a log school-house, as their lowly temple to Jehovah's praise.

The work of

has made fair progress in several of our Presbyteries. In that of Missouri River, seven new churches have been organized; in "Lexington," five; in Londonderry, two; while the Presbytery of South-Carolina have received seven new organizations into their roll. Six churches have been organized within the bounds of the Presbytery of Dubuque; in that of Albany, a mission chapel has grown into an independent and flourishing church. These are specimens of cheering facts which reach us, and which partially atone for the grievous absence of an aggressive spirit in other portions of our denomination. As a whole, our growth has not been as great as our wealth could afford, and as our glorious faith and polity demand. Presbyteries are lacking in esprit de corps. While we are priding ourselves with the generous thought that we "have a stone" in nearly every neighbor's wall, we leave our own wall unbuilt, and in too many places our own children unhoused and unfed. Let us learn a few lessons from our good friends the Methodists, and from our spiritual foes the Romanists.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORK

has prospered through all our borders. Every section of the Church sends us good tidings, of schools enlarging in numbers and in efficiency, of well-attended Sabbath-school conventions and institutes, and of a growing enthusiasm in behalf of these precious nurseries of the Saviour's planting. A Presbytery (within whose bounds this Assembly is now convened) reports a single school with one thousand six hundred and fifty scholars, and out of it has sprung a vigorous young church. It is no disparagement to other schools that this one may be named, in many respects, a model. The growing prosperity of the Sabbath-school cause is attended with one peril. It is, that spirituality may be sacrificed to external show. It is the danger, that ambition for crowded rooms, and attractive entertainments, may lead the teacher to forget, that the master purpose of the Sabbath-school is to introduce God's word into children's memories, and God's converting grace into children's hearts.

The most gratifying fact connected with this branch of benevolent activity is, that the richest and most influential of our city churches spend their best energies in mission-schools among the destitute and the degraded.

ALARMING EVILS.

Nearly all the Presbyterial Narratives speak of the frightful prevalence of Sabbath desecration. This vice grows with the growth of immigration from the nations of Europe. While the Narratives so generally lament the huge and portentous evil, but few of them record any special organized efforts to counteract it. Nor is there really any permanent breakwater to this tide of sin, except the spread of evangelical truth, and the upbuilding of evangelical churches and Sabbath-schools. There is also a sad uniformity in the Presbyterial statements of the growth of the crime of dram-selling, and of the monster vice of drunkenness. A delusive hope was excited in some quarters, that the introduction of native wines would promote sobriety. But the reports from our California brethren overturn this specious theory. They inform us, that the manufacture of wines, on their generous soil, is only furnishing a plausible preface to a new chapter of the ravages of drunkenness. Half of our Presbyteries report a revival of zeal in the temperance reform. Those of Harrisburg, Donegal, Long Island, Philadelphia, and Brooklyn make the gratifying statement that individual churches and Sabbath-schools are organizing efforts to rescue the poor inebriate, and to overthrow the drinking usages of society. One church in the Presbytery of Brooklyn reports a temperance society of 1300 members, and 500 enrolled in the Sabbath-school "Band of Hope." Upon several churches which have made systematic war upon intemperance, the Lord has been pleased to pour out his Spirit in precious revivals. It is not more true that the temperance reform needs Christ's Church, than it is that the Church needs the temperance reform. What God joins together, let no man put asunder.

THE FINANCIAL REPORTS

from our various Presbyteries are widely different in their character. Some of the Presbyteries announce an increase of ten per cent, others of twenty, and some even of twenty-five, per cent in their benevolent contributions over previous years. Others have barely held their own. Others exhibit a most sad falling off. A Presbytery in the State of New-York reports that some of their churches have taken no collections this year for our denominational treasuries. Your Committee do not hesitate to pronounce this a grievous sin. The weaker a church is, the more it needs the blessing which even the gift of "two mites" to the Master can bring to it. Let us look the honest truth squarely in the face, that our projected thank-offering of five millions to our Lord will prove a melancholy and mortifying failure, unless the liberality of our people rises many cubits above any former precedent. Presbyterianism probably holds more wealth in its purse than any other Protestant church in America. But too many of our people still practise the solemn farce of inscribing "Holiness to the Lord" on those treasures, which they devote to self-indulgence and social extravagance. During this memorial year, at least, we must secure an enlargement of systematic giving in every church and in every pew; if any larceny is practised, we must rob the greedy world, and not rob our gracious God. A church which dooms its frontier prophets to "camel's hair raiment" and "leathern girdle," while it wears "soft clothing in kings' houses" will never conquer this land for Christ. A church that refuses to spoil those Egyptians—pride, luxury, and self-pampering extravagance—will never be able to furnish five millions of money, to rear a tabernacle of thanksgiving to Him who led us forth from the Red Sea of disunion. Let not this candid utterance in such a Narrative as this be deemed an impertinence; it finds quite too full a warrant in the contents of a large number of the Presbyterial statements laid before us. The church's consecrated wealth and toil are the church's blood. May He who pours out his precious blood for us on Calvary inspire us to make lavish gifts of toil and treasure for His glory!

Before closing this brief exhibit of the last year's history, let us group together a few which deserve a bare mention. The work of evangelizing and teaching the freed colored people of the South is progressing favorably. In the Presbytery of Union (East-Tennessee), an unusually large number of young men are seeking an education for the sacred ministry. Within the bounds of the Presbytery of Cleveland, Ohio, between thirty and forty are now in course of preparation for that holy office. Many of the Western Presbyteries justly lament the unwillingness, within their bounds, to accept the vows of installation as settled pastors. The principal cause of this unwillingness is the scantiness and uncertainty of pecuniary support. A few Presbyteries (alas! that they are so few) record a timely enlargement of ministers' salaries. Several, also, speak of the erection of manses for their pastors; among these are the Presbyteries of Huntington, Donegal, and Philadelphia, Fourth. In the Presbytery of Delaware (New-York), every church but one has a parsonage. In two churches of the Presbytery of Winona, the experiment of free pews is being made, and it has thus far been successful. A church in the Presbytery of Catskill has introduced a much-needed system of inquiry after, and correspondence with, its absent and non-resident members. Although it would involve much personal labor, yet the introduction of a similar plan is called for in all of our congregations. The agitation of the question of woman's suffrage is alluded to in two or three of the Reports, and it is affirmed that many of the public advocates of this movement are doing mischief in our congregations, by vehement assaults on the inspiration and authority of God's holy word. We give the statement without comment.

Catechetical instruction is carefully maintained in many of the Sabbath-schools; one church has published the Westminster Shorter Catechism, in its "Manual" of members. In some of our congregations this admirable compend of truth has become quite obsolete. Several Presbyteries send encouraging reports of their labors among the Germans; the Presbyteries of Dubuque and Newark have been especially active and successful. The Monthly Concert of prayer for missions is rarely mentioned in the Narratives; in some churches this service is held on the first prayer-meeting evening of each month. In others it has fallen into melancholy neglect. The "Week of Prayer" was widely observed throughout our borders, and with the most glorious results. It was the birth week of many a powerful revival. From all sections of our Church come to us the most grateful expressions of harmony and of exultation over the divinely directed methods by which our present attitude has been reached.

NECROLOGY.

To this short historic summary is appended a list of seventy-three of our Ministers who, having served God and their generation, have entered into their rest. As in the military campaign, so also in the spiritual warfare; the ear is ever and anon startled by the sound of "minute-guns" over the honored dead who have fallen in the heat of conflict. As we read over the solemn and suggestive chronicle before us, we cannot but rejoice that these beloved brethren lived to see the day of our happy Re-union, while so many others who longed for it "died without the sight."

* Not before reported.

From these tombs, so lately closed, there issues forth a loud and thrilling summons to every one of us to work for Jesus while the day lasts; for the night cometh. The urgent spiritual needs of our country—doubly dear to us since its baptism of patriot blood—echo the call back to our consciences. From the cross of Him who died for us comes the same beseeching call for a more fearless utterance of truth in every pulpit; for a more self-denying toil in every church; for a holier self-consecration of every heart to Christ. The coming year ought to be the brightest in the annals of our American Presbyterianism. Then through our whole Re-united ranks let the petition ascend to the infinite Jehovah of Hosts, that his light may arise upon us as the glory of the morning, that the gales of his Spirit may be breathed through our land from sea to sea, and that the dear old Church which links the symbols of Westminster to the cross of Calvary may go forth in her beautiful array to wider conquests and to mightier achievements.

The Library of the Seminary now contains twenty-one thousand six hundred and eighty-one volumes—two hundred and sixty-four having been added during the past year; of which, thirty-one were by donation; viz.: eight volumes from the library of the late Rev. O. A. Taylor, presented by his brother, Rev. R. Taylor, D.D.; one from Dr. Smucker; one from W. Blackwood & Sons; fifteen from the Smithsonian Institution; one from Rev. R. Anderson, D.D.; two from Rev. M. B. Grier, D.D.; and three from Rev. William Annan, D.D.

The Faculty report to the Trustees, "That, through the liberality of Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, to the same extent as heretofore, three eminent Teachers of Elocution, Professors Bailey, Kidd, and Peabody, have been engaged successively in training our students for public reading and speaking; the time being spread nearly over the whole term now closed." Further, "That valuable presents have been made, through the hands of the Rev. Dr. McGill, of books, to the Senior Class, by H. K. Corning, Esq., of New-York, and other benefactors unknown. Also, boxes of clothing, and material for clothing, of great value to the students, have been sent from the ladies of the Nineteenth Street Church (Dr. Hall's), and from the ladies of the University Place Church, New-York. The former sent one box of broadcloth for the Senior Class,—enough to clothe completely twenty-six men."

A Committee of Five of the Trustees was appointed, at the late meeting of the Board, to coöperate with a like Committee of the Board of Directors, to devise methods for raising additional funds, demanded by the present crisis in the Church and in the affairs of the Seminary; more particularly for the erection of a new and separate building for Lecture Rooms; to provide a Contingent Fund to keep in repair the buildings and grounds, etc.; also, for a Sustentation Fund, to meet the advanced expenses of students for board, fuel, lights, etc. Additional funds are needed to repair the dilapidated scholarships, and to increase the salaries of the Professors, which are now inadequate to the support and education of their families.

During the past year, all the Seminary buildings have been put in a state of thorough repair; and, through the liberality of James Lenox, Esq., of New-York, the Library building has been repaired and improved.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Signed, by order of the Board,
GEORGE HALE, Secretary.

II. AUBURN SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

The Faculty of Auburn Theological Seminary respectfully report to the General Assembly as follows:

That this Institution has just celebrated, with appropriate religious ceremonies, its first Semi-centennial Anniversary; its charter having been granted by the Legislature of the State of New-York in 1819; and the corner-stone of its main building, laid on the 11th May, 1820. It was established to meet the wants of the Presbyterian Church, then rapidly extending itself through missionaries, both volunteered, and such as were sent by the General Assembly, into Western New-York, and States further west. By its charter, it is a Presbyterian institution; being directly governed by a Board of Commissioners, elected by the Presbyteries within the bounds of the old Synods of Utica, Geneva, and Genesee; and by a Board of Trustees, elected by the Commissioners. Of the Commissioners (two clerical and one lay from each Presbytery), one is Examiner, and attends at the annual examination of the classes in May. The Examiners report to the Boards, as to the fidelity of the teachers and the proficiency of the students.

The whole number, who have been trained for the Christian ministry in this Seminary, is but little short of a thousand; but the establishment of other honored and successful Theological Schools has, within the last twenty years, reduced the number studying at Auburn considerably below what it was in its earlier periods. The whole number connected with the Seminary, during the year ending May 5th, 1870, was forty-three; of whom fifteen have just gone out to become pastors of our churches, or missionaries abroad.

The recent anniversary was signalized, by laying the corner-stone of a new Library building, to be immediately erected, at a cost of about thirty thousand dollars. This much-needed addition to the conveniences of the Seminary is furnished, at the cost of two liberal members of our church, the Hon. William E. Dodge, of New-York City, and Colonel Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora, in the same State. The building is to be fire-proof, in the finest style of appropriate art; and arranged to contain sixty thousand volumes.

The FACULTY of the Seminary consist of the following:

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.
Rev. Edwin Hall, D.D., Professor of Christian Theology.
Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., Professor of Biblical Criticism; and Rev. James E. Pierce, Professor of Hebrew Language, and Literature.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

By order of the Faculty,
SAMUEL M. HOPKINS, Clerk, pro tem.

III. WESTERN SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Forty-third Annual Report.

Since the last Report, the following twenty-nine students have been received, viz.:

William J. Arney,	a graduate of	Vermilion Institute, Ohio.
Dudley E. Asbury,		Iberia, Ohio.
Abram F. Bell,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.

George Copeland,	"	Wittemberg College, Ohio.
Theodore Crowl,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
S. L. Dickey,
M. L. Donahey,	"	" " "
William Douglass,	"	Westminster College, Pa.
Taylor F. Ealey,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
Joseph T. Gibson,	"	" " "
J. J. Hawk,	"	Westminster College, Pa.
J. J. Hull,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
G. H. Humphrey,	"	" " "
J. Horner Kerr,	"	La Fayette College, Pa.
C. K. Lehman,	"	Wittemberg College, Ohio.
John W. Little,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
S. D. McConnell,	"	" " "
F. J. McClelland,	"	Miami University, Ohio.
E. G. McKinley,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
F. X. Migneron,
B. C. Montgomery,	"	Westminster College, Pa.
D. A. Newell,
J. H. Shields,	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
J. L. Thompson,	"	" " "
F. B. Welty,	"	" " "
Amzi Wilson,	"	Western Reserve College, Ohio.
A. D. Workman,	"	Franklin College, Ohio.

Of these, William J. Arney and S. D. McConnell were received on certificate from the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J., and Theodore Crowl from the Theogical Seminary of the North-West.

W. J. Douglass died suddenly at his home, during the Christmas holidays. He was a faithful student and a sincere Christian.

The health of the Professors and students has been good. The students were examined at the close of the year, in the presence of a Committee of the Board, who reported to the Board "that the examinations were eminently satisfactory, and have clearly indicated the faithfulness both of Professors and students."

The following students have completed the full course of three years, passed the final examination, and received diplomas, viz.:

John K. Black,
J. Hosack Blackford,
William J. Bollman,
David Brown,
J. V. Cellers,
William J. Chichester,
Orrin A. Elliott,
Samuel W. Elliott,
Ezra S. Heaney,
Samuel L. Johnston,

David K. Nesbit,
Francis J. Newton,
David G. Robinson,
William L. Stevenson,
Thomas D. Wallace,
Aaron Wilson,
Jesse B. Wilson,
J. Rogers Wilson,
Samuel S. Wylie.

The Board of Directors, having learned that the Rev. Dr. Elliott, our venerable and venerated Professor, now in his eighty-fourth year, desires, on account of advanced age, to retire from the full discharge of the duties of his Professorship, we recommend to the General Assembly, that this wish of the Rev. Dr. Elliott be complied with, so far as to relieve him from labor, except as shall be optional with himself, and that he retain a position in the Seminary, as "Professor Emeritus."

At the same time we would express our high appreciation of his able, faithful, and devoted services in the post which he has occupied so long, and so much to the satisfaction of the Church; and our wish that he may still exercise over the students a pastoral care, and give them, so far as his strength admits, that instruction and counsel, which will come with so much weight from his age and experience.

The Board of Directors, in submitting and commending the case, of the Rev.

Dr. Elliott, as "Emeritus Professor," to the consideration of the General Assembly, have confidence, that the Board of Trustees will provide for his future support in the most generous manner that their means will permit, as his circumstances and just claims on the Seminary call for such support; and we believe that the Trustees will be sustained by the liberality of friends.

Furthermore, we would respectfully but earnestly suggest to the Trustees, that they take immediately such measures as will secure an increase to the endowment of the Professorships; but especially provide for that very important one, thus made vacant by the retirement of the Rev. Dr. Elliott, so that it may be filled by the approaching Assembly. And, if the Trustees so encourage us, the Directors will ask the Assembly to elect a Professor at its approaching sessions.

The Board of Trustees having taking action in accordance with the request of the Board of Directors, we now respectfully ask the Assembly to fill this vacancy by the election of a Professor.

The term of office of the following members expires during the sessions of the Assembly, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Samuel Wilson, D.D.,	James Laughlin,
George Marshall, D.D.,	Francis G. Bailey,
William D. Howard, D.D.,	B. Rush Bradford.
Elliot E. Swift,
Thomas E. Thomas, D.D.,
Robert Dickson, D.D.,
Robert B. Walker, D.D.

There is also a vacancy for three years by the resignation of the Rev. James M. Platt.

By order of the Board,

W. B. McILVAINE, Secretary.

A NEW PROFESSORSHIP.

The following communication from the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., LL.D., and the response of the Board of Trustees, were directed to be placed upon the Minutes:

To the Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary:

The inclosed thirty-five (35) Bonds, each for one thousand dollars ($1000), viz., twenty (20) of State of Missouri, six per cent interest, payable semi-annually; ten (10) of Fulton County, Illinois, eight per cent interest, payable annually; five (5) of Steubenville and Indiana Railroad Company, six per cent interest, payable semi-annually, have been given for the purpose of endowing a Professorship in the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., to be called

THE RE-UNION PROFESSORSHIP.

Our names not to be placed in connection with it in any publication, except its just report to the Assembly.

It is to be attached to any Chair that the Directors and Trustees may agree upon; but a preference is expressed for that which has reference to the training of students for preaching and pastoral work. I desire that these funds be kept in an account separate and distinct, and the income be applied to this Professorship, when and so long as filled, and to no other purpose. If at any time there be, at the close of the year, any surplus (above $200) not used for the payment of such Professor, it shall be added to the principal, until it reach the amount of $50,000, to which it is intended to increase the endowment of this Professorship at some future time (should the other Professorships be raised to that amount), on the condition that the Professor be not a Pastor.

CHARLES C. BEATTY,
For himself and wife.

THE RESPONSE OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

"Whereas, the Rev. Charles C. Beatty, D.D., LL.D., for himself and wife, has this day announced by letter, to this Board, that he has deposited with the Treasurer securities to the amount of $35,000, to found a Professorship in the Western Theological Seminary, to be called the

for the training of students in preaching and pastoral care:

"Resolved, 1. That this Board do hereby accept the donation on the conditions specified in the grant.

"Resolved, 2. That this Board do hereby express their profound sense of obligation to the great Head of the Church, for this most important aid to the resources and facilities of this Institution.

"Resolved, 3. That our most grateful acknowledgments are hereby offered to the generous donors, Dr. and Mrs. Beatty, for so munificent a gift, and all the more as it is in the line of a long series of noble benefactions to this Seminary from the same source: And, inasmuch as it is made a condition to the gift, that the family name of the donors be not attached to this foundation, the prayer of this Board shall be, that the ample fruit of this important Chair shall be the signal reward of their benefactions here and hereafter."

The following communication was also received from the Board of Directors:

"The Board of Directors, having learned that the Rev. David Elliott, D.D., LL.D., our venerable and venerated Professor, now in his eighty-fourth year, desires, on account of his advanced age, to retire from the full discharge of the duties of his Professorship, recommend to the General Assembly, that the wish of the Rev. Dr. Elliott be complied with so far as to relieve him from labor, except as shall be optional with himself; and that he retain a position in the Seminary as Professor Emeritus. At the same time, we would express our high appreciation of his able, faithful, and devoted services, in the post which he has occupied so long and so much to the satisfaction of the Church; and our wish that he may still exercise over the students a pastoral care and give them, so far as his strength will admit, that instruction and counsel which will come with so much weight from one of his age and experience.

"The Board of Directors, in submitting and commending the case of the Rev. Dr. Elliott as Emeritus Professor, to the consideration of the General Assembly, have confidence that the Board of Trustees will provide for his future support, in the most generous manner their means will permit, as his circumstances and just claims on the Seminary call for such support."

The following resolution on this subject was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees, in response to the suggestions of the Board of Directors, agree to continue the salary of the Rev. Dr. Elliott as heretofore, during his natural life: The requisite sum to be raised by subscription for this special purpose; and also to allow the use of the house in which he now resides during the joint lives of himself and Mrs. Elliott.

ADDITIONS TO THE LIBRARY.

The Librarian reports, That there have been added to the Library, by purchase, during the year about 100 volumes. By donation, from Rev. A. O. Rockwell, 21 volumes; from Messrs. Carter & Brothers, Vol. IX. of "Sprague's Annals;" "History of the Presbytery of Erie," from the Author, Rev. S. J. M. Eaton, D.D.; 10 copies of "Jacobus on Genesis," Vol. I., from Messrs. Carter and the Author; 20 volumes of the "Princeton Review" (unbound), from Mr. Ross, of the Tenth Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

3. Memorial of the Directors of Union Theological Seminary in the City of New-York, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, New-York, May 16*th*, 1870:

Whereas, In the recent negotiations for re-uniting the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, great importance was attached to some uniform system of ecclesiastical supervision over the several Theological Seminaries of the denomination; and

Whereas, The Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in New-York—an institution founded before the disruption of the Presbyterian Church, belonging exclusively to neither of its branches, and administered upon its own independent charter—are desirous of doing all in their power to establish confidence and harmony throughout the whole Church, in respect to the education of its members; and

Whereas, It has appeared to many, and especially to those who took an active part in founding the Union Theological Seminary, that there are many disadvantages, infelicities, not to say, at times, perils, in the election of Professors of those Seminaries, directly and immediately by the General Assembly itself—a body so large, in session for so short a time, and composed of members to so great an extent resident at a distance from the Seminaries themselves, and therefore personally unacquainted with many things which pertain to their true interest and usefulness; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, in the city of New-York, being all of them ministers or members of the Presbyterian Church, do hereby memorialize the General Assembly to the following effect, viz.: That the General Assembly may be pleased to adopt it as a rule and plan, in the exercise of the proprietorship and control over the several Theological Seminaries, that, so far as the election of Professors is concerned, the Assembly will commit the same to their respective Boards of Directors, on the following terms and conditions:

First, That the Board of Directors of each Theological Seminary shall be authorized to appoint all Professors for the same.

Second, That all such appointments shall be reported to the General Assembly, and no such appointment of Professor shall be considered as a complete election, if disapproved by a majority vote of the Assembly.

And further be it resolved, That the Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary in the city of New-York, persuaded that the plan proposed in the Memorial will meet the cordial approval of the patrons, donors, and friends of all these Seminaries, and contribute to the peace and prosperity of the Church, do hereby agree, if the said plan shall be adopted by the General Assembly, that they will agree to conform to the same, the Union Seminary in New-York being, in this respect, on the same ground with other Theological Seminaries of the Presbyterian Church.

The Assembly complied with this request. See pp. 60–64.

VI. DANVILLE SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary, located at Danville, Ky., respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Seventeenth Annual Report, as follows:

The summer session of 1869, which was opened on the first day of May, was closed, on the fifth day of November, by a special order of the Board, given at a called meeting, held on the second day of that month. The Board had previously ordered the session to close on the last day of November; but, as several of the students had already left, and others were anxious to leave, in order to enter another of our Seminaries, as soon as possible after the commencement of the term, and as an adjourned meeting of the General Assembly was to be held at Pittsburgh, Pa., on the tenth day of November, the Board judged it expedient to terminate the session somewhat earlier than had been previously provided for.

During the session the following students, ten in number, were connected with the Seminary, none of whom had before pursued their studies here:

S. B. Belville,	a graduate of		Monmouth College.
William W. Eastman,	"	"	Hanover College.
Robert Christie,	"	"	Miami University.
Samuel W. Elliott,	"	"	Washington and Jefferson College.
Jeremiah Long,	"	"	Hanover College.
Ashbel G. Martyn,	"	"	Wabash College.
Robert B. Marshall,	"	"	Monmouth College.
Charles B. Ogilvie,	"	"	Princeton College.
J. M. Oldfather,	"	"	Miami University.
Edward S. Scott,	"	"	" "

Of these, some were in attendance the whole session; others, only a part of the session. Messrs. Belville, Christie, Eastman, Oldfather, and Scott entered for the first time on a regular course of Theological Study. Messrs. Long, Marshall, Martyn, and Ogilvie had previously attended the Seminary of the North-West one session, and Mr. Elliott, the Seminary at Allegheny, two sessions. No certificate was conferred at the end of the session.

All the departments of instruction were filled by their respective Professors, and the deportment of the students is reported by the Faculty to have been creditable and becoming. As a class, they were diligent in study, attentive to all their prescribed duties, and manifested a lively and conscientious zeal in preparing for their future work.

At the meeting of the General Assembly in New-York, May, 1869, a Committee was appointed "to investigate all the affairs" of this Seminary, and directed "to make a full report to the General Assembly, at its session, at Pittsburgh, Pa., in November." The Report, then made by said Committee, was adopted by the Assembly. By this action of your venerable body, this Board is "instructed to establish a permanent term for the exercises of the Seminary, beginning in the month of September and closing in the month of April or May, so as to conform their sessions as nearly as possible to those of the other Seminaries of the Church." The Board are also "advised, if in their judgment it is deemed expedient, to make arrangements for a session during the year 1870, within the months of February and June, inclusive." In respect to the latter point, the Board reports, that it was found impracticable to comply literally with the advice of the Assembly; but they have authorized the Professors, or any of them, to give a brief or partial preliminary course of instruction during the summer, if in their judgment this be expedient—this arrangement to be made for the coming summer only. With respect to the former, and in accordance with your instruction, the permanent term of the Institution has been ordered to begin the first Thursday in September, and to close the last Thursday in April. The regular exercises of the Seminary, suspended since November of last year, will therefore recommence the first Thursday of September next, when it is hoped a full Faculty will be on the ground to conduct them. In this connection, the Board take occasion to express their exceeding gratification at the action of the General Assembly last November, touching the importance of the Seminary, and "the duty of the Assembly to do all that is within their power to relieve, uphold, and invigorate this school of the prophets in its present location." It cannot but be to us a matter of joy and encouragement, to be assured that the supreme council of the Church "take a deep interest in the prosperity of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Ky., and are of the opinion that the interests of the Presbyterian Church will be greatly promoted, by its continued existence and operation, as a first-class Theological Seminary, in accordance with the original covenant entered into by the General Assembly."

These views of the importance of the continued existence and operation of this Seminary to the interests of the Church are confirmed, more and more, by the progress of events. We would consider even the temporary suspension of the Seminary, at this crisis, an irreparable damage to the cause of our Church, especially in Kentucky. Hence we rejoice that the Assembly recognize it as a duty, to do all within their power to relieve, uphold, and invigorate this school; and we hereby pledge ourselves to do what lies in our power to second that fostering care, and to put the Seminary in as efficient a condition as possible. Of course nothing can be more conducive to this end than a full and able Faculty. It will be remembered that, at the meeting of the Assembly last November, the Faculty were reconstituted by the election of the following Professors: Edward P. Humphrey, to the chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology; Stephen Yerkes, to the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology; Nathaniel West, to the chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and L. J. Halsey, to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology.

It becomes our duty to inform the General Assembly that Drs. Yerkes and West have accepted, and Drs. Humphrey and Halsey declined, the chairs to which they were respectively elected; consequently the chairs of Didactic and Polemic Theology, and of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, are now vacant. The Board respectfully urge on the Assembly the election of Professors to fill these departments of instruction, at their approaching sessions in the city of Philadelphia.

The Library has received a very slight accession during the past year—three volumes from the Board of Publication, through their agent, the Rev. Aaron A. Hogue. The Seminary greatly needs a Permanent Fund for the regular increase of this important part of its educational appliances. Of the multitudinous new and valuable works constantly issuing from the press, the Professors and students are either entirely deprived, or must provide them, so far as they may be able, from their own means. In other respects, also, the endowment is totally inadequate to the maintenance of a Theological Seminary of the first-class. The Board of Trustees have recently purchased one house for the use of a Professor; but funds do not suffice to purchase or erect others. The accommodations for students are altogether inferior to those of the other Seminaries of the Church; and, such as they are, will prove insufficient, should God grant even a moderate degree of prosperity to the Institution.

The simple truth is, $100,000—a part expended in permanent improvements, and a part judiciously invested—are imperatively needed to give this Seminary a fair prospect of success at this day. With such an amount at its command, it would be in a condition to do its work for this generation, unless it should be necessary to increase the number of Professors. And here we beg leave to remind the General Assembly, that of the present endowment, amounting in funds and real estate to $211,185, according to the Report of the Board of Trustees last year, the entire amount, with the exception of about $20,000, has been contributed by the people of Kentucky, or acquired by savings and judicious changes of investments. In view of these facts, we think it will be conceded that this Seminary has a just claim upon the liberality of the Church at large. We urge its claim upon the attention of the General Assembly.

The Board report further, that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the General Assembly of 1870:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
Heman H. Allen,	T. T. Alexander,
Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D.,	John G. Barrett,
Robert W. Landis, D.D.,	A. M. January,
Joel K. Lyle,	Benjamin F. Avery,
Stephen Yerkes.	J. C. Randolph.

The Rev. Dr. N. West, of the class of 1871, has lost his right to a seat in the Board, by accepting a Professorship in the Seminary; and the Board has the painful duty of announcing the death of Professor S. R. Williams, a ruling elder, of the same class. Moreover, one vacancy previously existed, by some oversight, in the ruling elders of the class of 1871.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
By order of the Board of Directors,

H. H. ALLEN, President.

J. C. Randolph, Secretary of Board.

Danville, Ky., May 4th, 1870.

2. Annual Report of the Trustees.

The Trustees of the Danville Theological Seminary present to the General Assembly this, their Seventeenth Annual Report:

Third. Turnpike Stocks,	$600 00
Shelby County Railroad Stocks (worthless),	250 00
Individual notes (many worthless),	5,835 00
Fourth. Cash balance, April 1st, 1870,	900 19

Recapitulation:

Corporate Bonds,	$136,150 00
Bank Stocks,	33,150 00
Turnpike Stocks,	600 00
Shelby County R.R. Stocks,	250 00
Individual notes,	5,835 00
Cash on hand,	900 19	176,885 19
Real Estate,		34,125 00
Total Funds, including Real Estate leased,		$211,010 19

From these various Funds, there has been collected and paid into the Treasury of the Seminary, since April 15th, 1869, income, as follows:

From the Professors' Fund,	$8,856 96
From the General Fund,	1,676 13
From the Scholarship Fund,	739 46
From the Library Fund,	93 25
Total Income of the current year,	$11,365 80

Credit, by Expenditures:

Professors' Fund,	$9432 25
General Fund,	951 75
Scholarship Fund,	624 48
Library Fund,	9 90
Total Expenditures for the current year,		$11,016 38
Excess of the Income over the Expenditures,		$349 42

To Cash on hand, April, 1869,	$3,075 00
To Surplus of Income this year,	349 42
To Principal, collected this year,	3,637 50
	$7,061 92
By Investments,	1,625 00
	$5436 92
By Library debt,	4,546 73
Balance, cash, April 1st, 1870,	$900 19

The Tennessee State Bonds—$17,000—have yielded no income since January, 1869, and this has reduced the regular income of the Seminary by $1020 during the year just ended. In case the said State shall resume payment of interest on her bonds, at an early day, the present Funds of the Institution will yield income sufficient to pay four Professors each $2500 salary, and allow $1000 for general and contingent expenses.

It is the painful duty of the Board to report one vacancy, created by the death of Mr. J. A. Jacobs since the last Report, a most efficient and faithful servant of the General Assembly, in the capacity of Trustee of this Seminary.

The Board have the pleasure to report that, in April, 1869, the Rev. Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D., LL.D., in his own name and that of his colleagues of the Danville Review Association, has presented, to the Danville Theological Seminary, 30 complete sets of the said Review; also incomplete sets, containing numbers equal to 482; also the stereotype plates of the said Review.

The Board of Trustees, as now constituted, are as follows:

Ministers.

Robert J. Breckinridge, D.D., LL.D.,
Edward P. Humphrey, D.D.,
William L. Breckinridge, D.D.,
R. A. Johnstone,
Aaron A. Hogue,
S. S. McRoberts,
William J. McKnight, D.D.

Laymen.

J. T. Boyle,
James Barbour,
G. W. Welsh,
T. E. Quisenberry,
A. R. McKee,
W. H. Kinnaird,
J. C. Maxwell,
George Denny,
John G. Barrett,
Ormond Beatty, LL.D.

By order of the Board of Trustees, this Report is respectfully submitted to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in U. S. A., at its annual meeting, May, 1870.

A. A. HOGUE, Chairman.

R. A. Johnstone, Secretary.

PROFESSORS OF THE SEMINARY.

Rev. Nathaniel West, Professor of Exegetic, Didactic, and Polemic Theology.
Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Oriental Literature.
Rev. Samuel H. McMullin, Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., Professor of Church Government and Pastoral Theology.

VII. SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

1. Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West report to the General Assembly, to meet in Philadelphia, May, 1870:

That the Institution under their care has completed its Eleventh Annual Session under circumstances which indicate the blessing of God in the prosperity and progress of the Seminary.

Thirty-five young men have been in attendance during the term concluding April 7th. One of these was an irregular student, and three were resident graduates. Two others were obliged by sickness to leave before the close of the term. Thirteen were received into the Junior Class, viz.:

Samuel Annin,	a graduate	of	the College of New-Jersey.
J. H. Clarke,	"	"	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
George Earharb,	"	"	the State University of Iowa.
J. C. Eastman,	"	"	Hanover College, Ind.
William E. Gay,	"	"	Soldiers' College, Ill.
E. H. Harvey,	"	"	Kalamazoo College, Mich.

H. B. McBride,	a graduate of	Monmouth College, Ill.
W. H. McCuskey,	" "	Western Alexander Academy, Pa.
Thomas L. Sexton,	" "	Washington and Jefferson College, Pa.
James G. Mildman,	" "	St. Joseph College, Mo.
James Williamson,	" "	Hanover College, Ind.
W. F. Wood,	" "	the College of New-Jersey.

Messrs. Placide, Bondreau, N. H. Downing, J. N. Hutchinson, Jeremiah Long, Robert B. Marshall, John Paterson, and Alexander S. Peck, having gone through the prescribed course of study, and having passed the usual examination creditably, have received the customary certificates of graduation.

It is especially gratifying to record that, during the winter, the Lord has blessed the labors of the students, in a growing and neglected suburb of the city, with a revival, and numerous conversions and accessions to the neighboring churches; and that they will all (with three exceptions) be engaged during the recess in direct evangelistic work. The blessing of such a baptism to the students entering on the work of the ministry, is scarcely secondary to that of the immediate results in the conversion of souls.

The Faculty, in their Report, commend the diligence of the students in their studies, and their exemplary Christian behavior. The housekeeping arrangements have been greatly improved during the year, at a very trifling advance of the cost of boarding, which, during the past year, has been $2.87½ per week for each student.

The Librarian reports, that 129 volumes have been added to the Library, during the year; 70 volumes of this number, donated by Rev. J. H. Nixon.

The Rev. Willis Lord, D.D., has given notice to the Board of his intention to resign the Cyrus H. McCormick chair of Didactic and Polemic Theology, to the General Assembly, at its present session. The Board unanimously request the Assembly, to appoint a Professor to this chair in case Dr. Lord's resignation should be accepted.

Referring to the Report of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, for the details of the financial condition of the Seminary, we would merely say here, that the Report shows that the

Balance in the Treasury, April 1st, 1869, was		$1,779 74
Received from all sources during the year,		33,306 55
		$35,086 29
The disbursements during the year have been as follows:
Professors' Salaries,	$8,758 81
Scholarship Funds,	1,555 00
Corning Library Fund,	42 10
Contingent Expenses,	1,492 95
Expenses of General Assembly's Convention,	427 15
Money Reloaned,	21,500 00
Cash in Treasury,	1,310 28
		$35,086 29

The Permanent Funds amount to		$101,837 78
Invested at 10 per cent,	$63,000 00
" " 9 "	26,418 00
The present indebtedness of the Seminary is estimated at	8,670 23

This includes $4343.75 due the Professors, voted them in April, 1869, on account of extra services, of which nothing has yet been paid; and $1241.19, due for arrearages on salaries during the present year.

During the year, the Financial Agent has collected, as appears from his Report:

Cash,	$7,262 80
Notes,	7,552 50

The Board of Directors notice that, in the Report of the Trustees, reference is made to the notes in possession of the Financial Agent. These notes have been placed in the hands of the Trustees, and a list thereof is preparing.

From the statement of the Treasurer it will be seen, that our financial condition is not as encouraging as was hoped and estimated a year ago. Owing to the deficiency in the endowment, the arrears are greater in amount than in previous years. We would earnestly commend the subject of Finance to the careful consideration of the General Assembly, in connection with its legislation in behalf of this Seminary.

It is known to the General Assembly, that the "Amicable Adjustment" of the controversy, arranged by its Committee in November last, was effected with this underlying clause, as the basis of the settlement, viz.: "It being understood that those friends of the Seminary, who have not yet contributed to its endowment, shall make prompt and earnest effort to raise for it the sum of, at least, twenty-five thousand dollars."

It will be remembered, also, that the General Assembly, in unanimously adopting the Report of its Committee, gave to this essential clause the following interpretation, viz.: "That, inasmuch as the course of events has brought into the circle of the friends of the Seminary, some who, under its original arrangements, chose to be left out, it is certainly the privilege and duty of these new friends, to recognize their responsibility, and either to discharge their part honorably in regard to its pecuniary wants, or to relinquish, to those who will, the direction of its affairs, subject to the rules and settled control of the General Assembly."

It is proper that the Board should inform the General Assembly, that the Permanent Invested Fund of the Seminary is only $213.78 greater than it was a year ago. Our indebtedness has grown to the amount of $8670.23.

The directions of the General Assembly, in the matters adjusted by their Committees of Investigation, have been obeyed, to the extent of releasing the remaining installment of the bond of Mr. McCormick, amounting to $25,000; in paying, on account of expenses of that Committee, $427.15, as shown by the Treasurer's Report; and by the resignation of the three Trustees, elected at the meeting of the Board of Directors held in April, 1869. At the present meeting of the Board, the three persons who, at the meeting in April, 1869, were superseded as Trustees, were reëlected.

A member of this Board has given notice of his intention to protest and complain to the General Assembly against the action of the Board, in reëlecting the Trustees displaced a year ago. This notice compels us to state to the Assembly, that the action complained of was taken, by an almost unanimous vote of the Board (14 to 4); and, in the opinion of the Board, is justified by the following considerations:

1st. There is nothing, in the agreement of last fall, to render the persons elected ineligible to the office of Trustee; it being considered, that the Committee's vindication removed all ground of objection.

2d. In view of the failure to raise the $25,000 (the understanding on which the entire agreement was based), it was supposed, that no party remained to whom these persons could be "unacceptable."

3d. The financial condition of the Seminary was such, that it was deemed essential, to place men in charge (at least temporarily), who were thoroughly familiar with the business of the Institution.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires with the sessions of this Assembly:

Ministers.	Elders.
Samuel T. Wilson, D.D.,	Henry Phelps,
Joseph G. Monfort, D.D.,	John McKee Peoples,
J. Price Safford, D.D.,	Samuel Howe,

SAMUEL HOWE, Treasurer.

Chicago, April 30, 1870.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees, this day, the following action was taken:

"The Treasurer's report was adopted; and the Secretary is instructed to present the same to the Board of Directors, as the financial report of the Board of Trustees, together with the following:

"Resolved, That, in submitting the financial report of the Seminary, this Board would respectfully call the attention of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, to the present financial condition of the Seminary, as shown by the accompanying Report, and would ask the Committee to devise some means (if in their power to do so), which will enable this Board to meet the pressing demands upon the Seminary."

H. A. HURLBUT, Secretary.

(2.) Minority Report.

The minority of said Board respectfully report to the General Assembly, that, in November last, the respective parties to the controversy, which had arisen in the Board of Directors, came, through the efforts of a Committee of Investigation appointed in May last by the General Assembly, to an agreement, by which it was believed, by the undersigned and those whom they represent, that an amicable adjustment of such controversy had been reached.

Such agreement was in writing, was signed by the representatives of the respective parties, and was in the words following:

"The parties to the controversy in regard to the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West, have agreed to this amicable adjustment, namely

1. "That 'bygones shall be bygones;' no further controversy respecting past issues to be indulged in, and all shall cordially unite in efforts to promote the prosperity of the Institution in the field of usefulness now about to widen so greatly before it.

2. "That, on the one hand, Dr. Lord shall retain the Chair of Theology to which he has been assigned by the General Assembly; and that, on the other hand, the General Assembly will order the release of Mr. McCormick from the fourth installment of his bond, and that the installments of the endowment already paid shall be regarded as a fulfillment of his entire obligation.

3. "That the three Trustees last elected shall resign, and their places shall be supplied by others not unacceptable to either party.

4. "That hereafter all the friends and patrons of the Seminary shall have a proper share in the management of the Institution, and that, as far as practicable, all the Synods particularly concerned shall be duly represented; it being understood that those friends of the Seminary, who have not yet contributed toward its endowment, shall make a prompt and earnest effort to raise for it the sum of, at least, twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

"Signed on behalf of the parties we respectively represent, on this third day of November, A.D. 1869.

D. C. Marquis,
H. G. Spafford."

That in pursuance of such agreement, and after the same had been reported to, and approved by, the General Assembly, the three Trustees, who in April, 1869, had been elected, at once tendered their resignations.

That, at the meeting of the Board of Directors held in April last, such resignations—tendered solely on the faith that such agreement would be honorably kept—were first formally accepted; and thereupon the majority of said Board of Directors then present, but constituting but a third of the entire Board, proceeded, in violation alike of the terms and spirit of such agreement, and in disregard of solemn protests then entered, to reinstate the three Trustees who had been superseded by those so resigning, well knowing them to be persons utterly unacceptable to one of the two parties represented in said agreement.

The undersigned, in presenting, as the above action has compelled them to do, this Minority Report, say that the statements, in the Majority Report of the said Board of Directors to this Assembly, to the effect, that the clause in said agreement relating to the prompt effort to be made to raise the $25,000, was "the basis of the settlement," and "the understanding on which the entire agreement was based," mean, if they mean any thing, that the agreement was throughout wholly conditioned upon the $25,000 clause; and because, within five months thereafter, that sum was not wholly raised, that the other party was at liberty to disregard the entire agreement and settlement, and hold it for naught.

The undersigned submit, that such a construction is wholly unauthorized:

First. The third clause in said agreement, to wit: "That the three Trustees last elected shall resign, and their places shall be filled by others not unacceptable to either party," was a distinct and independent contract, in no respect contingent in obligation upon the fourth clause of said agreement, and not rescinded or discharged by any failure of either party to keep the provisions of said fourth clause, even admitting, what is not the fact, that any such failure has occurred; and furthermore, a contract which either party was entitled, at once upon the signing of such agreement, to call for the fulfillment of, whether said $25,000 had or had not been raised; thus demonstrating that the third clause of such agreement could have been, in no respect, contingent for its obligation upon the raising of such $25,000.

Second. The said fourth article does not bind the party, assuming its obligation, either to raise said $25,000 by the first week in the following April (the time when the agreement was broken by the election of the three superseded Trustees), or absolutely to raise it by any given day, or at all; but to make a "prompt and earnest effort to raise" it, which "prompt and earnest" effort has in good faith been made, and made (though thus far under disadvantages which it is not necessary here to name) with partial success, and with what surely promises to be, at an early day, entire success.

The undersigned in this connection, submit, that the position taken in said

Majority Report, that the whole agreement was contingent upon the raising of the $25,000, and that within five months, is inconsistent with the language and clear intent of the agreement; that it is an afterthought devised with the hope of thus in some degree mitigating the appearance of an unjustifiable act.

The undersigned, in this connection, further submit, that the agreement must speak for itself, and be interpreted by itself, and that any language, used in the Report of the Investigating Committee, communicating such agreement to the General Assembly, is no part of the agreement, and is in no respect obligatory as such upon the parties to it, they knowing nothing of the language of such Report till it was read in the General Assembly.

The undersigned, in connection with the statement in said Majority Report, that the vote in the Board of Directors reinstating such Trustees was "an almost unanimous" one, say that the Board of Directors consists of forty persons, and that the total number present, at the time chosen for taking such action reinstating, was but eighteen, counting both ayes and nays.

The three considerations given in said Majority Report, and by which the action reinstating the three Trustees is sought to be justified, the undersigned are compelled to characterize as pretexts.

First, because in the light of the known, grave, and repeatedly declared objections of the undersigned and those represented by them, to the three displaced Trustees, and the formal protest made and urged immediately prior to their reinstatement, it is incredible that any one could have "supposed," as said Report declares, "that no party remains to whom these persons could be unacceptable," and equally incredible, that any one could have "considered," as it further declares, that "the Committee's vindication removes all ground of objection."

Second, (and in reply to the third of such "considerations,") because any one impartially desiring to know the facts, and not determined in advance to believe, that the welfare of the Seminary was solely dependent upon its ability to secure further donations from a single man, could readily have ascertained that the finances of the Seminary are in a sound and most promising condition; that it had an income, during the past year, after deducting all expenses of collection, of $15.897.42; and that its income during the present year must be, as certainly as any thing future can be certain, a much greater sum; and the undersigned submit, that, in order from henceforth to attract contributions sufficient for the widest needs of the Institution, it is only necessary that the General Assembly's action, at the present time, should be such as to convince the wide circle of those in the North-West willing to be its friends, that an unseemly personal interference with its affairs is no longer, under any circumstances whatever, to be permitted.

The undersigned further state, that the passages in such Majority Report, relating to the financial affairs of the Seminary, in whatever spirit they may have been conceived, are calculated, as they stand, to give an incorrect impression respecting such affairs.

The undersigned state the facts to be, that the Seminary has property worth more than $400,000.

That its entire indebtedness, April 1st, 1870, was $8670.23. That, of this amount, the sum of $4343.75 represents no new debt, but the funding of a floating debt, due to two professors for extra service, rendered during the five years prior to April, 1868.

That the further sum of $939.91 represents the expenses, in November, 1869, of the General Assembly's Investigating Committee at Chicago, a special and extraordinary expense, cast upon the Seminary the past year, and never likely to recur.

Deducting, from the total debt, the amount of these two items, $5283.66, it will be seen that the balance of debt is but $3386.57, or $349.56 less than it was one year ago.

That of this $3386.57 there has been already paid nearly $2000, leaving less than $1500 as the total balance of the present indebtedness, less the two above-named special items.

The undersigned further state that, on the 1st of April, 1869, under the administration of the three reinstated Trustees, but $24,800 of the Endowment Fund stood loaned at ten per cent. That, on the 1st of April, 1870, under the administration of the Trustees who resigned in conformity to the agreement, $63,000 of such fund stood loaned at ten per cent, secured by first mortgage on Chicago real estate worth more than twice that sum.

The undersigned further state, that the Treasurer, who signs the Report of the Trustees appended to such Majority Report, is one of the three Trustees recently reinstated in the manner above shown.

The undersigned (calling attention to the last clause in said Treasurer's Report, in which allusion is made to certain notes in the possession of the Financial Agent, but which, as the said Treasurer reports, "he has no means of knowing the amount of, nor the probable sum to be realized from them during the present year") state that the entire number of such notes had, before that time, been placed by said Agent in the hands of said Treasurer, and that said Agent stood ready and willing to give any information desired regarding them; that the amount of such omitted notes was no less than $29,068.39; that no account whatever is taken by said Treasurer in his tables of assets, in said Report, of such notes, thus making the assets of the Seminary appear less by such $29,068.39 than they really are; and that, when he was questioned by the Executive Committee regarding such omission, it appeared, from his own statement, that he did not include such notes in his Report, solely because the same, when handed to him by said Agent, were not sorted and arranged according to his wishes; so that their amounts, and times of maturity, could, with the utmost possible convenience, be ascertained by him. And in this connection the undersigned submit, that this omission in the Treasurer's Report, the mode of expression chosen in the last clause of his Report, and other references made in that document to the present Financial Agent, Rev. William B. Truax, are calculated to reflect most unjustly and groundlessly upon the financial ability, if not the integrity, of a faithful and capable officer, whose efforts on behalf of the Seminary, as its records show, have been eminently successful.

The undersigned further state, that the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, who signs the minutes of proceedings appended at the end of the Treasurer's Report, is also one of the three reinstated Trustees; and they submit, that the view taken by these reinstated Trustees, and the party in sympathy with them, of the financial condition and prosperity of the Seminary, originates (unconsciously perhaps) in the necessity upon them of justifying their actions, tending to render it financially dependent upon the generosity of an individual, rather than on the resources of the United Church; and also in the necessity of defending, in some sort, their breach of the agreement.

The undersigned further say, that the reinstatement of the three Trustees is a breach not only of the said written agreement, but also of a plain understanding had with brethren of the late "New School," to the effect that, at the next change in the Board of Trustees, persons representing that "School" should be made Trustees; in reliance upon such understanding, such brethren had already, in good faith, acted, by the election of several "Old School" brethren as Trustees of the Lake Forest University.

The undersigned, in conclusion, say that they and those whom they represent have, in these matters, observed, in all respects and in good faith, their obligations under said agreement; that the violation thereof is an offense, not against the undersigned, but against fair dealing, and the authority of the General Assembly; and to this Assembly, the undersigned, on behalf of the best interests of the Seminary, and of the great body of North-Western Presbyterians, and not of any party, appeal. They ask that the three reinstated Trustees be requested at once to resign, and that the Board of Directors be instructed to fill their places as the agreement provides.

All of which is, by the undersigned, and those whom they represent, respectfully submitted.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

DEATH OF MISSIONARIES.

Death has been busy among the missionary band. Seven laborers have been stricken down—nearly all young in years, and well fitted to do much and continued good in their respective fields—but in heaven's purposes they were needed elsewhere, and needed by their death to bring the Church into closer sympathy with the Cause itself. Of the seven, five were ministers of the Gospel—Messrs. Amos, Reutlinger, Henry, Myers, and Morrison; one was the wife of the Rev. J. Menaul; and the other, Miss Walsh, had recently joined her parents in India as an assistant missionary. Three of these were at work in Africa, three in India, and one in China.

MISSIONS AND MISSIONARIES.

The Missions of the Board are the same as in former years—among the Jews, the Chinese, and the Aborigines of our own country; among the Romanists in Brazil, and the United States of Colombia; in Japan, China, Siam, the Laos, India, Corisco, and Liberia. These missions have been strengthened, the past year, by thirteen ordained ministers, and nineteen assistant missionaries; of these, seven were unmarried ladies, and twenty-two new laborers—male and female. One independent mission, that of Kolapoor, on the western coast of India, with its missionary and native assistant, has been taken under the care of the Board. Ordinations of native Preachers have taken place in China, India, and Liberia, and the licensure of a Candidate for the ministry in Siam. More than twenty young men are in process of training for the ministry. In connection with the Board are 84 missionaries, 15 ordained native preachers, 8 native licentiates, 3 physicians, 87 assistant missionaries (of whom 20 are unmarried females, laboring among their own sex in different countries, besides three mainly supported by other organizations), 199 native helpers, and 54 churches (of which three were organized during the year, with a membership as far as reported of 2047). Schools, attended by more than 7000 children, are maintained in most of the missions. To the churches were added some 270 new members.

TRIALS.

The Laos mission has been subject to such severe trials as may result in its suspension for a season. Whilst enjoying the smiles of heaven, the wrath of the king was enkindled against the truth, two of the native Christians were murdered by his orders, and warrants for the seizure of others were issued. Amidst these trials several became interested in Christianity, and were waiting for baptism.

FINANCES.

The expenditures for the year, with the balance against the treasury, last year, of $5437, have been $316,542. The receipts have been only $271,940, leaving a balance of $44,602. [Since this announcement was made to the churches, a few friends have nobly come forward and virtually paid this debt.] The present ratio of giving for this enterprise cannot sustain the present demands of the work. It must either be increased, or the other must be arrested; and this is the alternative to be considered by all concerned.

Abstract of the Ninth Annual Report.

The Committee of Home Missions, in presenting their Ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly, desire to make acknowledgment of the divine favor in the good-will and liberality of his people, manifested in their generous support of the Home Missionary work during the year, and the quietness, comfort, and success with which the Missionaries have been permitted to prosecute their labors.

Our conviction grows stronger every year that the preaching of the Gospel is what is wanted to give new life and growth to feeble churches at the East, and lay the foundations for churches in the new settlements at the West. We have also satisfied ourselves that the only true economy, in missionary labor, is to send out men of the best abilities, and pay them adequately, so that their whole time and strength can be given to the work of the Ministry.

The past year has been one of large emigration to the West, and consequently our work there has been very great. The whole number of churches formed, in connection with our work, during the year, is 115, or 45 more than last year. Of these, 26 have been formed in Kansas; 19, in both Missouri and Iowa; 10, in Illinois; 8, in Minnesota; 12, in South-Carolina (among the Freedmen); and the others in smaller numbers in other States and Territories.

We have found it impossible to furnish men for the numerous fields opening to us, and appealing for help. But we have been able to have in our employ, during the whole or a part of the year, 530 missionaries, or 45 more than the previous year. Our receipts, according to the Treasurer's Report, have been $172,871.93, or $13,631.83 more than the previous year. Yet, of our 1631 churches, only 1031 have contributed any thing to our Treasury.

Our work in cities has been on the increase, 25 such enterprises having been aided during the year. Some of them have become self-sustaining; and, taken as a whole, all are in an encouraging condition. Four are colored churches, four German, and two Hollandish.

In the Church, now happily united, we cannot but hope that there will be such an increase of liberality, such an increase in the ministry, and such an outpouring of the Spirit, that our past shall be to our future successes but as the light of early dawn to the glowing splendors of noonday; and that this goodly land may speedily be filled with many millions, all enjoying the institutions of religion, fearing, serving, and worshiping God.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Domestic Missions respectfully present, to the General Assembly, this their Sixty-eighth Annual Report. We discharge this duty with mingled feelings of sadness and joy;—with sadness, as this is the last Report of the Board as a separate agency of the O. S. Branch of the Church; and with joy, in view of its consolidation with the Home Missionary Committee of the N. S. Branch of the Church—the fruit of our blessed Re-union.

During the first nine months of the year, the receipts of the Board were greatly diminished, as compared with the corresponding period of the year preceding; but, during the last three months of the year, they were much larger than was anticipated, so that we were enabled to close the year with a large balance in the Treasury. What is better still, the year was characterized by numerous precious revivals of religion; the number of our missionaries was greatly increased; their labors were signally blessed; our missionary churches were generally revived and strengthened; and the work, as a whole, was unusually prospered. In reviewing the year, therefore, we feel that there is special cause for thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God.

MISSIONARIES.—The whole number of missionaries in commission last year was 613, which is 67 more than the year preceding. They were located in the following States and Territories, viz.:

1 in Arizona, 11 in California, 3 in Colorado, 3 in Delaware, 2 in Florida, 91 in Illinois, 38 in Indiana, 81 in Iowa, 23 in Kansas, 11 in Kentucky, 3 in Louisiana, 9 in Maryland, 2 in Massachusetts, 4 in Michigan, 27 in Minnesota, 1 in Mississippi, 50 in Missouri, 11 in Nebraska, 18 in New-Jersey, 2 in New-Mexico, 27 in New-York, 11 in North-Carolina, 49 in Ohio, 4 in Oregon, 71 in Pennsylvania, 3 in South-Carolina, 7 in Tennessee, 3 in Texas, 3 in Virginia, 1 in Washington, 11 in West-Virginia, 30 in Wisconsin, 1 in Wyoming, and 1 unsettled.

The number of churches and missionary stations, wholly or in part supplied (as far as reported) by our missionaries, is 705.

The number of newly organized churches is 62.

The number of admissions on examination is 3107, and on certificate, 2229; making the total of admissions, 5336.

The number in communion with churches connected with the Board is 28,839.

The number of baptisms is 2943.

Of the 613 missionaries who have been in commission during the year, 139, more than one fifth of the whole number, have sent in no special report; consequently we must increase all the returns one fifth to make them correct.

Appropriations.—The appropriations made to our missionaries, from March 1st, 1869, to March 1st, 1870, were $143,820; $30,071 more than the year preceding.

As the missionary appointments are made, with very few exceptions, for twelve months, and are scattered over the whole year, of course a large number of the appropriations made during the year have not yet fully matured, but will be falling due as the present year advances.

Receipts and Payments.—The total amount of receipts from all sources, from March 1st, 1869, to March 1st, 1870, was $127,727.76. To which add the balance on hand, March 1st, 1869, $60,716.71; making the available resources of the Board during the year, $188,444.47.

The receipts during the present year were less by nearly $30,000, as compared with the year immediately preceding; but they were more by nearly $15,000, as compared with those of 1867–8, and more by $30,000 than those of 1866–7. The falling off the present year, as compared with the year immediately preceding, was doubtless owing to the extraordinary effort that was made in 1868–9, to extricate the Board from its then financial embarrassment.

The payments during the year were $123,406.88; leaving a balance in the Treasury on March 1st, 1870, of $65,037.59.

Clothing.—One hundred and sixteen boxes, barrels, and packages, containing clothing valued at $23,855.57, were received and distributed among the missionaries during the year; and eight boxes, barrels, and packages, of which no valuation was reported;—the value of the whole being probably about $25,000.

Supplement.

The subjoined is a Supplemental Report of the operations of the Board, since the commencement of the present fiscal year, viz.: from March 1st, 1870, to May 10th, 1870.

During this period the receipts have been $21,966.04, which is more by $9743.60 than during the corresponding period of last year.

The appropriations during this period have been $66,217, which is more by $30,200 than during the corresponding period of last year.

During the same period, viz., from March 1st, 1870, to May 10th, 1870, there have been 240 appointments, viz.: 84 new appointments, and 156 reappointments.

The new appointments have been distributed as follows:

4 in California, 4 in Colorado Territory, 1 in Delaware, 1 in Florida, 17 in Illinois, 4 in Indiana, 5 in Iowa, 6 in Kansas, 1 in Kentucky, 2 in Maryland, 1 in Michigan, 9 in Minnesota, 4 in Missouri, 3 in New-Jersey, 3 in New-York, 9 in Ohio, 2 in Oregon, 3 in Pennsylvania, 1 in Virginia, 1 in Washington Territory, 1 in West-Virginia, 2 in Wisconsin.

The balance in the Treasury, May 10th, 1870, is $60,173.65.

From the foregoing Supplemental Report it will be seen that the Board is at present in a financially strong and highly prosperous condition—in fact it is more so than it has ever been at any previous period since its organization. We repeat what was said in the Annual Report, that if the Home Missionary Committee at New-York is in an equally strong condition, as we hope it is, the Reconstructed Board will be able to enter upon its enlarged work under circumstances highly auspicious.

Treasurer.

Abstract of the Sixteenth Annual Report.

At the annual meeting held in the month of June, 1869, the Board appointed Rev. J. Fewsmith, D.D., President; Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D., Corresponding Secretary; and John P. Crosby, Esq., Recording Secretary and Treasurer. At that time three District Secretaries were employed in different parts of the Church. The reason of their appointment had been, that less than one fourth of the churches had responded to the appeals of the General Secretary, and nearly all the funds had been contributed by the limited number of churches to which the Secretary could gain personal access.

But, at the first meeting of the new fiscal year, the Board resolved to discontinue all District Secretaries except one, as the gain in funds had not been in proportion to the expense.

On making this change they issued a Circular, appealing to all, who desired to encourage economy in the management of our Church work, to lend their influence by sending a prompt contribution to the Treasury. The result of that appeal was a failure, showing that it is still true that, however the churches may complain of the employment of agents, they will not generally support our regular Causes without their solicitation.

The Board have found it difficult during the year to harmonize the general work of church building, through the Fund, with the various local efforts for Church Extension in cities and Presbyteries.

The very stimulus which, through the press and otherwise, this Board has exerted, tends, so far as it leads to local enterprises, to diminish the regular receipts of the Treasurer. Thus, in Albany, Brooklyn, Newark, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Buffalo, Rochester, Utica, and elsewhere, an increased interest appears in the work of building suburban churches, and, as a result, in many of these places regular contributions have been almost wholly withheld.

As the Board have been often requested to acknowledge these efforts, they have reported various sums raised by the churches for particular cases of charitable church building, as "special." They have endeavored to secure them to the denomination by reversionary lien, though they have not always succeeded —not even in a majority of cases.

The whole amount reported by our Treasurer is $77,588.48, namely: regular receipts from churches and individuals, $36,966.88; interest on permanent investments, $6014.40; interest on current funds, $1465.34; specials, reported to the Board by churches, $33,141.40.

Some two or three thousand dollars additional have been contributed, but too late to be included in this Report. The Board has received no legacies during the year. The whole number of churches contributing during the year is four hundred and eighty-two.

The number of churches which have received appropriations is seventy, eight of which were churches among the Freedmen.

In contemplating the work of the future, the Board would recommend:

1. The formation of a rule, that only such sums as shall be secured to the denomination by mortgage shall hereafter be acknowledged as special. Unless local grants be thus secured to the General Assembly through its one Board, this work seems likely to be divided into a multitude of local and sectional interests having no common bond.
2. Some plan for securing the insurance of mortgaged church property.
3. A plan for securing free grants of land for church purposes.
4. An appropriation from the five million dollar fund to supply the four hundred churches now destitute of church edifices, that this work may hereafter move hand in hand with that of Home Missions. The newly organized churches of each year will demand all its future resources.
5. A compromise with churches now in debt—such a compromise as shall be easy to the churches without violating the conditions of the Fund.

The members of the Board have resigned their office, to take effect on the choice of a new Board.

J. FEWSMITH, President.

F. F. Ellinwood, Corresponding Secretary.

V. BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Abstract of the Fifteenth Annual Report.

The progress made during the year, may be seen, from the following facts and figures:

The number of churches, that have contributed during the year, is 1086, or 71 more than last year. The average grants of the Board have been $523, an advance of eight per cent upon last year.

Applications.—During the year just ended, one hundred and fifty-two (152) churches asked for aid, to the amount of $116,652.81, averaging $772 to each church.

Last year one hundred and forty-one churches applied for $77,367.88, an average of nearly $549 to each church. While the number of applications is only eleven in advance of last year, the amount asked for is greater by $39,284.93.

If to the one hundred and fifty-two applications filed during the year, there be added those not disposed of, April 1st, 1869, it will be seen that the Board actually had before them during the year under review, applications from two hundred and twenty-five churches, calling for $180,752.81—an amount much larger than in any year of its previous history.

There remained on file, April 1st, 1870, awaiting the receipt of further information, applications from sixty-nine churches, calling for $66,050.

Appropriations.—Appropriations were made, during the year, to one hundred and twenty-five churches. The amount granted to these churches was $65,456.15—being an average of $523 to each church. In comparatively few instances has the appropriation been less than the amount asked for and recommended by the Presbytery.

Appropriations to the amount of $3650 were withdrawn from seven churches, because not called for within the prescribed time of two years. To four of these churches, however, new appropriations have since been made.

One hundred and twelve churches drew their appropriations, amounting to $60,213.13.

Receipts and Expenditures.—The balance, appropriated and unappropriated, on hand, April 1st, 1869, was $48,939.09. The receipts from April 1st, 1869, to April 1st, 1870, were $73,060.01. The entire amount of the funds of the Board, during the year, was therefore $121,999.10.

From the Treasurer's Report in the Appendix, it appears that the expenditures were $65,338.57. The balance, therefore, in the Treasury, April 1st, 1870, is $56,660.53.

There were however unpaid at that time, liabilities amounting to $13,900, leaving an unpledged balance of $42,760.53 to meet applications already filed (and that may at any time furnish the requisite information), amounting to $66,050.

Presented in the usual tabular form, the financial condition of the Board, April 1st, 1870, was this, viz.:

Pledges already given,	$13,900 00
Applications filed, but not yet acted on,	66,050 00
Total demands, April 1st, 1870,	$79,950 00
Total assets,	56,660 53
Deficit of means,	$23,289 47

The Work Done.—With this Report, the Board of Church Extension closes its fifteenth year of labor. In that time it has received in all $515,287.36. It has made appropriations to one thousand and forty churches, amounting to $458,780. It has thus aided in securing church property worth $3,575,000 and in furnishing church accommodation to at least two hundred and fifty thousand worshipers.

During the same fifteen years, the Trustees of the Church Erection Fund have received about $300,000, and aided about 480 churches with grants and loans amounting to nearly $200,000. Our now happily united Presbyterian Church has, therefore, since 1855, raised through its organized agencies over $815,000 for Church Erection; aided more than fifteen hundred and twenty churches, that will probably accommodate three hundred and sixty thousand worshipers; and secured church property worth over $5,000,000.

This is, in view of all the facts, a cheering record, and far surpasses the organized Church Erection work of any sister church in the land. It falls, however, far short of the wants and the opportunities of our time and our country. With an annual addition of nearly a million to our population, with the organization of nearly two hundred churches annually in our communion—with the appeals of our more than four hundred houseless bands of disciples ringing in our ears, we may well call upon our four hundred thousand members for a million of dollars, to push forward a work, whose ample experience has shown it to be so vital and permanent in its influences and results.

Abstract of the Fifty-first Annual Report.

The year has been one of the most prosperous in the history of the Board as to the number of students, as to the character of the students, and as to the financial condition of the Board.

The number of new Candidates received during the year has been 109. The whole number on the roll during the year has been 391, of whom there have been in their Theological course, 135; Collegiate, 175; Academical, 81. The entire number received since 1819, has been 3715.

The increase of the total number under the care of the Board during the past six years has been as follows: 1865, there were 254; in 1866, 296; in 1867, 261; in 1868, 294; in 1869, 334; in 1870, 391. This is attributed, in the first place, to the providential restoration of peace and its blessings to the land; in the next, to the direct influence of the Holy Spirit on the hearts of men, leading them to long and pray for the healing of former breaches, to seek closer union among those holding the same general doctrines and order, and to consecrate themselves and their children more earnestly to the service of God; and, in the last place, to the means employed by the Board to interest the membership of the Church in its work, history, and aims, and in the missionary wants of the land and the world. The growth therefore seems to be not spasmodic, but sound and healthful.

The number on the roll, during the last year, has only been excelled, during the history of the Board, in some of the years occurring during the revival periods of 1832 to '36, 1843 to '47, and 1858 to '61; in each of which periods a wave of spiritual power passed over the land, connected in some way with a great kindred movement in the Church of Christ upon other continents.

The general high tone of piety and moral character among the Candidates aided during the year has excited the Board to much thankfulness. But two cases have been reported of such doctrinal or moral defection as to require the Candidates to be dropped from its roll. In others, the Presbyteries with which young men have been connected have, by timely and faithful admonition, succeeded in restoring them to the path of duty.

THE EDUCATIONAL WANTS OF A RE-UNITED CHURCH.

Of these, the first is that she shall rise to a clear, comprehensive, and affecting view of the Divine purposes in the present age. The opinions of some of the wisest and holiest men of late generations show, that the Church of God is rapidly approaching the period of the floods of "the latter rain" of the Holy Spirit.

The second want is a realization of the place which God seems to invite it to take, in the establishment on earth of the kingdom of his Son Jesus Christ.

The Union of the two great branches of the Church is the offspring of the missionary spirit; it began in the missionary fields; and no obligation of the Re-united Church is more evident and strong than that it should set itself to be a great missionary Church!

There are some peculiar reasons, which might be drawn from a consideration of the evangelical doctrines, the effective organization, the past history, and the present position, in this country, and in the great missionary field, to show that it is the special duty of this great arm of the Church of the living God, to endeavor to give a new and mighty impulse to the evangelization of the human race.

The third requisition of the Church at this epoch is, that she shall institute efforts to train her rising ministry in harmony with the spirit, and prepared to meet the calls of the great providential movement which the whole world now sensibly feels.

The Board commend the deep and far-reaching wisdom of the recommendation of the Joint Committee, in regard to the disposition of the collections for the Memorial Fund, indicating institutions of learning, collegiate and theological, as possessing claims of the first class. Also the steps taken in some of our Colleges, to give a practical religious application to geographical, scientific, philological, and other studies. It is urged that the theological education of all Candidates for the ministry should, from this era of the Church, be made more practical, and the wide field, open for instruction in respect to Evangelistic Theology, is presented to view. It is most earnestly urged, that measures should be adopted for the maintenance of a permanent Committee on Education in each Presbytery, which should be responsible for keeping Candidates in view; for regularly bringing matters relating to their standing, wants, and employments before their brethren ; and for the correspondence required with the Board concerning those aided from the funds of the Church.

The fourth want is, that the Church shall establish the means, necessary thoroughly to awaken her membership to the sense of the vast responsibilities in respect to money and property which God has laid upon them at the present time. This head shows the imperative necessity of a scriptural, uniform, and efficient financial system, inasmuch as there is no stumbling-block in the way of the increase of the ministry so great as the want of money, to educate, send forth, and maintain young men, who would be otherwise willing to go forth to preach the Gospel.

The following is the statement of the condition of the Treasury, from the 1st of April, 1869, to the 1st of April, 1870:

	I. Candidates' Fund.	II. Schools and Colleges.
Receipts............	$48,865 32	$3,411 34
Balance, 1869.........	6,819 16	967 80
	55,684 48	4,379 14
Payments............	49,805 22	2,355 83
Balance.............	$5,879 26	$2,023 31

Total receipts from all sources, $52,276.66. Balance in the treasury, $7902.57. Increase of receipts over the twelve months, ending April 1st, 1869, $5492.78. To this is to be added the sum of $5431, a bequest from J. A. Jacobs, Esq., of Danville, Ky., the interest of which only is to be used, for the benefit of colored candidates for the ministry.

It has been a cause of much thankfulness to God, and of gratitude to faithful Christian brethren, that, during several years past, the Board, though it may have been compelled at times to borrow from the treasury of its ministerial department to pay appropriations for schools, yet has not been under the necessity of borrowing a dollar from outside sources.

In the department of General Education, it is reported that eighteen Schools, Academies, and Colleges, and the German Theological School at Dubuque, have been aided during the year. Brief reports are given from most of them. It is stated with regard to the German Theological School that, in view of its great usefulness and interesting character, the General Assembly should adopt some means to set the school upon a foundation, to free its teachers from so much anxiety as to the pecuniary support of it, and to show the Church's appreciation of their noble work.

VII. EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Abstract of the Fourteenth Annual Report.

Under the instructions of the last General Assembly, the unsettled appropriations of the previous year were provided for, so that, without unnecessary delay, all the Candidates of that year were paid their full customary allowance. And the Committee, cordially accepting the action of the Assembly, as a warrant, have since unhesitatingly paid their students at the times and in the measure promised, without regard to the contributions made to their treasury.

The number of Candidates duly accredited to the Committee, and entered on their roll of aid during the year now closed, has reached 236, against 210 of the previous year. Of this number, 66 are original cases, while all the rest have been, at one time or another, previously assisted by them.

These Candidates represent seventy Presbyteries; Utica furnishing 22 ; Cayuga, 18 ; Cleveland and Portage, 16 ; Union, 11 ; and no others more than 9.

Of these students, there have been in the	Theological Course,	77
" " " "	Collegiate "	107
" " " "	Academic "	52—236

Those in the Theological Course have enjoyed the training of different Seminaries as follows:

Auburn, 26; Lane, 23; Union, 22; Chicago, 2; Princeton, Western, North-Western, and Andover, each 1.

Twenty-five Colleges and 17 Academies, widely dispersed, East, West, and South, have contributed to the Academical discipline of our Candidates. Of the Colleges, Hamilton leads in the number it has trained—31; Wabash follows, having 24, of whom 7 are preparatory; Western Reserve, 18, of whom 2 are preparatory; Lincoln University, 12, of whom 5 are preparatory; Maryville, Tenn., 12, of whom 8 are preparatory; Marietta, 7, of whom 3 are preparatory; Blackburn University, 6, of whom 4 are preparatory; and others in smaller number.

Twenty-six of the Candidates have completed their Theological course, and enter at once on the responsible work of the ministry. Others, who have hitherto been aided from the funds of the Assembly, but have not required it during the current year, are at this time added to the number of laborers in the great harvest of the Gospel.

The entire resources of the Permanent Committee for the year, including the balance from the previous year, have been $37,005.34. And their entire disbursements for the same period, $39,592.27, exceeding their resources by the sum of $2586.93, and leaving the treasury in debt to that amount on the 14th of May, when the account was closed for the Assembly. Returns, however, of late collections, which are coming in from the churches, will greatly reduce this adverse balance, if they do not entirely wipe it out. But for the deficiency in the receipts of the last year which they were required to assume, amounting to nearly four thousand dollars, the Committee, notwithstanding the enlarged number of beneficiaries on the funds, would now have a pleasant cash balance to pass over to their successors in this work. The financial aspect is regarded as favorable in its promise for the future. Although more than eight thousand dollars of the income is under the head of legacies, which are not a constant or reliable source of income, yet the ordinary offerings of churches and individuals have reached the sum of $26,644, which is in excess of last year's offerings by $2606, or an advance of eleven per cent; while the offerings of the last year were themselves thirty-seven per cent in advance of the previous year.

The advance in contributing churches is in almost the exact measure of the advance of contributions. From 277 congregations which sent in their contributions during the year 1867–8, the number rose to 372 in the year 1868–9, and to 422 in 1869–70, the present year; being an advance of thirty-four per cent for the last year, and thirteen and a half per cent the present year.

There has been an increase in the number of colored young men under the care of the Committee. We have now 14. Of these, 11 are pursuing their studies at Lincoln University; and 3, at Maryville College, Tennessee. They have been received, under the same conditions and guarantees with the white students; and, so far as we can judge from the reports given us, they average fully as well in progress and promise as other students.

In making this their last Annual Report, it seems proper that the Committee should exhibit the results of their work, so far at least as regards the Candidates assisted, and those who, by their assistance, have passed into the ranks of the ministry. The real term of their administration of this important interest of the Church is only eight years. Though the Permanent Committee was established in 1856, and fully organized in March, 1857, it was not until the year 1862, that they found themselves in possession of the field intended for them.

Year.	Candidates on the Roll.	Entering on the Ministry.
1864	87	20
1865	99	15
1866	135	13
1867	145	15
1868	205	24
1869	210	21
Total	1218	156

It is to be observed that the figures do not express the entire result of the work of the Committee in bringing young men into the ministry, since they represent only such as were on the roll of aid at the time of closing their preparations. Others have come into the ranks of the ministry, assisted in some parts of their course by the Committee, who did not require aid in the last year of their preparation. It has been honorable to the young men aided by us, that they have ever manifested a disposition to dispense with assistance when it has ceased to be necessary. And thus the same persons have been on and off the roll of aid in different years, as occasion has required.

The term of office of the following named gentlemen, members of the class of 1870, expires with the meeting of the Assembly, viz., Rev. James P. Wilson, D.D.; Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D.; Rev. J. Glentworth Butler, D.D.; Henry Ide, and William H. H. Moore.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

By the help of God and his people, this Board has continued to add to its Catalogue valuable and useful publications; and to send forth large numbers of religious books and tracts to give light to such as are in darkness, to convert and save sinners who have been without the true knowledge of a divine

Saviour, and to edify, strengthen, and cheer the children of God. It rejoices in the many testimonies it has received, from various and widely-scattered sources, that the Holy Spirit has accompanied and blest these books and tracts, making them his chosen instruments to lead souls to the enjoyment of eternal life.

While in every other respect the past year has been behind no other, perhaps in advance of every other, in the Board's history, in a commercial point of view it has been a year of much discouragement. Rarely has the present generation of business men seen a year of such dullness and even stagnation of business. This fact, the causes of which it is not necessary for us here to enlarge upon, or even to suggest, has been met in every department of trade and commerce. It has been particularly true in regard to the book-trade—affecting more or less severely the business of every publishing and bookselling house in the country.

The last General Assembly adopted a resolution directing the Board "to make a discount on its Sabbath-school books to all Sabbath-schools purchasing the same; also on books sold for congregational libraries." This direction has been faithfully obeyed. The exceedingly depressed condition of business during the past year has prevented any intelligent judgment from being formed, as yet, in regard to the general and permanent effect which the adoption of this system of discounts is likely to have upon the Board's sales and circulation. It seems to have gratified many who before regarded the Board as lacking liberality in its terms of sale; and in this result the Board experiences much satisfaction, as its earnest desire is to please, so far as may be practicable, every part of our beloved Church and of its membership.

The following Report covers the twelvemonth extending from March 1st, 1869, to March 1st, 1870, and reviews successively the three departments of production, distribution, and sustentation:

1. The Department of Production.

The Board has issued during the year,

		Copies.
50	new Books, of which have been printed	52,000
3	18mo Tracts,	11,000
4	German Tracts,	9,000
15	Portuguese Books and Tracts,	29,000
12	Spanish Books and Tracts,	17,250
1	Certificate,	250
6	12mo Tracts,	10,000
	Total copies of new publications,	128,500

The Reprints of former publications during the year have been,

Of Books,	88,400
Of Tracts,	227,500
Of Catechisms,	133,000
Of Packets,	12,000	460,900
Total number of publications during the year,		589,400
Total number of copies of Books and Tracts issued by the Board since its organization,		15,132,788

In addition to the above, there have been printed during the year

Of the Sabbath-School Visitor,	1,765,000
Of the Home and Foreign Record,	175,000
Of the Annual Report of the Board,	3,500
Of the Report on Systematic Beneficence,	21,000

LARGER SABBATH-SCHOOL BOOKS.

In compliance with a recommendation adopted by the General Assembly of 1868, the Board has been diligently endeavoring "to print and circulate a larger number of books adapted to that class of the young who are of more advanced years and culture." A very considerable proportion of the new books issued last year are of the kind described, and it is hoped will be found both attractive and useful to the class for which they are intended.

SPANISH PUBLICATIONS.

The Board has published within the past year a number of small publications in the Spanish language. Among these are translations of the "Shorter Catechism," the "Child's Catechism," and a considerable number of excellent Tracts, a part of them translated from the choicest English Tracts already on the Board's catalogue, the remainder selected and republished (after a careful revision) from the issues of the London Religious Tract Society. Besides those named in the list of new publications contained in this Report, about twenty others are now in press, but could not be got out in time to be mentioned in that list.

PORTUGUESE PUBLICATIONS.

During the year now under review, the Board has published a considerable number of works in the Portuguese language. These were selected by our brethren, the missionaries of our Board of Foreign Missions, laboring in Brazil. These Portuguese publications have already begun to do a good work in Brazil.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL VISITOR.

Our Sabbath-School Visitor continues to go into the Sabbath-schools in every portion of our Church, and but one voice has come to us respecting it. That is a voice of warm approval, both in regard to its dress and its contents. Within a few years there has been a very large increase in the circulation of the Visitor, which still steadily continues. During the winter months, when many of the Sabbath-schools in country places are closed, the circulation of the monthly has this year been 100,000 copies, besides 46,000 copies of the semi-monthly. In the summer months, the monthly issue reached a circulation of 106,000 copies, and the semi-monthly 50,000 copies.

THE RECORD.

We are sorry to state that the circulation of the Record has declined 4000 copies during the past year, having fallen from 16,000 copies, reported a year ago, to 12,000 copies, the present monthly issue. The number of religious papers and magazines, of every sort, now published in our country, is so great, and the earnestness with which they are urged upon the patronage of our churches and people is so importunate, that unless pastors and sessions firmly use their influence in behalf of the Record, it is pretty certain to be crowded out.

A gratuitous copy has, for many years past, been sent to every minister, licentiate, and candidate for the ministry in our connection—making about three thousand free copies. The price of the Record for churches was fixed some years ago, by direction of the General Assembly, at twenty-five cents per copy, a figure considerably below its actual and possible cost.

2. The Department of Distribution.

I. SALES IN THE DEPOSITORY.

The number of volumes sold in the Depository has been 215,858, and the number of pages of Tracts 221,586. The net value of these bookstore sales is $47,392.50. This amount includes none of the sales by colporteurs, which are stated elsewhere.

The value of Books sent to our Theological Seminaries by order of the General Assembly, and to authors and editors, is $1304.45.

II. DISTRIBUTIONS THROUGH THE COLPORTAGE AND DISTRIBUTION FUND.

This Fund is replenished by an annual contribution in the churches, by donations from individuals, and by legacies. It is kept entirely distinct from the general funds and business operations of the Board, and is used exclusively for carrying forward what may be called its missionary operations, that is, for paying the salaries and expenses of colporteurs and the cost of their gratuitous distributions; also the cost of the Books and Tracts voted as grants by the Executive Committee to mission Sabbath-schools, needy ministers, humane institutions, etc., etc.

COLPORTAGE.

During the twelvemonth covered by this Report, 156 Colporteurs have been in commission, and have labored in twenty-three States of our Union, in addition to which several have served in the Dominion of Canada, and one in the Empire of Brazil. Of this number several have been appointed within a few months, and no report is yet due from them; from others, either through accidental circumstances or neglect, none have been received. The 125, who have reported, exhibit an aggregate of 11,352 days of work performed. They have sold 49,632 volumes. The gratuitous distributions have amounted to 63,698 volumes, and 2,733,193 pages of Tracts, these latter figures including also the grants made by votes of the Executive Committee. The Colporteurs report that they have visited 80,341 families, with by far the larger portion of which they have held religious conversation and prayer.

HELPING NEEDY SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

One of the most important works in which this Board is engaged is that of aiding poor and needy Sabbath-schools. While it is putting forth great efforts to publish good reading for the children, and in large variety, it is extremely anxious to supply this reading gratuitously to those who cannot afford to purchase it. Very many such Sabbath-schools have been strengthened and encouraged by grants of books during the past years. How delighted the children of these schools in the more destitute parts of the country are to receive books, those of us who live among books continually can hardly comprehend.

TRACT DISTRIBUTION, BY PASTORS AND OTHERS.

It is the habit of the Board to furnish Tracts gratuitously to any of our pastors or missionaries, who cannot afford to buy, and will distribute them among the people on and around their fields of labor. Unspeakable good has thus been accomplished by many a servant of Christ; indeed in some cases it is hardly too much to say, that their usefulness has been doubled. In every case where Tracts are faithfully and judiciously used, a minister's usefulness may be largely increased.

TOTAL OF DISTRIBUTIONS.

Bringing together all the amounts which have been separately mentioned, we obtain the following as the total of distributions during the past year:

Volumes sold at the Depository,	215,858
Volumes sold by Colporteurs,	49,632
Volumes given by Colporteurs, and granted by the Executive Committee,	63,698
Total of Volumes,	329,188

The pages of Tracts distributed have been,

By sale at the Depository,	221,586
Given by Colporteurs, and granted by Executive Committee,	2,733,193
Total	2,954,779

In addition to these the Board has issued

Copies of the Sabbath-School Visitor,	$1,765,000
Copies of the Record,	175,000
Copies of various Reports,	24,500

The net value of these issues has been,

Sales in the Depository,	$47,392 50
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, etc.,	1,304 45
Sales by Colporteurs,	44,483 18
Sabbath-School Visitor,	14,858 19
Record,	6,725 52
Total,	$114,763 84

This total comprehends credit sales and donations, and of course differs from the Treasurer's account, which credits only cash received.

3. The Department of Sustentation.

The entire receipts into the Board's Treasury, from all sources, excluding the balance at the beginning of the year, have amounted to $146,193.54.

The aggregate of expenditures during the year has been $145,892.27; the receipts having exceeded the expenditures by $301.27.

The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year is $14,627.40.

THE COLPORTAGE AND DISTRIBUTION FUND.

The receipts into the Colportage and Distribution Fund during the year have been $36,577.01, and the expenditures from the Fund, $35,397.79; the receipts having exceeded the expenditures by $1179.22.

The receipts into this Fund have this year exceeded those of the preceding year by $4488.13. Though coming far short of the full measure of duty, it is pleasing to see that our Church is every year increasing in liberality toward this good work.

The number of contributing churches reported last year was 930; this year it is 1130, including 115 which have sent their contributions to the Synodical Board at Pittsburgh. If every church in our connection should give a contribution to this Fund, although from many of the poorer churches it might be a very trifle, how great and blessed an advance might be made in sending out a pure and healthful Christian literature throughout the land!

IX. PRESBYTERIAN PUBLICATION COMMITTEE.

Abstract of the Eighteenth Annual Report.

For the last time, as the agency of a Branch of the Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Publication Committee presents to the General Assembly its Annual Report. Eighteen years since, in 1852, "The Doctrinal Tract Committee" was organized by the General Assembly. In 1853, the Assembly suggested to it "the desirableness of issuing a few Tracts," which should clearly exhibit the views of the body. In 1855, the Committee was called "The Presbyterian Publication Committee," and, in 1857, its sphere of operations was enlarged so as to cover the field of denominational and religious literature.

At this time, the Committee had but four Tracts, the Confession of Faith, Barnes's Apostolic Church, and an Almanac. The "Doctrinal Tract" idea had totally failed to awaken the interest of the churches. Nor did the wider basis of a Denominational Literature rapidly kindle their enthusiasm. It was by slow steps, and earnest effort on the part of its friends, that the Committee secured a footing for the discharge of its duties, and, in 1865, a capital of $50,000 as a foundation for its publication work.

With the ability to do something tangible and useful, the Cause advanced in the interest and affection of the churches. Since 1865, its growth has been steady, cheering, and satisfactory. The Committee's list of publications has had a healthful increase, and of late years its Books and Tracts have been issued rapidly, and have met with great and increasing approbation. By the gratuitous distributions of its publications, it has also done noble service to the cause of Christ. Home Missionaries and their fields of labor, Sabbath-schools, the Freedmen, and earnest Christians have thus been helped, and the preaching of the page has been added to the preaching of the Christian voice and life.

In laying down its trust, the Presbyterian Publication Committee devoutly render thanks to God for His blessings on labors sincerely though often imperfectly performed.

During the past year the Committee has added to its list the following new publications:

THE PRESBYTERIAN MONTHLY has continued to be the vehicle of such information as the various Committees and Boards desired to send through it to the churches. It has been issued at its own cost, with the exception of the payment for advertising the contributions received by the Boards and Committees, and has been sent free to all pastors and stated supplies.

SUMMARY OF PUBLICATIONS ISSUED DURING THE YEAR.

11 Tracts in 18mo.
3 Unbound Books in 32mo.
1 Unbound Book in 18mo.
54 Bound Volumes of different sizes.

69 new publications in all, exclusive of the "Presbyterian Monthly."

Grants of Books and Tracts:

During the year the Committee has had the privilege of distributing its publications largely to those who needed and desired them, but who could not procure them without aid. These grants have proved as acceptable as they have been useful.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

The Report of the Treasurer shows an advance in sales over all preceding years. In view of the re-union movement, the Committee has postponed the Colportage work, so as to avoid embarrassment in consolidating the two publication agencies, and has relied on direct trade for its sales.

The "cash received on account of sales," in the Treasurer's Report, does not show the full amount of sales made, as in some cases balances only appear upon the books of the Treasurer.

The total sales were $48,867.85. In the purely benevolent department of its work, the Committee expended the past year $8,880.28.

The Treasurer's Report shows:

The Treasurer holds also Temporary Investments amounting to $9900.

In addition to the contributions received by the Treasurer, the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, have received, to hold in trust for the Committee, a gift of Ten Thousand Dollars, from Mr. John C. Baldwin, of Orange, New-Jersey.

Sabbath-School Work:

The authorization of the last Assembly to employ a General Agent for Sabbath-school work was welcomed by the Committee, and a Sub-committee appointed to attend to this most important department of church work. A gentleman was appointed, but he did not see his way clear to enter upon the duties of the post. After considerable further inquiry and correspondence, without a positive decision, the year had so far advanced, and the Re-union of the two great branches of the Presbyterian Church had become so assured a fact, that it was deemed wise and delicate to postpone, for the present, this new enterprise.

Sixteenth Annual Report.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian House report to the General Assembly, that the receipts and expenditures of the year, as shown by the Report of their Treasurer, duly audited, have been as follows:

Total receipts, including balance, ...	$49,376 08
Total expenditures, ...	48,847 57
Leaving a balance of	$528 51

The Trustees herewith submit to the Assembly the Sixth Annual Report of the Executive Committee of the Ministerial Relief Fund Agency, and the Report of their Treasurer, duly audited.

The Trustees are happy to report that, after long delay, the Sebring and Irwin Estates have been finally settled. The net proceeds from the Sebring Estate have, by advice of counsel, been paid to the Assembly's Home Mission Committee; and the net proceeds from the Irwin Estate have been invested, the interest, in accordance with the terms of the will, to be paid to the same Committee.

The Trustees further report, that they have accepted the trust of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) from Simeon Benjamin, late of Elmira, New-York, deceased, and the trust of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000) from John C. Baldwin, late of Orange, New-Jersey, deceased. The Benjamin Fund is to be invested in bond and mortgage, and the interest is to be expended, for the following named objects, as by the Trustees shall be deemed best:

First,	for the object of	Home Missions, the interest of	$10,000
Second,	" "	Foreign Missions, "	10,000
Third,	" "	Bible Distribution, "	5,000
Fourth,	" "	Tract and Religious Book Distribution, the interest of	5,000

According to the terms of Mr. Benjamin's will, the executors are allowed ten years in which to pay the bequest, by paying the interest annually. One year's interest has already been received and distributed. Of the Baldwin Fund, twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) are to be held in trust for the benefit of the Assembly's Ministerial Relief Fund, the income only to be applied to the charitable uses of said Fund; and ten thousand dollars ($10,000) are to be held in trust for the benefit of the Assembly's Publication Committee, the income only to be used by said Committee. In the gift of this munificent sum to Ministerial Relief and Publication, Mr. Baldwin was his own executor, and the Trustees would heartily commend his example, in this particular, to all benevolent persons, who propose to aid important church enterprises.

The Trustees still further report, that the bequest of $2000 by D. T. Woodbury, late of Columbus, Ohio, deceased, for the use and benefit of the Assembly's Publication Committee, has been paid, less tax, and that the money has been invested in accordance with the provisions of the will.

The Trustees still further report, that they have received $940 net, from the executor of Milton Clark, late of Watertown, New-York, deceased, being part of a residuary legacy to the Trustees, "to be expended by them for the appropriate uses of the Ministerial Relief Fund of the General Assembly;" and that they have paid the money to the Treasurer of said Fund. They report, also, that they have received $470 net, from the Executors of James M. Billings, late of New-York City, deceased, "for the purposes of the Trustees, and that they have appropriated the money to the Assembly's Ministerial Relief Fund."

The Trustees still further report, that they have accepted the trust of the property at the corner of Otter and Leopard streets, Philadelphia, conveyed to them by the Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd and wife, and the Rev. Richard H. Allen and wife, for the use and benefit of the First German Presbyterian Church of the City of Philadelphia.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, namely, Samuel H. Perkins, Esq., Mr. Alexander Whilldin, Mr. William E. Tenbrook, Rev. Albert Barnes, and Rev. Ezra E. Adams, D.D. Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Trustees,

THOMAS JAMES SHEPHERD, Secretary.

Philadelphia, May 16*th*, 1870.

XI. COMMITTEE ON THE FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., Chairman,
Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D.,
Mr. Samuel Hood,
Mr. John C. Farr,
Rev. George Hale, D.D., Secretary,
Rev. Charles Brown, Treasurer.

Abstract of the Fifteenth Annual Report.

The year has been one of success and growing interest in the Cause, with the reasonable prospect of its being well sustained by the churches.

One of the Committee, Francis N. Buck, Esq., departed this life, September 21st, 1869, having faithfully served for about nine years.

During the year, ten of those who were receiving assistance from this Fund have died, namely, seven ministers of the Gospel, and three widows of deceased ministers. There have been nine cases in which there has been no renewed application for aid: four ministers, four widows, and one family of orphans, ceasing to draw from the Fund.

Notwithstanding the number of names stricken from the list every year, in consequence of death, or a declining to receive further help, the aggregate of applicants is becoming steadily larger, and many more would doubtless have been added, if all who are needy and have a just claim upon the generous care of the Church, were to be supplied.

From April 1st, 1869, to April 1st, 1870, forty new cases called for aid, namely, eighteen ministers, twenty widows (most of them with families), and the orphans of two families. The whole number who have been relieved during the year is, Ministers of the Gospel, sixty-four; Widows, ninety-one; with the Orphans of thirteen families. These are distributed throughout eighty-five Presbyteries, belonging to twenty-five Synods, all but Northern India, and the Synod of the Pacific.

The total of expenditures for the year ending April 1st, 1870, was $38,999.24, being in advance of the disbursements for the year preceding by $10,496.89.

Contributions have been sent in from twenty-six Synods. Among these are worthy of note remittances from the Church of Choo Foo, in the Presbytery of Shangtung, China; from the four churches of Western Africa; and from several of the churches of the Freedmen in the South. Churches recently organized have set the worthy example of commencing systematic contributions at once; and feeble ones of only twelve, nine, and even seven communicants, have taken up collections.

The receipts from all sources, to April 1st, 1870 (exclusive of legacies, and donations to the Permanent Fund), were $36,773.75. The additions to the Permanent Fund (including the $1000 thank-offering for Re-union by Rev. C. C. Beatty, D.D., LL.D.) is $4668, making a total of $41,441.75.

In conclusion, the Committee express the earnest hope, that, by a strong, persevering, and united effort in the Re-united Church, the interests of this Cause may receive a greater impulse than has been known at any time within the last twenty-one years. There will be no less for each individual and congregation to do, in consequence of the increased numbers brought together by the Union. The new cases, continually brought to the attention of the Committee, show that there will be a demand for larger contributions. Non-contributing churches should be persuaded to lend a helping hand, and those that have been in the habit of giving may well be encouraged to do more. This is a Fund which should never be suffered to diminish. Let nothing check the outpouring of the generous sympathies of the Christian people who desire to "minister to the Saints, and do minister." Let the stream continue to swell to larger and still larger dimensions. Of the more than four thousand ministers in the United Church, many are anxiously looking toward this, as their main resource, in the day of want, for themselves and their households. And shall these expectations be disappointed? For these reasons, the General Assembly is requested not only to urge all the churches to make annual collections, but to renew its recommendations to the people, to bring liberal donations, as free-will offerings to the Permanent Fund, and to remember this Cause in their "last will and testament."

In all this, the counsels of infinite wisdom are the best guide, both for churches and individuals. The prosecution of a generous policy toward the servants of Christ in active duty, and toward those who have been obliged to retire from service, and toward the bereaved households of departed ministers, is the only wise one. Withholding from these what is their due, can never bring true prosperity to any organized body of the people of God.

It is written: "If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?" And with regard to the wisdom and advantage of a large liberality, we have the testimony of our blessed Lord himself: "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again."

In behalf of the Committee.

GEORGE HALE, Secretary.

XII. COMMITTEE OF THE MINISTERIAL RELIEF FUND.

Sixth Annual Report of the Executive Committee.

Nearly six years have expired since the Committee were appointed to take charge of the Relief Fund, which in 1864 had just been established.

At no time during the period of their appointment, have they had any doubts as to the importance of the work assigned them, or any difference of opinion as to their method of conducting it.

They feel thankful to God for his favor, which seems always to have attended their efforts, and by which they have been enabled to present, to the General Assembly of each successive year, encouraging accounts of the steady advancement of the Cause of Ministerial Relief.

Although so few of the churches, comparatively, have as yet learned to contribute to the wants of superannuated ministers, and to the needy widows and orphans of ministers deceased, still by the liberality of those churches which have contributed, and the generosity of several friends to the Cause, who have given to it largely, the Committee have been able to send appropriations to all the applicants for assistance, whose cases came regularly before them.

The receipts for the last year were $38,879.22. This is nearly eighty per cent above the amount received the year previous, owing chiefly to the princely gift of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for the Permanent Fund, from the late Mr. John C. Baldwin, of Orange, New-Jersey, given before his death.

Mr. Baldwin was in the habit of giving to this Cause five hundred dollars annually for current expenses; but feeling the importance of raising a Permanent Fund, he generously gave a munificent donation toward it.

As the years are so few since the Relief Fund was first started, its growth, in several respects, can be shown in a very few lines, as follows:

	Receipts.	Contributing Churches.	Amount Appropriated.	Number of Applicants.	Number of persons aided.
1865	$3,638	40	$625	5	18
1866	6,300	130	4,710	30	100
1867	9,647	235	7,800	46	137
1868	10.478	235	9,710	60	181
1869	21.668	285	11,125	66	200

By the above table, it will be seen that the Relief Fund has gathered into its Treasury, since its organization (less than six years ago), ninety thousand six hundred and ten dollars.

In addition to this, there are five thousand four hundred dollars in two bequests, that will come into its treasury at an early day, making the whole amount secured for the benefit of aged ministers, etc., more than ninety-six thousand dollars ($96,000).

Of the applicants for aid last year thirty-four were ministers, thirty-nine widows, and five families of orphans.

Of the ministers,

Six are between 82 and 90 years old. Average years in the Ministry, 57.
Fifteen " 70 " 79 " " " " " " 44.
Six " 63 " 70 " " " " " " 41.

The remaining seven ministers are sixty years of age or less, having failed in health, with no prospect of being able again to perform pulpit duties.

Of the widows, thirty have children depending on them for support, and much need the assistance which they obtain from the Fund.

The Committee would here express their gratification at the repeated testimonials given by the General Assembly, from time to time, as to the importance and utility of the work in which they are engaged, and especially with the confidence manifested toward them and their labors by the Assemblies of 1868 and 1869.

* * * * * * * *

Among the persons assisted, there are widows who, in toiling to provide for their helpless children, labor far beyond the safety of their constitutions, causing thereby a serious decline of health, with symptoms of premature death.

There are ministers also, enfeebled by disease, or by over-exertion in the duties of their office, who, after many years of faithful labors in the cause of Christ, are now left almost penniless, and with no means of subsistence beyond that furnished by the Church, or by the offices of common charity.

Each and all of these persons have tales of sorrow that should move the hearts of Christ's friends to their assistance.

Some of the aged ministers now being sustained have gone through many afflictions. They have long since buried the companions of their youth, and seen their offspring, one after another, go down into early graves. They have outlived nearly all those, who were the friends and associates of their active ministry. And now, with the weight of eighty or ninety years upon them, they turn to the Church of God for that sympathy and assistance which they so much need, but which they cannot find in the new world around them, in which they still continue to linger, and yet in it feel almost as strangers.

The members of the Executive Committee are, Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Mr. John C. Farr, and Mr. William E. Tenbrook.

Abstract of the Fifth Annual Report.

The experience of the past has led the Committee to feel, through all the year, that it might not venture to open new missions, however promising the fields; nor even to enlarge its work in old missions, however apparent and pressing the necessity. Simply to sustain what had already been undertaken, was all that the Church's liberality, as hitherto exhibited in this behalf, would warrant its undertaking; and the most painful experience of all the year has been this inability to enter new fields, "white already to harvest;" and inability, as well, to cultivate ground already occupied, to the extent that the very success of its work, in the past, urgently demanded. Laborers have not been wanting. Numerous applications for work have been presented; but the Committee has been obliged to turn a deaf ear, in almost every instance, even to the best qualified, because unable to pay the hire of which their labor would be worthy.

MISSIONARIES.

In the past year, the Committee has had under its care 29 ministers, 27 catechists, and 101 teachers—in all 157 missionaries, who have performed 84 years and 10 months' labor; of these 105 were of the African race.

CHURCHES.

The number of churches under the care of the Committee is 69. To these have been added, during the year, 667 on examination, and 296 on certificate—in all 936; and the whole number of communicants is 5264. In several of these churches there has been a very encouraging degree of religious interest. One of the missionaries reports, that in the month of April he baptized 50 adults, and received 51 to the communion of his church on examination, making the present total of members in the Midway Macedonia Church, Ga., 610. Another missionary, who has the care of three churches in Virginia, writes, that "there is a general religious awakening among the Freedmen throughout their bounds," and that in one of them, twenty-one express a hope that they have passed from a state of spiritual death to life in Christ.

SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

The Committee has had under its care, the past year, 76 Sabbath-schools, in which there have been 5747 pupils; being 1024 more than the number reported in any previous year.

DAY-SCHOOLS.

The Committee has had under its care, the past year, 77 schools, with 5267 pupils, instructed by 101 teachers. The interest taken in these schools by both parents and their children is peculiar, and with the rapid progress of the scholars very encouraging.

ECCLESIASTICAL.

The Committee's work among the Freedmen has resulted in the organization of three Presbyteries, and one Synod, viz.: the Presbyteries of Catawba, Atlantic, and Knox, and the Synod of Atlantic.

Brief Résumé of the Committee's Work.

The Committee has been in existence five years. The Report of May 1st, 1866, showed 528 churches in 100 Presbyteries contributing to its work; that of May 1st, 1870, shows 854 churches in 112 Presbyteries; being an increase of 326 churches and 12 Presbyteries in four years. The total of contributions in these five years, by churches and individuals, is $135,263.54; and the total expended, $244,726.16. This excess ($109,462.62) of expenditures over the amount contributed has been met, by the amounts received from the United States Government, the Boards of Domestic Missions and Church Extension, and from the Freedmen themselves. This last item amounts to over $24,000.

The number of Missionaries, reported in 1866, was 77—now, 157; showing an increase of 80 in four years. The increase of colored Missionaries in the past three years has been from 41 to 78; while the number of white Missionaries has decreased, in the same period, from 56 to 51. In four years, the increase of churches has been from 6 to 75; of communicants, from 526 to 5264; of Sabbath-schools, in 3 years, from 32 to 76, and in Sunday-school scholars, from 2357 to 5747; in day-schools, from 24 to 77, and in pupils from 2324 to 5267. Biddle Memorial Institute, at Charlotte, N. C., opened in September, 1867, has, in two years, increased its number of students from 43 to 80, has five buildings, and a property valued at over $13,000. Wallingford Academy, in Charleston, S. C., has over 300 pupils on its roll, and has a lot and two good buildings, valued at $13,000. Freedmen's University, Kansas, has on its roll 180 students, and has grounds with four buildings, valued at $10,000. There are, belonging to the Committee's Missions, 57 churches, 8 manses, or "homes," and 20 school buildings—in all, 85; which, with their grounds, are valued at $66,680, and more. Such is a brief résumé of the good work, which God in his good providence now calls upon the re-united Presbyterian Church to prosecute with renewed vigor.

XIV. FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

Second Annual Report.

The cordial indorsement, by the last General Assembly, of the work of the Committee of Home Missions, among the Freedmen—together with the recommendation to the churches to raise for its support this year one hundred thousand dollars—required the Committee to extend and enlarge the work, in conformity with their instructions to "move forward in this direction boldly and swiftly."

One hundred and ninety-seven missionaries and missionary teachers have been under appointment during the twelve months which have elapsed since the meeting of the last General Assembly; of whom 86 were reported last year. The most of these concluded their labors in June—but a number were recommissioned in September. The average number in the employ of the committee has been 115.

During the summer a large number of the students of Lincoln University, Pa., were employed to organize and conduct schools for the Freedmen, in Maryland and elsewhere, during their College vacation. Of these thirty undergraduates, not one proved false to his trust. In all cases, these teachers were boarded by the people among whom they taught. Prominent citizens of Maryland speak well of their labors. The Superintendent of the Freedmen's Bureau for that State approved their work; while their school reports, from month to month, showed commendable progress among their pupils in the elements of school learning. The amount paid them was of valuable assistance to them, enabling several of them to continue in College another year.

Including the above, the mission work of the Committee has been conducted during the past year by 8 ordained ministers (2 of whom are colored) and 5 licensed preachers (4 of whom are colored);—while not fewer than 185 teachers have been employed, of whom 66 are males and 119 females.

MISSIONARIES.

The number of ministers and licensed preachers in this field has been but slightly increased. For this work candidates do not offer freely—which fact may be a providential pointing to the true source of future supply, the theological training of young men of color for the pulpits of their own race.

The efforts of the few brethren who have consented to bear the heat and the burden of our day of pioneer work, cannot be too highly commended. Contending with extraordinary difficulties, they have struggled to plant churches and organize religious work, in districts where they were not only unwelcomed by the late dominant class, but regarded with jealousy by those whose profession should teach them better things.

Rev. George W. Le Vere, pastor of the church at Knoxville, Tennessee, and Mr. James C. Davis, of Lincoln University, a Licentiate of the Fourth Presbytery of Philadelphia, stationed at New-Market, in the same State, report a steady progressive work. A number of small churches of colored people in that vicinity are without pastors.

Rev. Ennals J. Adams, of Charleston, South-Carolina, continues the successful pastor of the Colored Church in that city. Mr. Lewis Nelson, a Licentiate of the Presbytery of Newcastle, is stationed at Summerville, within a few miles of the former. Rev. Thomas Thompson, pastor of a recently organized church at Laurens, in the same State, reports an increase of religious interest, and adds the satisfactory intelligence that "the white people in his vicinity are showing a respect for him, and his work, much greater than could have been reasonably anticipated one year ago."

At Winnsboro, a little church has been gathered, to which, in connection with other churches in that vicinity, Rev. Willard Richardson ministers with great fidelity. The field is a difficult one, and the missionary has had much to contend with.

Rev. Samuel Loomis, of Chester, has done a great and good work in that vicinity. Six churches have been organized, with an aggregate membership of 257; and 5 candidates for the ministry have been brought forward, among them a young man of superior ability, from whose labors we look for great results. In this locality we have striking evidence of the value of our Church Erection Cause—Mr. Loomis having been able, with its assistance, to complete four neat frame churches.

Mr. A. C. Elder and Mr. Daniel J. Saunders have lately been licensed by the Presbytery of South-Carolina.

Each of these churches, provided with regular preaching, has its attendant Sunday-School—as, in fact, have the day-schools, as well as the churches under our care—many of them being furnished with small but well-selected libraries, donated by the Evangelical Friends in New-York, and by a Colored Mission School, under the direction of and supported by the First Church in Philadelphia, and one or two by friends of the colored people in England.

TEACHERS.

It was the design of the Committee, that the schools organized by them should be of a thoroughly Christian character. To this end, care was taken in the selection of teachers to procure the services of young persons of well-known religious standing—the preference being given, of course, to members of our own churches. The exceptions to our success in this direction are to be found mostly in a few of our schools, received with their teachers, from declining coöperative associations.

SCHOOLS.

The Normal School at Winchester, Va., under the direction and oversight of our efficient Superintendent of Schools for the Valley of the Shenandoah, Mr. Oscar M. Waring, has increased in attendance and usefulness, and lacks but the expenditure of a few thousand dollars to make it what it is designed to be, a first-class educational institution. There is a steady demand for good colored teachers. We have here a good location, a superior lot in the very centre of the town, and first-class instructors; but the building upon the lot is inadequate to our use—for, although of brick and tolerable for a common school, it is ill-adapted for the purposes of a Seminary of high grade.

Nearly 4000 children have partaken of the benefits of school instruction, in the institutions under the care of this Committee during the past year. In several of these a half-day each week has been regularly set apart for the study of the Bible, and instruction in divine things—while moral and religious training have had a prominent place in the daily routine of the school-room.

Night-schools for adults, mothers' meetings, and institutions of a similar character, have received the care and attention of the teachers—while a vigorous temperance movement, of comparatively recent origin, has had their hearty and active support.

TEMPERANCE.

Correspondence from many parts of the South shows that many of the recently emancipated people are greatly exposed to the evils of intemperance. Temperance societies have been organized in several localities. Bands of Hope have been formed for the children, with their pleasant attractions of banner, badge, and procession—while private labor with heads of families, often quite successful, has tended to check and in some instances to stay this tide of destruction.

PHYSICAL DESTITUTION.

In East-Tennessee, and in portions of Virginia and North-Carolina, considerable destitution prevailed last winter. An application for clothing from Leesburgh, Virginia, was met promptly by the benevolent of Belvidere, N. J., and relieved in less than a fortnight from the date of its reception.

REVIVALS.

In several districts, where our missionaries and teachers are operating, there have been reported seasons of deep religious feeling and precious revivals of religion.

In most of these places this interest began in the school, growing out of the earnest efforts of pious teachers, who regarded their mission to these people in the light of eternity, and their work among them as taking hold upon both worlds.

FUNDS.

It was believed that a work could be done, costing not more than half the sum recommended by the Assembly, and that the churches would sustain the Committee to this extent; but this belief has not been realized. While the donations from the churches are nearly three-fold what they were last year, they have fallen far short of the requirements of the work—leaving the Committee seriously embarrassed.

From 319 churches, and from individuals, there have been received $26,063.34; from the Freedmen's Bureau, $9238.50; from the English Fund for Normal School at Winchester, Va., through the Pittsburgh Freedmen's Aid Commission, $542.75; Book sales and Freedmen's Schools, $678.48; Legacies, $375; balance from last year, $279.65. Making a total of $37,172.72. While the disbursements for the same period have been $45,770.53—leaving a balance against the Committee of $8597.81—to which must be added the cost of the work for a portion of March and April, which will increase the debt—for the larger part of which members of the Committee have become personally responsible—while the balance is due to employees now in the field.

If, from the non-contributing churches, the small sum of ten dollars each had been received for this good work, the embarrassment of the Committee might have been spared, while the mortification of showing so large a deficit would be avoided. It may be added that the cost of the work has been greatly augmented by the refusal of the Government to grant transportation to teachers, to or from the field, since March, 1869.

OBITUARY.

Since the distinct work of this Committee for the Freedmen was inaugurated, two teachers, while in our employ and in actual service at their posts, have been called to go up higher.

Miss Anna A. Boyce, a native of Ohio—who had labored among the colored people for several years, having been at one time connected with the Colored Orphan Asylum at Memphis, Tenn.—after a brief illness, at the Teachers' Home in Columbia, in May last, was permitted to rest from her labors, in full assurance of the Christian's hope.

Mrs. Mary E. Thompson—the beloved companion of Rev. Thomas Thompson, our missionary at Laurens, S. C.—was called, in April last, to leave all earthly ties, at the Master's summons. Far from the home of her childhood, among strangers in a strange land, she breathed her last. She was a devoted Christian, and has doubtless gone to her everlasting reward. To the glad reunion of brethren comes the bereaved missionary, for whom we can only pray and drop the tear of heartfelt sympathy.

William A. Booth, Treasurer.

New-York, May 14th, 1870.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. COMMISSIONERS' AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage System, adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, as recorded on pages 59 and 60 of these Minutes. In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is required to pay in full to the Mileage Committee of the next General Assembly, a sum equal to six cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the requirements of the Assembly.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also, to every Minister, and to the Session of every contributing vacant church (whose address is known), of every Presbytery that has contributed its full apportionment to the Mileage Fund of the Assembly; also, to every ordained Missionary in the service of the Board of Foreign Missions.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and how distributed; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next Annual Meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. Such a Report is necessary in order to the correctness of the Tabular Report of the Synods, printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 198, of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers; also the decease, if any, of the ministers of the Presbytery during the year; in the latter case, the age, date, and place, are also to be given. Also, its various arrangements for Church extension; stating the number of its ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of its churches, and how they are supplied; the gross amount of funds collected in its bounds for Home Missions and Church Erection; the amount received by its churches from the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions; the number of houses of worship, with their probable value, whether they are free from debt, and what has been done within the year to relieve them from debt; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the Gospel; what and how much agency has been employed: together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be strictly observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 198, if a blank has not been received.

(2.) Record Ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their CHRISTIAN names in full; and their Address in the adjoining column.

(3.) ☞ Place the name of every Church opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never, opposite the name of any other minister; if vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. ☜

(4.) Place after the name of every minister, an Abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-School Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a College or Theological Seminary; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary, and D. Sec., for a District Secretary, of a benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; W. C., for a Minister without charge; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner.

(5.) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is Vacant.

(6.) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the directions at the foot of the blank form on the next page, ☞ 198; and omit the fractions of the dollar.

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column; but, of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the respective Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11.) Annex a Statement, of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, and organizations and reception of new Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date, and place) of Licentiates and Ministers, since the last Annual Report.

(13.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible—not later than June 1st—by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 149 West Thirty-fourth street, New-York City.

FORM OF A PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In connection with these statements it should be observed, that a very considerable number of Presbyteries have neglected to report the number of their official Acts, such as Licensures, Ordinations, etc. Several Presbyteries, indicated by an asterisk [*], failed to forward their Annual Report to the last Assembly. Many Churches, too, as indicated in the same way, have failed to render their Annual Report to their Presbyteries. The number of Additions to the Churches, and the amounts contributed, are greater than are here stated. The names of the seventy-three Ministers, who have ceased from their labors and entered into their rest, during the year preceding the meeting of the last Assembly, will be found in connection with the Annual Narrative on page 133. The Schedule of the Synods as reconstructed by the last Assembly, and of the Presbyteries as reconstructed by the Synods since the meeting of the Assembly, will be found on the next two pages.

All which is respectfully submitted,

EDWIN F. HATFIELD,

Stated Clerk.
